1999 SCHEDULING FORMULA

Each 1999 team schedule is based on a "common-opponent" formula initiated for the 1978 season and most recently modified in 1995. Under the common-opponent format, all teams in a division play at least 10 of their 16 games the following season against common opponents. It is not a position scheduling format in which the strong play the strong and the weak play the weak.

In creating a schedule, the NFL seeks an easily understood and balanced formula that provides both competitive equality and a variety of opponents. Under the rotation scheduling system in effect from 1970-77, non-division opponents were determined by a pre-set formula. This often resulted in competitive imbalances.

With common opponents as the basis for scheduling, a more competitive and equitable method of determining division champions and postseason playoff representatives has developed. Teams battling for a division title are playing approximately two-thirds of their games against common opponents.

In 1987, NFL owners passed a bylaw proposal designed to modify the common-opponent scheduling format and create greater equity. And in 1995, with the addition of two expansion teams, the 1987 changes were modified to include fifth-place teams in the common-opponent scheduling format for each division. The following chart shows a history of the pairings in non-division games within the conference since the change to a common-opponent format in 1978:

Prior Year's Finish in Division	Current Pairings in Non-Division Games Within Conference	Previous Pairings 1987-94	Previous Pairings 1978-86
1	1-1-2-3	1-1-2-3	1-1-4-4
2	1-2-2-4	1-2-2-4	2-2-3-3
3	1-3-3-5	1-3-3-4	2-2-3-3
4	2-4-4-5	2-3-4-4	1-1-4-4
5	3-4-5-5

With the addition of Cleveland as the League's 31st franchise, some modifications to the scheduling formula were necessary to accomodate a new six-team division (AFC Central).

Under the common-opponent format, schedules of all NFL teams are figured according to the following formula. (The reference point for the figuring is the team's final division standing. Ties in divisions are broken according to the tie-breaking procedures outlined on page 25.)

A. Divisional Games

Each team will play home-and-home with the other teams in its division (8 games for all divisions except for teams in the AFC Central which will each have 10 divisional games).

B. Intraconference Games

1. Each team in all divisions except the AFC Central will play four nondivision conference opponents based on the previous season's standings, as shown below.

2. Teams that finished first and second in the AFC Central in the previous season's standings will play two nondivision conference opponents, and teams that finished third, fourth, fifth, and sixth will each play three nondivision conference opponents, as shown below:

Prior Year's Finish in Division	NFC Teams	AFC East/West (alternating years)	AFC Central
1	1-1-2-3	1-1-2-3/1-1-2-4	1-1
2	1-2-2-4	1-2-2-5/1-2-2-3	2-2
3	1-3-3-5	2-3-3-4/1-3-3-5	3-3-4
4	2-4-4-5	1-4-4-6/3-4-4-5	3-4-4
5	3-4-5-5	4-5-5-6/2-5-5-6	3-5-5
6			4-5-5

C. Interconference Games

1. Continuing the current rotation, teams from each division of one conference will play teams from a division of the other conference, as follows:

1999	NFC-E vs. AFC-E	NFC-C vs. AFC-W	NFC-W vs. AFC-C
2000	NFC-E vs. AFC-C	NFC-C vs. AFC-E	NFC-W vs. AFC-W
2001	NFC-E vs. AFC-W	NFC-C vs. AFC-C	NFC-W vs. AFC-E

2. Each team in all divisions except the AFC Central will play four games against teams of a division of the other conference, as is done currently. The NFL will continue the rotation of interconference opponents, including rotation of home and away sites, for games between teams of the NFC and teams from the AFC East and AFC West that provides for all teams from NFC divisions to play all teams from the AFC East and AFC West four times in 15 years, two home and two away.

3. Beginning in 1999, teams that finished first and second in the AFC Central in the previous season will play four games against teams of a division of the other conference, and teams that finished third, fourth, fifth, and sixth will each play three games against teams of a division of the other conference, based on the standings from the previous season as shown below. For preparation of the 1999 schedule, Cleveland was assigned the schedule of the sixth-place team.

Prior Year's Finish In Division	AFC Central Schedule vs. NFC Division	NFC Division Schedule vs. AFC Central
1	1-2-3-4	1-2-3-4
2	1-2-3-5	1-2-3-5
3	1-2-4	1-2-4-6
4	1-3-5	1-3-5-6
5	2-4-5	2-4-5-6
6	3-4-5

NFL PASSER RATING SYSTEM

The NFL rates its passers for statistical purposes against a fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The current system replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

—Percentage of completions per attempt
—Average yards gained per attempt
—Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
—Percentage of interceptions per attempt

The average standard, is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating, a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 70.55 by Ken Anderson (Cincinnati, 1982). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve a percentage of 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100. In rare cases, where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to surpass a 100 rating. For example, take Steve Young's record-setting season in 1994 when he completed 324 of 461 passes for 3,969 yards, 35 touchdowns, and 10 interceptions. The four calculations would be:

—Percentage of Completions—324 of 461 is 70.28 percent. Subtract 30 from the completion percentage (40.28) and multiply the result by 0.05. The result is a point rating of 2.014.
Note: If the result is less than zero (Comp. Pct. less than 30.0), award zero points. If the results are greater than 2.375 (Comp. Pct. greater than 77.5), award 2.375.

—Average Yards Gained Per Attempt—3,969 yards divided by 461 attempts is 8.61. Subtract three yards from yards-per-attempt (5.61) and multiply the result by 0.25. The result is 1.403.
Note: If the result is less than zero (yards per attempt less than 3.0), award zero points. If the result is greater than 2.375 (yards per attempt greater than 12.5), award 2.375 points.

—Percentage of Touchdown Passes—35 touchdowns in 461 attempts is 7.59 percent. Multiply the touchdown percentage by 0.2. The result is 1.518.
Note: If the result is greater than 2.375 (touchdown percentage greater than 11.875), award 2.375.

—Percentage of Interceptions—10 interceptions in 461 attempts is 2.17 percent. Multiply the interception percentage by 0.25 (0.542) and subtract the number from 2.375. The result is 1.833.
Note: If the result is less than zero (interception percentage greater than 9.5), award zero points.

The sum of the four steps is (2.014 + 1.403 + 1.518 + 1.833) 6.768. The sum is then divided by six (1.128) and multiplied by 100. In this case, the result is 112.8. This same formula can be used to determine a passer rating for any player who attempts at least one pass.

The following is a list of qualifying passers who had a single-season passer rating of 100 or higher:

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 30 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is three business days from the beginning of the League Year through April 30, 10 days from May 1 through the last business day before July 4, and 24 hours after July 4 through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline (October 19, 1999), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season, and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 45 players and an Inactive List of eight players for each regular-season and postseason game. Provided that a club has two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for the game, but if he enters the game during the first three quarters, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to five players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

August 31 .....Roster reduction to 60 players
September 5.....Roster reduction to 53 players
September 6.....Teams establish a Practice Squad of up to five players

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 80 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and Exempt Lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the postseason.

TRADES

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 1999 through October 19, after which trading will end until 2000.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules. NOTE: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with identical won-lost-tied percentages, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined.

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs are eliminated during any step, tie breaker reverts to step 1 of the two-club format).

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD-CARD TEAM

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild-Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken.

1. If the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps.

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs are eliminated, tie breaker reverts to step 1 of applicable two-club format.)

1. Apply division tie breaker to eliminate all but the highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the three Wild-Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep. (Applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or if one club has lost to each of the others.)
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Best average net points in conference games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

When the first Wild-Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild-Card, i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step 2, and repeated a third time, if necessary, to identify the third Wild Card. In situations where three or more teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild-Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild-Card tie breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to step one of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tie breaker, all other clubs revert to step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing division and conference records or records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild-Card tie breakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild-Card qualifiers, apply division tie breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild-Card tie breakers (if teams are from different divisions).

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION MEETING

If two or more clubs are tied in the selection order, the strength-of-schedule tie breaker is applied, subject to the following exceptions for playoff clubs:

1. The Super Bowl winner is last and the Super Bowl loser next-to-last.
2. Any non-Super Bowl playoff club involved in a tie shall be assigned priority within its segment below that of non-playoff clubs and in the order that the playoff clubs exited from the playoffs. Thus, within a tied segment a playoff club that loses in the Wild-Card game will have priority over a playoff club that loses in the Divisional playoff game, which in turn will have priority over a club that loses in the Conference Championship game. If two tied clubs exited the playoffs in the same round, the tie is broken by strength of schedule.

If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tie breakers, whichever are applicable, are applied. Any ties that still exist are broken by a coin flip.

INSTANT REPLAY

For the 1999 season, the NFL will employ a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating.

Prior to the two-minute warning of each half, a Coaches' Challenge System will be in effect. After the two-minute warning, and throughout any overtime period, a Referee Review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant from a Replay Booth.

The following procedures will be used:

REVIEWS BY REFEREE: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering official(s), prior to review. A decision will be reversed only when the Referee has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

COACHES' CHALLENGE: In each game, a team will be permitted a maximum of two challenges that will initiate Referee Replay reviews. Each challenge will require the use of a team timeout. If a challenge is upheld, the timeout will be restored to the challenging team. A challenge will never be restored. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its timeouts.

REPLAY ASSISTANT'S REQUEST FOR REVIEW: After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant. There is no limit to the number of reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Assistant. His ability to initiate a review will be unrelated to the number of timeouts that either team has remaining, and no timeout will be charged for any review initiated by the Replay Assistant.

TIME LIMIT: Each review will be a maximum of 90 seconds in length, timed from when the Referee begins his review of the replay at the field-level monitor.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS: The Replay System will cover the following play situations only:

A) PLAYS GOVERNED BY SIDELINE, GOAL LINE, END ZONE, AND END LINE:
1. Scoring plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line.
2. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line, end zone, and end line.
3. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds.
4. Recovery of loose ball in or out of bounds.

B) PASSING PLAYS:
1. Pass ruled complete/incomplete/intercepted in the field of play.
2. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver.
3. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player.
4. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble.
5. Illegal forward pass beyond line of scrimmage.
6. Illegal forward pass after change of possession.
7. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind line of scrimmage.

C) OTHER DETECTABLE INFRACTIONS:
1. Runner ruled not down by defensive contact.
2. Forward progress with respect to first down.
3. Touching of a kick.
4. Number of players on the field.

INSTANT REPLAY HISTORY

From 1986-1991, a limited system of Instant Replay was used on a year-by-year basis. Replay was also experimented with during the 1996 and 1998 preseasons.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Brian Billick

Pro Career: Brian Billick became the second head coach in Baltimore Ravens' history on January 19, 1999. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings the last five years (1994-98), directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and club records. He was the architect of a Minnesota offense that broke the NFL record for most points scored in a season (556), surpassing the old mark (541) set by the 1983 Washington Redskins. The 1998 Vikings ranked second in the NFL with a team-record 6,264 total yards and first in the league with 4,328 passing yards. Billick joined the Vikings in 1992 as tight ends coach. Named offensive coordinator three games into the 1993 season, the Vikings' production increased dramatically—from 264.8 yards per game throughout the first six weeks of the season to a 323.3-yard average over the final 10 games. In Billick's first full season as offensive coordinator in 1994, the Vikings finished second in the NFL in passing yards (4,324), and won the NFC Central. In 1995, the Vikings failed to qualify for the postseason, but the offense scored a club-record 412 points and gained 5,938 yards. The 1996 Minnesota team qualified for a wild-card berth in the playoffs with a 9-7 mark. The Vikings once again made the playoffs in 1997, qualifying as a wild card with a 9-7 record.

Background: Prior to his appointment with the Vikings, Billick was a Stanford assistant from 1989-1991 under Vikings' head coach Dennis Green. Billick spent three seasons as offensive coordinator at Utah State (1986-88). Billick coached receivers, tight ends, and quarterbacks at San Diego State from 1981-85 and held a dual responsibility as recruiting coordinator. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Redlands in 1977 and spent the following year (1978) as a graduate assistant at Brigham Young where he worked with tight ends and the offensive line. Following that season, Billick was assistant director of public relations for the San Francisco 49ers in 1979-1980.

Personal: Born February 28, 1954 in Fairborne, Ohio, Billick earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors and was a honorable mention All-America in 1976 as a tight end at Brigham Young. Played linebacker at Air Force as a freshman before transferring to Brigham Young. In 1977, Billick was drafted by the 49ers in the eleventh round, was released, and had a brief stint with the Dallas Cowboys, but did not play. He and his wife Kim have two daughters—Aubree and Keegan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

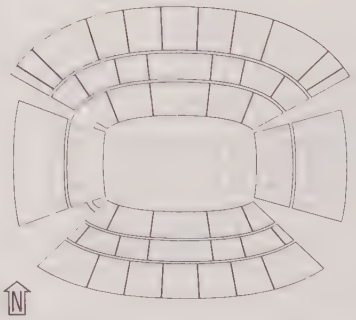
CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM



AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NFL AND THE CITY OF CLEVELAND

The 1996 agreement between the city of Cleveland and the NFL guaranteed the Browns franchise would return to Cleveland in a new state-of-the-art stadium in 1999.

The agreement held the following key points:

- The Cleveland Browns franchise will remain in Cleveland and will resume play in the 1999 season.
- The tradition and records, including the Browns' name, trademarks, colors, history, playing records, trophies, and memorabilia, will remain in Cleveland as property of the Cleveland Browns franchise.
- The new stadium will be owned by the city of Cleveland and will have a 30-year lease with the Browns. A provision in the lease stipulates the Browns will be responsible for operating the stadium.

April 17-18, 1999

PLAYER ACCESS PLAN

The expansion Cleveland Browns acquired players four ways:

1) Free Agents—The Browns were allowed to sign previously terminated free agents. From December 17 (12 days before the applicable date for the other NFL teams) until the end of the 1998 regular season, Cleveland could sign a maximum of 10 free agents (not under contract to other teams) to 1999 contracts.

2) Expansion Draft—Each of the existing 30 NFL clubs was required to submit a list of five veteran players for selection by the Browns. Each club could put forward only one player who was placed on injured reserved after the start of the 1998 regular season and one player who had 10 or more years of free agency experience. Neither punters nor kickers could be part of the list. The Browns had three minutes to select a player and were required to select between 30 and 42 players or a fewer number of players with total salaries of 38 percent of the salary cap. The existing clubs had two minutes to recall one player from its list after one of its players was selected. After a second player was selected from a club, that club could pull back both of its remaining players.

3) NFL Draft—The Browns were designated 28 choices in the NFL Draft encompassing the 1999 and 2000 seasons, 14 in 1999 and 14 in 2000. If the Browns make the playoffs in 1999, the team will not have extra picks in 2000.

In the 1999 draft, the Browns were allocated the first pick in each of the seven rounds and an additional seven picks allocated in the following manner: one selection in rounds two, three, four, five, six, and seven after all teams with a 1998 regular-season winning percentage of less than .500; the final selection in round seven.

In the 2000 draft, Cleveland will receive one regular selection per round based on its 1999 record, the same as all other clubs. The Browns will also receive seven additional picks in the 2000 draft, unless they make the playoffs in 1999, in which case they will receive no extra picks. These additional picks will vary based on Cleveland's 1999 win-loss percentage and will be allocated in the following manner based on the 2000 draft order: If Cleveland's normal selection is between 1-7, the Browns receive one extra pick in rounds three, four, and five and two extra picks in rounds six and seven. If Cleveland's normal selection is between 8-13, the Browns receive one extra pick in rounds four and five, two extra picks in round six and three extra picks in round seven. If Cleveland's normal selection is between 14-19, the Browns receive one extra pick in round five, two extra picks in round six and four extra picks in round seven.

The first extra Cleveland selection in any round will fall 16 slots below the club's original choice in that round, but no lower than the end of the round, after any regular compensatory selections.

In 1998 and 1999 Cleveland was prohibited from trading any draft picks to acquire or obtain the contractual release of any non-player personnel (i.e. coach, general manager).

4) Restricted and Unrestricted Free Agents—The Browns were eligible to sign both restricted and unrestricted free agents during this year's veteran free agency period. They had the same access to veteran free agents as the other clubs.

During the period from February 12 until July 15th, however, the Browns' roster had to include at least 30 players acquired from the expansion draft or a fewer number of players acquired in the draft with total salaries of at least 38 percent of the 1999 salary cap. Any of these players who are released after June 1 are entitled to a supplemental expansion bonus equal to the player's minimum Collective Bargaining Agreement salary even if he subsequently signs with another team.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Mike Shanahan

Pro Career: Became the eleventh head coach in Broncos history on January 31, 1995, coming to Denver from the 1994 world champion San Francisco 49ers, where he served as offensive coordinator from 1992-94. Mike Shanahan led the Broncos to back-to-back Super Bowl championships in 1997 and 1998, becoming just the fifth head coach to accomplish that feat. Shanahan has led Denver to seven postseason wins in the last two seasons, the highest two-year total in history. His 1997 Broncos became just the second Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, and they became the first AFC team to capture the NFL crown in 14 years. In 1996 Shanahan led the Broncos to a 13-3 record and the AFC Western Division title, tying the club record for wins in a season and leading the NFL in total offense. In 1995 he improved the Broncos to an 8-8 mark. During his NFL career, Shanahan has been a part of teams that have played in nine AFC or NFC Championship Games, in addition to his six Super Bowl appearances, five with Denver and Super Bowl XXIX with San Francisco. In his 24 seasons coaching in the NFL and at the college level, Shanahan's teams have participated in postseason playoffs or bowl games 18 times. A driving force behind the Broncos' offense for all three of the team's Super Bowl appearances in the 1980s (following the '86, '87, and '89 seasons), he first came to Denver in 1984 as wide receivers coach. Shanahan was Broncos' offensive coordinator from 1985-87, and returned to Denver as quarterbacks coach on October 16, 1989, after serving as head coach of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1988 and through the first four games of the 1989 season. His record with the Raiders was 8-12. Career record: 62-30.

Background: Shanahan began his coaching career at Oklahoma in 1975-76, also coaching at Northern Arizona (1977), Eastern Illinois (1978), and Minnesota (1979), before moving on to Florida (1980-83). During his tenure on the college level, Shanahan's teams had a combined record of 77-29-3 (.720), including national championship seasons at Oklahoma in 1975 and at Eastern Illinois.

Personal: Shanahan was born in Oak Park, Illinois, on August 24, 1952. He attended East Leyden High School in Franklin Park and was a wishbone quarterback-defensive back at Eastern Illinois, graduating in 1974 with a degree in physical education and a master's degree in 1975. Mike and his wife, Peggy, have two children, son Kyle and daughter Krystal.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Jim Mora

Pro Career: Jim Mora joined the Colts as their seventeenth head coach on January 12, 1998. He led the Colts to a 3-13 record in his first season. Mora spent 1986-1996 as head coach at New Orleans, amassing a 93-74 regular-season record and four playoff appearances. In 1996, Mora stood as the most tenured coach with the same team in all of professional sports, and he had won more games than the previous nine Saints coaches combined. Mora is one of only 20 head coaches in NFL history who has had 10 or more consecutive seasons of service with the same team. Mora produced 91 victories during his first 10 seasons, a total exceeded by only eight other coaches in NFL history. Mora's 96 career wins rank fifth among active coaches, and he stands to become the twenty-seventh coach to produce 100 career victories. His 1991 Saints squad went 11-5, earning the only division title in club history. Prior to his stint with New Orleans, Mora directed the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1983-85. Mora forged a 48-13-1 record and led the Stars to two titles in three league-championship-game appearances. Mora began his pro coaching career in 1978 as defensive line coach with Seattle. In 1982, he was defensive coordinator at New England. Career record: 96-91.

Background: Played tight end and defensive end at Occidental College. Assistant coach at Occidental from 1960-63 and head coach from 1964-66. Linebacker coach at Stanford in 1967. Received bachelor's degree in physical education from Occidental in 1957. Also holds master's degree in education from Southern California.

Personal: Born May 24, 1935, in Glendale, Calif. Jim and his wife, Connie, live in Indianapolis, and have three sons—Michael, Stephen, and Jim (defensive coordinator with San Francisco 49ers).

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Tom Coughlin

Pro Career: Under Tom Coughlin, the Jaguars became the only expansion team in NFL history to advance to the playoffs three times in their first four seasons. After a 4-12 inaugural season, Coughlin's team went 9-7 in year two on the way to the AFC Championship Game, and 11-5, and into the playoffs each of the last two seasons. En route to the 1996 AFC Championship Game, the Jaguars became the first visiting team to win a playoff game at Buffalo's Rich Stadium, and only the second to win a playoff game at Denver's Mile High Stadium. Coughlin became the first head coach of the Jaguars on February 21, 1994, following a successful three seasons as head coach at Boston College. A veteran of nearly 30 years in coaching, including 17 at the collegiate level and seven as an NFL assistant, Coughlin previously coached wide receivers for the Philadelphia Eagles (1984-85), Green Bay Packers (1986-87), and New York Giants (1988-1990). He was a member of the Giants' Super Bowl XXV champion coaching staff prior to being named head coach at Boston College in 1991. In three seasons at Boston College, he turned a struggling program into a top-20 team, posting a 21-13-1 record. His final season at Boston College was highlighted by eight consecutive wins, including a 41-39 victory over top-ranked Notre Dame, and a 9-3 finish. Despite an 0-2 start to the season, Boston College ranked thirteenth in the Associated Press poll and twelfth in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll at the end of the 1993 season. Coughlin's previous 14 seasons as a college coach were at Rochester Institute of Technology 1970-73 (head coach), Syracuse 1974-1980, and Boston College 1981-83. No pro playing experience. Career record: 38-32.

Background: Played wingback for Syracuse from 1965-67 under legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder, along with teammates Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. Received Syracuse 1967 Orange Key Award as outstanding scholar athlete, and graduated in 1968 with bachelor's degree in education. Received master's degree in education from Syracuse in 1969.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Gunther Cunningham

Pro Career: The Kansas City Chiefs ushered in a new chapter in franchise history on January 22, 1999, appointing Cunningham the eighth head coach in the illustrious history of the franchise, which celebrates its fortieth anniversary this season. Cunningham is regarded as one of the game's most dynamic and talented coaches. A noted teacher, tactician, and motivator, he enters his thirty-first season in the coaching ranks and his eighteenth in the NFL. He ascends to the Chiefs' head coaching position after spending the previous four campaigns (1995-98) as Kansas City's defensive coordinator. Since his arrival in 1995, the Chiefs have twice (1995 and 1997) led the league in scoring defense. During that span, Kansas City permitted an AFC-low 17.8 points per contest. His Chiefs defenses were opportunistic, accumulating 127 takeaways while scoring 77 points on 10 touchdowns and 4 safeties. His Kansas City defensive units put constant pressure on the opposition's passer, producing 172 sacks from 1995-98 to rank third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. He brought his expertise to the Chiefs after logging four seasons (1991-94) with the Raiders. He served as the Raiders' linebackers coach in 1991, as defensive coordinator the next two seasons, and defensive line coach in 1994. Prior to joining the Raiders, he spent six years (1985-1990) as the Chargers' defensive line coach. He began his NFL coaching career as the defensive line coach of the Baltimore Colts in 1982, staying there for three seasons. He originally entered the pro ranks in the CFL, coaching the defensive line and linebackers for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981.

Background: Cunningham graduated from Oregon, where he was a linebacker and placekicker from 1966-68. He was a college assistant coach at Oregon (1969-1971), Arkansas (1972), Stanford (1973-76), and California (1977-1980).

Personal: Born June 19, 1946, in Munich, West Germany, he is just the fourth foreign-born head coach in the NFL's 80-year history. Gunther and his wife, Rene, live in Overland Park, Kansas, with their daughter, Natalie, and son, Adam.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Jimmy Johnson

Pro Career: Begins his ninth season as an NFL head coach and his fourth with the Miami Dolphins. He has led the Dolphins to a 27-21 regular-season record in his previous three seasons with two playoff appearances, reaching the AFC divisional round in 1998. Named general manager/head coach of the Dolphins on January 11, 1996, becoming the third head coach in club history. Became the first, and one of only two head coaches ever in football history, to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas Cowboys - 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami - 1987). Served as head coach of the Cowboys from 1989 through 1993. One of only five men in NFL history to coach consecutive Super Bowl winners, winning Super Bowl XXVII in 1992 and following that with a victory in Super Bowl XXVIII in 1993. In his five years in Dallas, Johnson led the Cowboys to two NFL championships, with their first title in 1992 coming just three years after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. In addition, Johnson's postseason winning percentage of .727 (8-3 record) is tied for fourth in NFL history among coaches with five of more postseason wins, behind only Vince Lombardi's mark of .900 (9-1), Mike Shanahan's percentage of .875 (7-1), and Joe Gibbs's mark of .762 (16-5). Career record: 79-60.

Background: At the University of Miami (1984-88), Johnson led the Hurricanes to a 52-9 (.853) record, including a 44-4 mark over the final four seasons. His Hurricane teams also captured two Orange Bowl titles, a national championship in 1987, and two number-two finishes (1986, 1988). In his first head coaching job, Johnson took over a losing program at Oklahoma State in 1979 and brought it to national prominence, compiling a 29-25 record in five seasons, including two bowl appearances. Johnson was named Big Eight Coach of the Year following his first season. Served as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh (1977-78), defensive coordinator at Arkansas (1973-76), defensive line coach at Oklahoma (1970-72), defensive coordinator at Iowa State (1968-69), assistant coach at Wichita State (1967), and defensive line coach at Louisiana Tech (1965). Before beginning his coaching career, Johnson was an All-Southwest Conference defensive lineman at Arkansas and helped lead the Razorbacks to the 1964 national championship. A three-year letterman, Johnson was named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team of the 1960s.

Personal: Born July 16, 1943, in Port Arthur, Texas. Lives in Miami. He has two sons, Brent and Chad.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Pete Carroll

Pro Career: Pete Carroll was named the thirteenth head coach in franchise history on February 3, 1997. In his first year, he directed the Patriots to a 10-6 overall record and claimed the AFC Eastern Division title. It was the first time in the club's 38-year history that they had won back-to-back division titles. In 1998, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the third consecutive year, another franchise first. When Carroll joined the Patriots, he brought an attacking defensive philosophy with him. Since his arrival, the Patriots have intercepted a conference-leading 43 passes and set, then tied, the franchise record for the fewest fumbles surrendered in a season (7). Prior to joining the Patriots, he served two seasons as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. Carroll joined the 49ers after five seasons with the New York Jets. His tenure in New York began in 1990 when he was named defensive coordinator. During the next four years, he established a reputation for being one of the game's most innovative defensive minds. In 1994, the Jets named Carroll their ninth head coach in franchise history. That year, the Jets were in contention for the AFC East title through the season's first 11 games. Despite the early success the Jets enjoyed that year, Carroll was relieved of his duties after just one rebuilding season. He began his NFL coaching career in 1984 with the Buffalo Bills. The following year, he joined Bud Grant's staff in Minnesota and spent the next five seasons (1985-89) as the defensive backs coach for the Vikings. Career record: 26-25.

Background: Carroll began his coaching career at Pacific in 1974 at the age of 22. He coached three seasons at Pacific before moving on, gaining coaching experience at Arkansas (1977), Iowa State (1978) and Ohio State (1979) before settling in at North Carolina State in 1980. For the next three seasons (1980-82), Carroll directed the Wolfpack's defense before returning to his alma mater for one year as the assistant head coach in 1983.

Personal: Carroll was born September 15, 1951 in San Francisco, Calif. He was a football standout at Redwood High School prior to a stellar collegiate career at the University of the Pacific, where he twice earned All-Pacific Coast Conference honors as a defensive back. He had a tryout with the Hawaiians of the World Football League before pursuing a coaching career. He and his wife, Glena, live in Medfield, Mass. and have two sons, Brennan and Nathan and a daughter, Jaime.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jeff Davidson, offensive assistant-offensive line; born October 3, 1967, Akron, Ohio, lives in Franklin, Mass. Offensive lineman Ohio State 1986-89. Pro offensive lineman Denver Broncos 1990-92, New Orleans Saints 1994. Pro coach: New Orleans Saints 1995-96, joined Patriots in 1997.

Ivan Fears, wide receivers; born November 15, 1954, Portsmouth, Va., lives in Foxboro, Mass. Running back William & Mary 1973-75. No pro playing experience. College coach: William & Mary 1977-1980, Syracuse 1981-1990. Pro coach: New England Patriots 1991-92, Chicago Bears 1993-98, rejoined Patriots in 1999.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach and
Chief Football Operations Officer,
Bill Parcells

Pro Career: On February 11, 1997, Parcells was named the Jets' eleventh head coach. Parcells came to the Jets after having led the New England Patriots to the 1996 AFC championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXI against the Green Bay Packers. In just two years with the Jets, Parcells has guided the Jets to a 21-11 regular-season record (sixth best in the NFL over that course of time) and became just the third NFL coach in league history to guide three different franchises into postseason play. In addition, Parcells is the first coach in NFL history to take a 1-15 team to a division title two years later. With the Jets, Parcells is 22-12, including the 1998 AFC Championship Game loss at Denver. He trails only Atlanta's Dan Reeves for most career regular-season wins (130) among active coaches, and his 141 career victories rank thirteenth in NFL history. Throughout the course of his four-year Patriots career, Parcells had a 34-34 record, including 2-2 in the postseason. Parcells made his NFL coaching debut with the Patriots as the linebackers coach on Ron Erhardt's staff in 1980. He accepted the same position on the New York Giants' staff in 1981 and was named the Giants' head coach in 1983. In eight seasons at the helm of the Giants, Parcells led his teams to two Super Bowl championships. His first title came in 1986, with a 39-20 win over the Denver Broncos. Four years later, the Giants claimed another victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. On May 15, 1991, Parcells resigned from the Giants because of health reasons. During his two years away from coaching, Parcells served as a studio analyst in 1991 and as a color commentator in 1992 for NBC Sports. Career record: 141-98-1.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Jon Gruden

Pro career: Became the twelfth head coach in Raiders history on January 22, 1998, after seven seasons as an NFL assistant coach. Guided Raiders to an 8-8 record as a 35-year-old rookie head coach in 1998. Gruden's teams reached the postseason five times during his assistant coaching tenure. Spent the last three years as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles on Ray Rhodes's staff. The Eagles were 26-21-1 during this 1995-97 period, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 seasons. In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the NFC in total offense. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Mike Riley

Pro Career: Mike Riley was named the twelfth head coach in Chargers history on January 10, 1999. Riley has 24 years of coaching experience. He has spent eight seasons as a head coach, including two on the collegiate level (Oregon State 1997-98), four in the Canadian Football League (Winnipeg 1987-1990) and two in the World League (San Antonio 1991-92). While coach at Winnipeg, the Blue Bombers posted a record of 40-32 and two Grey Cup championships. Riley was named the CFL's coach of the year following the 1988 and 1990 seasons. He also spent three seasons (1983-85) as Winnipeg's secondary coach, winning the 1984 Grey Cup championship. Riley led the San Antonio Riders to a record of 11-9 in two World League seasons. His career professional record is 51-41.

Background: Collegiately, Riley won two national championships, one as a player and one as a coach, and three bowl games. Riley spent two seasons (1997-98) as the head coach at Oregon State, where he led the Beavers to their best record in 27 years. Riley served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator-quarterbacks coach at Southern California (1993-96). In 1986, Riley was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Northern Colorado. Riley was a coach at Linfield College (1977-1982) in McMinnville, Oregon, winning the 1982 NAIA championship. Riley served as a graduate assistant at Whitworth College (1976) in Spokane, Washington, and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at California (1975). As a high school athlete, he helped lead Corvallis High to state championships in football, basketball, and baseball as a senior. In college, he played defensive back under Paul (Bear) Bryant at Alabama (1971-74). During that period, the Crimson Tide won the 1973 national crown. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Executive Vice President of Football Operations/ General Manager & Head Coach, Mike Holmgren

Pro Career: Named to his current position as the Seahawks' executive vice president of football operations/general manager and head coach on January 8, 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, Holmgren oversees all facets of the team's football operations, including scouting, personnel, salary cap, player negotiations, as well as regular coaching responsibilities. Holmgren takes control of the Seahawks following one of the most successful coaching stints in league history as the head coach of the Green Bay Packers (1992-98). Holmgren posted a 75-37 (.670) regular-season record, a 9-5 (.643) postseason mark, and two Super Bowl appearances, including a 35-21 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXI. By winning at least one game in five consecutive postseasons (1993-97) Holmgren joined John Madden (1973-77) as the only coaches in league history to accomplish that feat. From 1995-98, Holmgren's Packers posted an NFL-best 48-16 (.750) record and finished first in the NFC Central Division three times. By taking the Packers to six consecutive postseasons (1993-98), Holmgren established a franchise record, with a team that had recorded just two winning seasons in the 19 years before he was hired. In 13 NFL seasons (1992-98 head coach Green Bay, 1986-1991 assistant coach San Francisco) Holmgren's teams have posted a 146-60-1 (.708) record, hit double digits in the victory column 10 times, made the postseason 12 times, won three Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIV, and XXXI), and reached another (Super Bowl XXXII). Holmgren's 1996 team that won the Super Bowl led the NFL in scoring with a club-record 456 points and also led the league in defensive scoring, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1972. Before becoming the Packers' head coach, Holmgren served as an assistant coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1986-1991. He coached the quarterbacks from 1986-88, under head coach Bill Walsh, and was the team's offensive coordinator from 1989-1991, under George Seifert. Career record: 84-42.

Background: Quarterback at Southern California (1966-69) and was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the eighth round of the 1970 NFL draft. He served as an assistant coach at San Francisco State (1981) and Brigham Young (1982-85) before his tenure with the 49ers. Earned his bachelor of science degree in business finance at Southern California (1970).

Personal: Born June 15, 1948, in San Francisco. He and his wife, Kathy, live in Mercer Island, Wash. and have four daughters—Calla, Jenny, Emily, and Gretchen.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Vince Tobin

Pro Career: Named Cardinals' head coach on February 7, 1996. Became thirty-third coach in the history of the franchise dating back to 1920. A 9-7 regular-season mark in 1998 translated into the team's first playoff appearance since 1982 and first postseason victory since 1947—a span of 51 years. The "Cardiac Cards" recorded seven victories by three points or less, won their first-round playoff contest 20-7 at Dallas, and logged eight wins against NFC opponents—the most by a Cardinals' team in 22 seasons. In his first season, Arizona rebounded from an 0-3 start to claim a 7-4 record in its final 11 games and remain in playoff contention until the final week of the season. Arizona improved from twenty-fourth (1995) to twelfth in offense, from twenty-sixth (1995) to twenty-first in defense, and forged the club's first winning November (3-1) since 1987. As a defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts from 1994-95, oversaw a defense that was a principal reason Indianapolis finished 9-7 during the 1995 regular season before defeating San Diego (35-20) and Kansas City (10-7) in the first two rounds of postseason play. Tobin earned credit for rebuilding a Colts' defense he inherited that ranked last in overall defense in 1993. Tobin's first unit improved to twentieth in 1994 and tied for seventh with Carolina in 1995 at 314.2 yards per game. In four seasons prior to Tobin's arrival, the Colts' defense finished twenty-fourth or lower against the run. In 1994, Tobin's first Indianapolis defense ranked twelfth against the rush, then improved to sixth in 1995 at 91.1 yards per game, the second-lowest figure in club history. It also was just the third time in Colts history the opposition averaged less than 100 yards per game on the ground. Over the past two seasons, Tobin's defensive unit did not allow an individual to rush for 100 yards in 24 consecutive games (final 13 games in 1994, first 11 games in 1995). His 1994 Colts' defense also boasted the lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (40) in the NFL and did not allow a touchdown at home in the final 12 quarters of the season. Tobin previously served as defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears (1986-1992), tutoring a Bears' defense that set an NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season (187 in 1986). His 1986 Chicago unit topped the league by allowing just 258 yards per contest. The 1987 Bears surrendered the league's fewest points (215) and sported the best rushing defense (82.9). Tobin also earned victories over Tampa Bay and Washington as Chicago's interim head coach for Mike Ditka. Tobin's other coaching stops have been with the USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars (1983-85), the CFL British Columbia Lions (1977-1982), and his alma mater, the University of Missouri (1967-1976). Tobin's defensive units in the CFL ranked second overall during his six seasons, while his defensive schemes in the USFL helped the Stars rank first defensively in 1983 and 1984 and second in 1985 while allowing the fewest points all three seasons. The Stars reached the league championship game each season, winning the final two times. Career record: 21-29.

Background: Tobin played defensive back at Missouri from 1961-64. He joined the Missouri coaching staff as a defensive assistant from 1967-1976, serving the final six years as defensive coordinator. Tobin owns a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in guidance and counseling.

Personal: Born September 29, 1943, in Burlington Junction, Missouri. He and his wife, Kathy, have two children—son Ryan and daughter Shannon.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Dan Reeves

Pro Career: The NFL's winningest active coach with 172 career wins, head coach Dan Reeves led the Falcons to their first-ever Super Bowl appearance last season after capturing the NFC title. In only his second season with Atlanta since taking over on January 20, 1997, Reeves led the Falcons to the NFC West title with a 14-2 record and a franchise record 442 points. Reeves was named Coach of the Year in 1998 for the fifth time in his coaching career after the Falcons improved from a 7-9 finish in 1997. Reeves had been the head coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. Prior to that, he compiled a 117-79-1 record as head coach of the Denver Broncos from 1981-1992, earning NFL Coach of the Year honors in 1982, 1988, and 1991. He led the Broncos to three Super Bowl berths, four AFC Championship games, five AFC West Division titles, and eight winning seasons. In his first year in New York, he earned NFL Coach of the Year honors for a fourth time, taking the Giants from 6-10 to an 11-5 mark, including a wild-card playoff victory. Overall, Reeves has accumulated eleven winning seasons as head coach, participated in 46 playoff games and nine Super Bowls as an NFL player, assistant coach, and head coach. He is one of three coaches (Bill Parcells and Don Shula) to guide two different franchises to the Super Bowl. Reeves, whose teams have won at least 10 games nine different times, was very successful at Mile High Stadium, where he compiled a 72-21 (.774) record. His Broncos teams finished in first place five times and in second place three times in the AFC West. In 1984, Denver set a club record with 10 straight wins en route to a then franchise-best 13-win season. The following season (1985), the Broncos set a club record for total offense and points scored. In 1986, they started out 6-0 and established thirty-five team and individual club marks. Career record: 172-125-1.

Background: Prior to obtaining his first NFL head coaching job in 1981, Reeves had been a member of the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff since 1970, spending a total of 16 years under Tom Landry as a player and coach. In 1977 he was named offensive coordinator of Landry's staff. Reeves began his pro career as a free agent running back for Dallas in 1965. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach,
Dick Jauron

Pro Career: Named eleventh head coach in franchise history on January 24, 1999. As Jacksonville's inaugural defensive coordinator, he was instrumental in the success of the Jaguars, which included three playoff berths in the franchise's first four seasons and a run to the 1996 AFC Championship Game. Jauron coached defensive backs for nine years in Green Bay (1986-1994) before moving to Jacksonville. His coaching career started in Buffalo in 1985. Jauron played eight years as a defensive back in the NFL with the Detroit Lions and Cincinnati Bengals, earning a trip to the 1975 Pro Bowl.

Background: Played running back at Yale from 1970-72 where he still holds the school's career rushing mark with 2,947 yards. Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the fourth round of the 1973 draft. Played defensive back for Detroit from 1973-77 and was named to the Pro Bowl after the 1974 season. Joined Cincinnati in 1978 and played with the Bengals until retiring in 1980. Spent several years away from NFL before joining the Buffalo Bills' coaching staff in 1985. Moved to Green Bay the following season and served as the defensive backs coach under three different head coaches (Forrest Greg, 1986-87; Lindy Infante, 1988-91; Mike Holmgren, 1992-94). Jauron accepted the defensive coordinator post with the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and helped lead the team to three consecutive playoff berths after their opening season.

Personal: Born October 7, 1950, Peoria, Ill. Dick and his wife Gail live in Lake Forest, Ill. and have two daughters—Kacy and Amy.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Chan Gailey

Pro Career: Chan Gailey became the fourth head coach in Cowboys history on February 12, 1998, after four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In his first season in Dallas, Gailey guided the Cowboys to a 10-6 record and their sixth NFC East title in the last seven seasons. In 10 seasons as an NFL assistant coach with Pittsburgh and Denver, Gailey appeared in four Super Bowls, six AFC Championship Games, and was part of seven division winning teams. Gailey was the Pittsburgh offensive coordinator (1996-97) after having served two years (1994-95) as the team's wide receivers coach. Gailey's other NFL experience came during a six-year stint (1985-1990) with the Denver Broncos. In his first season with the Broncos, Gailey served as a defensive assistant and special teams coach. The following year he coached special teams-tight ends and in 1987 he was in charge of the tight ends-wide receivers. He took over the quarterback coaching duties in 1988. In 1989, Gailey's first season as the Broncos' offensive coordinator, the Broncos earned a berth in Super Bowl XXIV. Sandwiched between his two NFL tours of duty were head coaching stops in the World League with the Birmingham Fire (1991-92) and at Samford University (1993). Gailey is the first former World League head coach to take on NFL head coaching responsibilities. Career record: 10-7.

Background: Gailey was a quarterback at Florida from 1970-73. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1974 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida (1974-75). He then served as the secondary coach at Troy State (1976-78), and four years at the Air Force Academy (1979-1982). He returned to Troy State as the head coach (1983-84) and captured the NCAA Division II Championship in 1984. He posted a 36-18-1 (.664) record in his three head coaching stops (five seasons).

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Ray Rhodes

Pro Career: Named the twelfth head coach in Packers history January 11, 1999. Spent the previous four seasons (1995-98) as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles. Is the only head coach in Eagles history to lead the team to the playoffs in each of his first two seasons. Overcame a 1-3 start his initial year to post a 10-6 regular-season record, register a wild-card playoff victory, and earn consensus recognition as NFL coach of the year. Also finished 10-6 during his second season in Philadelphia. His teams have participated in the playoffs in all but five seasons of an 18-year pro coaching career. Was an assistant coach on all five championship teams of the San Francisco 49ers (1981, 1984, 1988-89, 1994). Reshaped 49ers' defense in lone season as San Francisco defensive coordinator (1994). Had spent the two previous years (1992-93) as Green Bay's defensive coordinator. Took the Packers to a second-place defensive ranking in 1993 as the team made its first postseason appearance in more than a decade, and sent a pair of defenders to the Pro Bowl for the first time in 15 years. Joined Bill Walsh's San Francisco staff as assistant defensive backs coach in 1981 immediately upon his retirement as a player. Was promoted to defensive backs coach the following year, serving in that role for the 49ers for the next 10 seasons (1982-1991). Career record: 30-36-1.

Background: Running back at Texas Christian (1969-1970), then transferred to Tulsa (1972-73), where he was converted to wide receiver and defensive back. Drafted in 1974 by the New York Giants in the tenth round. Played wide receiver for the Giants during his first three NFL seasons, leading all NFC receivers in yards per catch (20.7) in 1975. Moved to defense by the Giants in 1977, he won a starting cornerback job. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco 49ers in a two-for-two player exchange that also included current Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Tony Dungy. Made 51 receptions for 980 yards and 7 touchdowns during a seven-year NFL career (1974-1980). He also intercepted 8 passes.

Personal: Born October 20, 1950, in Mexia, Texas. He and his wife, Carmen, live in Green Bay and have four daughters—Detra, Candra, Tynesha, and Raven.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Andy Reid

Pro Career: Andy Reid became the twentieth head coach in franchise history on January 11, 1999. Reid joins the Eagles after spending the last seven seasons with the Green Bay Packers. With Green Bay, Reid helped the Packers reach the playoffs six consecutive times from 1993-98. During that span, Green Bay defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXI and reached the NFL's title game again the following year. During the Packers' remarkable run, Reid played a significant role in helping put together that club's renowned offensive attack. Indeed, Reid put his signature on nearly every part of the Packers' offense while coaching three different positions and assisting head coach Mike Holmgren and offensive coordinator Sherman Lewis with their game-planning duties. Prior to being the quarterbacks coach in 1997-98, Reid served as the Packers' tight ends and assistant offensive line coach.

Background: Quality pass-blocking offensive lines, in both the Division I and II ranks, have been Reid's hallmark since launching his coaching career at San Francisco State in 1983. The school led the nation in passing offense and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85) while he served as the school's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach, and strength coach. Reid moved to Northern Arizona as offensive line coach in 1986, to Texas-El Paso for two seasons (1987-88), and coached at Missouri from 1989-1991. Reid's coaching career began at his alma mater, Brigham Young, as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards in 1982. Reid first met Holmgren, who was a member of BYU's coaching staff, when Reid was an offensive tackle and guard on three Cougars Holiday Bowl teams. Reid went on to earn three varsity football letters, graduating with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also received a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

Personal: Born in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid and his wife Tammy have five children—Garrett, Britt, Crosby, Drew Ann, and Spencer.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach,
Tony Dungy

Pro Career: After 15 years as an NFL assistant coach, Dungy was named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach on January 22, 1996, when he signed a six-year contract. In 1998, the Buccaneers finished with an 8-8 record, marking the first time the club had consecutive non-losing seasons since 1981-82. In just his second season as head coach, Dungy's 1997 Buccaneers matched a franchise record with a 10-6 campaign that also featured a wild-card playoff victory over the Detroit Lions. Under Dungy's guidance in 1997, Tampa Bay continued improving on 1996's strong finish in which it won five of its last eight games, completing one of the largest single-season turnarounds in club history. Joined Tampa Bay after serving as Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator from 1992-95. Helped the Vikings' defense lead NFL with 95 interceptions during his four years in Minnesota. Prior to going to Vikings, spent 1989-1991 as defensive backs coach for Kansas City Chiefs. Also worked eight years as an assistant coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers under Chuck Noll as a defensive assistant (1981), defensive backs coach (1982-83), and as defensive coordinator (1984-88). At 25, was NFL's youngest assistant coach when hired by Steelers in 1981, then became league's youngest coordinator at age of 28. Began coaching career as defensive backs coach at University of Minnesota in 1980. As an NFL player, signed with Pittsburgh as a free agent in 1977 and played safety for Steelers for two seasons (1977-78). Had 9 interceptions (second in AFC with 6 in 1978) in 30 games for Pittsburgh and played in Super Bowl XIII victory over Dallas Cowboys. Had unusual distinction of making and throwing an interception in same 1977 game against Houston Oilers. Traded to San Francisco 49ers during 1979 training camp and played 15 games for 49ers. Was traded again prior to 1980 season to New York Giants in multi-player deal that sent current Green Bay Packers head coach Ray Rhodes to 49ers. Career record: 25-25.

Background: Starred as quarterback at University of Minnesota from 1973-76. Finished career as school's all-time leader in attempts, completions, passing yards, and touchdown passes. Left Minnesota in fourth place in Big Ten history in total offense. Two-time team most valuable player, played in Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game, and Japan Bowl. Attended Parkside High School in Jackson, Michigan.

Personal: Born October 6, 1955, in Jackson, Michigan. Tony and his wife, Lauren, have three children including daughter Tiara (13), and sons James (11) and Eric (6). The family resides in Tampa.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Fred Taylor rushed for 116 yards and 1 touchdown in his first NFL start to give the Jaguars their first 4-0 start in franchise history. The Oilers scored on their first four possessions to claim a 19-7 lead midway through the second quarter. Eddie Robinson's interception moments after Steve McNair's second touchdown pass gave the Oilers a chance to expand their lead. However, Tyrone Davis intercepted McNair and returned the ball 34 yards to set up Mark Brunell's 7-yard touchdown pass to Keenan McCardell just before halftime. Taylor's 49-yard run on the first play of the second half led to his 1-yard touchdown run and gave the Jaguars a 21-19 lead. Blaine Bishop recovered Jimmy Smith's fumble at midfield to set up Al Del Greco's 32-yard field goal and allow the Oilers to retake the lead. Mike Hollis kicked field goals on consecutive fourth-quarter possessions, the second of which gave the Jaguars a 27-22 lead with 1:56 left. Dave Krieg, who replaced an injured McNair, fumbled in the Oilers' last possession, and Renaldo Wynn recovered to ice the game. Brunell was 17 of 28 for 155 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. McNair was 16 of 30 for 198 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions.

Both Randall Cunningham and Erik Kramer threw 4 touchdown passes, but Gary Anderson's 50-yard field goal was the difference as the Vikings improved their record to 4-0. Each team scored on their first possession, and the Vikings took advantage of a 20-yard punt by Mike Horan to take a 10-7 lead on Anderson's 50-yard field goal, but Kramer threw 2 touchdown passes in a 5:44 stretch late in the first half to take a 21-10 lead into the locker room. David Palmer's 53-yard punt return set up Cunningham's second touchdown pass early in the third quarter. The Bears drove to the Vikings' 10, but Corey Fuller intercepted a Kramer pass to thwart the drive, and Cris Carter caught a 35-yard touchdown pass four plays later to give Minnesota a 24-21 lead. The Vikings extended the lead early in the fourth quarter on Randy Moss's 44-yard touchdown catch. Kramer's fourth touchdown pass, with 1:53 left, cut the deficit to three points, but the onside kick went out of bounds and the Vikings ran out the clock. Cunningham was 16 of 25 for 275 yards and 4 touchdowns. Kramer was 25 of 39 for 372 yards and 4 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Bobby Engram had 6 catches for 123 yards.

NEW ORLEANS 19, INDIANAPOLIS 13 (OT)—at RCA Dome, attendance 48,480. The Saints scored in the final minute of regulation, and Cameron Cleeland's touchdown catch in overtime gave New Orleans its first 3-0 record since 1993. Each team intercepted a pass in the opponents' territory to set up first-half field goals as the Colts took a 6-3 halftime lead. Chad Cota's interception near midfield set up Doug Brien's game-tying field goal in the third quarter, but the Colts retook the lead on the first play of the fourth quarter when Peyton Manning threw a 78-yard touchdown pass to Marshall Faulk. The Saints got the ball on their own 4-yard line with 2:49 left trailing 13-6. On fourth-and-17, Danny Wuerffel completed a 44-yard pass to Sean Dawkins, which was followed by Andre Hastings's touchdown catch on the next play to tie the game with 41 seconds left. Tyronne Drakeford's interception and 23-yard return to the Colts' 36 was cashed in two plays later when Wuerffel found Cleeland open. Cleeland raced down the right sideline for the final points 6:10 into overtime. Wuerffel was 12 of 27 for 153 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Lamar Smith rushed 24 times for a career-high 157 yards. Manning was 19 of 32 for 309 yards and 1 touchdown, with 3 interceptions. Marshall Faulk had 6 receptions for 128 yards.

Percy Ellsworth returned 1 of his 2 interceptions for a touchdown, and the Giants turned 4 interceptions into 21 points en route to breaking a seven-game losing streak on the West Coast. After Gary Brown's 4-yard run capped a 70-yard drive, the Giants took advantage of interceptions by Carlton Gray and Ellsworth, both in Giants' territory, to thwart drives and set up touchdowns for the Giants to take a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter. John Carney booted 3 field goals on consecutive possessions to cut the deficit to 21-9, but Ellsworth swiped Ryan Leaf's third-and-10 pass and scampered 20 yards into the end zone. Craig Whelihan replaced Leaf and threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Charlie Jones on their next drive, but Cedric Jones sacked Whelihan on fourth down midway through the final quarter to quell any threat. With the score tied 3-3 in the second quarter, Jeff George threw a long pass to Jett. Kevin Smith deflected the ball into Jett's hands, who proceeded to run the remaining distance for a 75-yard touchdown to give Oakland a 10-3 lead. The Cowboys drove to the Raiders' 7 in the third quarter, but Charles Woodson's interception at the goal line thwarted the drive. Late in the first quarter, Hines Ward tipped a punt back into play and Lance Brown downed the ball at the Seahawks' 1. Brown recovered Mike Pritchard's fumble moments later to set up Norm Johnson's first field goal. The Seahawks struck back immediately, using Warren Moon's 40-yard pass to Joey Galloway to get in position to take a 7-3 lead on Moon's 14-yard touchdown pass to Christian Fauria. The Steelers responded with a 13-play, 82-yard drive that consumed 8:13 and was capped by Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala's 10-yard scoring run to give Pittsburgh a 10-7 halftime edge. Johnson missed a 42-yard field-goal attempt early in the second half, but Chris Oldham recovered Mack Strong's fumble moments later to set up Johnson's second field goal. The Seahawks once again responded with points on the board, courtesy of Todd Peterson's 47-yard field goal. However, Peterson's 52-yard attempt midway through the fourth quarter sailed wide right, and, in the Seahawks final possession, Moon's fourth-and-11pass fell incomplete. Kordell Stewart was 16 of 25 for 108 yards. Moon was 14 of 27 for 183 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

However, Chad Bratzke recovered Trent Dilfer's fumble at the Buccaneers' 10 three plays later to set up Brad Daluiso's field goal. OAKLAND 23, ARIZONA 20—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 53,240. The Raiders capitalized on 4 Cardinals' turnovers to win their second consecutive road game. Kwamie Lassiter's interception stalled the Raiders' opening drive and led to Jake Plummer's 2-yard touchdown pass to Johnny McWilliams. Following 2 Greg Davis field goals, the second of which was sparked by a 43-yard punt return by Desmond Howard, the Cardinals used a 59-yard kickoff return by Eric Metcalf to set up Plummer's 13-yard touchdown pass to Rob Moore. Three Cardinals' turnovers in a nine-minute stretch of the second quarter led to 17 Raiders' points: Metcalf's fumbled punt return was recovered at the Cardinals' 36 to set up Davis's third field goal; Charles Woodson's 46-yard interception return for a touchdown gave Oakland a 16-14 lead; and Marquis Walker's interception return to the Cardinals' 4 led to Donald Hollas's 1-yard touchdown. Robert McKinnon recovered Hollas's fumble at the Raiders' 16 late in the third quarter, but on the next play Plummer was intercepted by Eric Allen in the end zone. The Cardinals got 2 field goals from Joe Nedney on their next two possessions, the latter with 8:16 left, to cut the deficit to 23-20. The Raiders consumed more than six minutes on their next drive, but Andre Wadsworth forced Hollas to fumble and J.B. Brown recovered at the Cardinals' 31 with 1:50 left. The Cardinals reached the Raiders' 38 with five seconds remaining, but instead of trying for the tying field goal Arizona ran a short sideline route and Metcalf could not get out of bounds in time on the 2-yard reception to stop the clock from expiring. Hollas, who replaced an injured Jeff George in the first half, was 12 of 22 for 104 yards. Plummer was 23 of 39 for 208 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 3 interceptions. Frank Sanders had 10 receptions for 118 yards.

INDIANAPOLIS 17, SAN DIEGO 12—at RCA Dome, attendance 51,988. Elijah Alexander recovered a fumble and grabbed an interception as the Colts won their first game in a battle of the top two picks of the 1998 draft. Alexander's 12-yard interception return to the Chargers' 44 led to first-pick Peyton Manning's 19-yard touchdown pass to Marshall Faulk, and Ken Dilger took the extra point attempt around left end for two points to take an 8-0 lead. Alexander's fumble recovery on the next possession set up Mike Vanderjagt's 48-yard field goal. John Carney made 2 of 3 field-goal attempts to cut the halftime deficit to 11-6. Natrone Means's fumble at the Chargers' 36 set up a 51-yard field goal for Vanderjagt with 6:14 left to take a 14-6 lead. The Chargers drove 80 yards and scored on Means's 1-yard run with 1:48 to play, but Webster Slaughter's reception was shy of the end zone, thus denying the 2-point conversion. Dilger returned the ensuing onsides kick to the Chargers' 25, and Vanderjagt kicked a 40-yard field goal with 1:14 left. Alexander tackled Freddie Jones on fourth down to ice the game. Manning was 12 of 23 for 137 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Ryan Leaf, the second pick of the 1998 draft, was 12 of 23 also, for 160 yards, with 1 interception. The Bills forced 4 turnovers, recorded 4 sacks, and took advantage of the 49ers' NFL record-tying 22 penalties en route to knocking San Francisco from the ranks of the unbeaten. McQuarters fumbled on the ensuing kickoff, and Kamil Laud recovered at the 49ers' 34. Johnson's 5-yard scoring pass to Quinn Early moments later staked the Bills to a 17-0 lead. SUNDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 4

KANSAS CITY 17, SEATTLE 6—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 66,418. Andre Rison caught an 80-yard bomb from Rich Gannon to help the Chiefs win in a torrential downpour that delayed the game for 54 minutes. Phillip Daniels's recovery of Gannon's fumble at the Chiefs' 16 1:05 into the game led to Todd Peterson's field goal. With the score tied 3-3 and 7:10 left in the second quarter, the game was halted because of severe lightning and nearly of five inches of rain on the field that forced the teams to run 26 consecutive running plays. John Friesz replaced Warren Moon once play resumed, and Dale Carter intercepted Friesz and returned the ball to the Seahawks' 32. A 15-yard facemask penalty on the return gave the Chiefs the ball at the Seahawks' 17, and Gannon scored six plays later to take a 10-3 lead. Darrin Smith's fumble recovery at the Chiefs' 7 early in the third quarter only netted a Seattle field goal to cut the deficit to 10-6. Rison's touchdown reception broke open the game late in the third quarter. The Seahawks twice drove deep into Chiefs' territory in the fourth quarter, but Peterson missed a 38-yard field goal and Jon Kitna, the Seahawks' third quarterback of the game, was intercepted by James Hasty at the Chiefs' 2. Gannon was 12 of 19 for 142 yards and 1 touchdown. Seattle's three quarterbacks were a combined 11 of 33 for 94 yards, with 2 interceptions. The Chiefs, who committed 5 of the game's 9 turnovers, defeated the Seahawks for the fourteenth time in 15 games. Darryl Williams had 3 fumble recoveries for the Seahawks.

Trailing 3-0, the Panthers put together impressive back-to-back touchdown drives, both ending with Steve Beuerlein scoring passes to Raghib Ismail, to take a 14-3 lead. The Cowboys drove 93 yards following the second touchdown to cut the lead to 14-10 on Jason Garrett's 18-yard pass to Ernie Mills. Early in the third quarter, Mathis recovered William Floyd's fumble at the Panthers' 2, setting up Garrett's scoring pass to Chris Warren to retake the lead. Mathis recovered again, and Richie Cunningham booted his second field goal. Rod Smith's fumble recovery and a 40-yard pass interference penalty on Darren Woodson led to Floyd's touchdown, but Chad Hennings blocked the extra-point attempt to maintain a seven-point edge for the Cowboys. CINCINNATI 25, PITTSBURGH 20—at Cinergy Field, attendance 59,979. Neil O'Donnell deked spiking the ball and instead threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Carl Pickens with 20 seconds left as the Bengals upset the Steelers. The Steelers led 10-3 and were driving for more points when Sam Shade forced Richard Huntley to fumble, and Greg Myers recovered the ball at the Bengals' 13 with 2:08 left in the half. The Bengals promptly drove 87 yards to score a touchdown on Darnay Scott's 44-yard catch, but a poor snap led to a failed 2-point conversion attempt and allowed the Steelers to maintain a 10-9 lead at halftime. Huntley atoned for his fumble with a touchdown run to cap the opening drive of the second half, but the Bengals answered with Doug Pelfrey's field goal to cut the deficit to 17-12. Scott capped a 4-play, 60-yard drive with a 30-yard touchdown catch to give the Bengals a 18-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. After an exchange of punts, Norm Johnson booted a 40-yard field goal with 1:56 left to allow the Steelers to retake the lead 20-18. The Bengals faced fourth-and-12 when O'Donnell threw a 50-yard bomb to Pickens to keep the final drive alive. Two runs by Corey Dillon got the Bengals to the 25 where, pretending to stop the clock, O'Donnell faked spiking the ball thus freezing the Steelers' defenders. Pickens ran downfield and, despite interference by Dewayne Washington, caught the winning pass. O'Donnell was 20 of 26 for 298 yards and 3 touchdowns. Pickens had 13 catches for 204 yards. Stewart was 13 of 22 for 151 yards, and rushed 7 times for 103 yards.

OAKLAND 7, SAN DIEGO 6—at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, attendance 42,467. Leo Araguz punted an NFL-record 16 times, and the Raiders recorded just 6 first downs but still managed to improve their record to 4-2. In the first half the Chargers twice drove deep into Raiders' territory, but Terry Wooden's interception stopped one drive and John Carney's field goal after Latario Rachal's 56-yard punt return gave San Diego a 3-0 halftime lead. The Raiders went three-and-out in their first nine possessions of the second half (and 14 times in all), but trailed just 6-0 after Carney's 48-yard field goal. Faced with third-and-10 from their own 32, 39-year-old Wade Wilson, who had entered the game two possessions earlier, threw a bomb to James Jett for a 68-yard touchdown with 1:28 left. The Chargers got the ball at their own 47 following a facemask penalty on the kickoff return, but Craig Whelihan's pass to Natrone Means on fourth-and-6 from the Raiders' 38 went for 5 yards. Donald Hollas was 12 of 35 for 101 yards, with 1 interception. Wilson was 1 of 7 for 68 yards and 1 touchdown. Ryan Leaf was 7 of 18 for 78 yards, with 3 interceptions before being replaced by Whelihan, who was 3 of 6 for 19 yards, with 1 interception. The defenses permitted just 15 first downs and 354 total yards, as the offenses converted only 7 of 38 third-down opportunities.

Roy Barker's interception at the Saints' 18 with 1:38 left in the half set up Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens just 10 seconds before halftime. Young's 33-yard touchdown pass to Garrison Hearst capped the second half's opening drive and gave the 49ers a 28-0 lead. The 49ers permitted just 2 first downs in the Saints' first nine possessions and outgained the Saints 459-167 yards. Chris Doleman had 4 sacks. Young was 21 of 40 for 309 yards and 3 touchdowns. TENNESSEE 12, BALTIMORE 8—at NFL Stadium at Camden Yards, attendance 68,561. Steve McNair scrambled 40 yards for a touchdown, and the Oilers relied on defense and special teams to win in Baltimore. The Ravens got on the board in the game's opening minutes when Rob Burnett sacked McNair for a safety. McNair atoned for the safety by scrambling for a touchdown, but Eddie George was stopped on the 2-point conversion attempt. On the ensuing possession Terry Killens blocked Kyle Richardson's punt to set up the first of 2 Al Del Greco field goals. The Ravens responded after Del Greco's second boot with field goals by Matt Stover on consecutive possessions to cut the lead to 12-8. Rod Woodson intercepted McNair at the Ravens' 20 with 4:23 to play, but the Ravens had to punt. After Baltimore's defense forced a punt, the Ravens drove to the Oilers' 29, but Eric Zeier's pass for the end zone was intercepted by Blaine Bishop as time expired. The Oilers won despite committing 13 penalties. McNair was 17 of 29 for 207 yards, with 1 interception. George had 30 carries for 121 yards. Zeier was 25 of 44 for 249 yards, with 1 interception. DETROIT 27, GREEN BAY 20—at Pontiac Silverdome, attendance 77,932. Barry Sanders rushed for 155 yards and 1 touchdown, and Mark Carrier intercepted 2 passes as the Lions defeated the Packers in the Pontiac Silverdome for the fifth time in six seasons. The Packers scored on their first two drives to take a 10-0 lead, but rookie Charlie Batch completed all 4 of his pass attempts on the Lions' ensuing drive en route to Jason Hanson's 25-yard field goal. Carrier's 33-yard interception return two plays later led to Batch's game-tying 3-yard touchdown pass to Pete Chryplewicz. Roell Preston's 47-yard kickoff return to begin the second half set up Ryan Longwell's 40-yard field goal to allow the Packers to retake the lead, 13-10. The Lions drove to the Packers' 2 late in the third quarter, but Tommy Vardell fumbled the ball away. Faced with third-and-9 to begin the fourth quarter, Lions rookie Germane Crowell made a one-handed catch of Batch's pass and outran the coverage for a 68-yard touchdown. After the Lions' defense forced a punt, Sanders scampered 73 yards for a touchdown to put Detroit ahead 24-13 with 8:05 to play. George Jamison's 21-yard interception return thwarted the Packers' next drive and set up Hanson's second field goal with 2:08 remaining. The Packers scored with three seconds left, and Preston recovered the onsides kick near midfield, but Favre's Hail Mary pass fell incomplete in the end zone as time expired. Batch was 16 of 19 for 218 yards and 2 touchdowns. Favre was 22 of 43 for 300 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 3 interceptions for the third consecutive game. The Giants strung together consecutive 11-play drives, both kept alive by third-down pass interference penalties, to take an early 14-0 lead. Jake Plummer threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Johnny McWilliams to cut the deficit to 14-7, but the Giants extended their lead after Daluiso, who missed a 33-yard field-goal attempt, made a 26-yard field goal as the half expired. Percy Ellsworth's interception at the Cardinals' 40 early in the second half led to Daluiso's second field goal, and, following a Cardinals punt, Danny Kanell completed an 80-yard drive with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Chris Calloway. Scott Galyon recovered Plummer's fumble on the ensuing possession, leading to Kanell's 18-yard scoring pass to Amani Toomer. Kanell was 22 of 36 for 259 yards and 3 touchdowns. Lee Flowers recovered Priest Holmes's fumble at the Ravens' 40 two plays into the game, setting up Johnson's first field goal. Matt Stover added 2 field goals, the second of which came after James Jones recovered Richard Huntley's fumble at the Steelers' 35 just before halftime to give the Ravens a 6-3 lead at intermission. The Steelers retook the lead three plays into the second half as Kordell Stewart fired a 55-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson. The Ravens drove deep into Steelers territory, but Dewayne Washington intercepted Eric Zeier's pass at the Steelers' 4 to thwart a late third-quarter drive. Duane Starks returned the favor by intercepting a Stewart pass at the Ravens' 17 on the ensuing possession. Johnson's second field goal with 3:09 left increased the lead to seven points, and, after Chris Oldham recovered Jermaine Lewis's fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Johnson put the game out of reach with a 40-yard boot with 2:09 to play. Trent Dilfer scored 1 touchdown and threw the game-winning scoring pass to Karl Williams with 1:39 remaining to give the Buccaneers a comeback victory. Tampa Bay had the game's first scoring threat, but Les Miller recovered Dilfer's fumble at the Panthers' 8 early in the second quarter. John Kasay's 20-yard field goal capped a 6:18 second-half opening drive to give the Panthers a 6-3 lead. Doug Evans's interception on the ensuing possession led to Fred Lane's 1-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter. After an exchange of punts, the Buccaneers drove 80 yards in 14 plays in 7:30, capped by Dilfer's 1-yard run with 5:05 remaining. The Panthers could get just one first down and had to punt with 2:47 remaining. Dilfer needed just 1:08 to put the go-ahead points on the board, but Michael Husted missed the extra point wide left. Trailing by three points, Kasay made a 52-yard field goal, but the play was whistled dead before the ball was snapped because of an offsides penalty. Attempting a 47-yard field-goal attempt, Kasay's kick sailed wide left. Dilfer was 21 of 31 for 219 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Steve Beuerlein was 22 of 31 for 234 yards.

After a 72-yard, game-opening 4:50 drive ended with running back Mike Archie throwing to Jackie Harris for a touchdown, the Oilers took 9:28 off the clock with a 66-yard drive that culminated in Al Del Greco's 35-yard field goal. Tennessee held the ball for 7:22 on its next possession, with McNair scoring on a 1-yard run, and Del Greco added a 38-yard field goal just before halftime to take a 20-0 lead. The Oilers outgained the Bengals 304-72 in the first half, and held the ball for 22:24 of the half. Following another Del Greco field goal, Joe Bowden returned a Neil O'Donnell fumble for a touchdown to give the Oilers a 30-0 lead less than five minutes into the third quarter. After Corey Dillon broke the ice for the Bengals, the Oilers used a 50-yard kickoff return by Archie to set up McNair's 45-yard touchdown bomb to Kevin Dyson on the next play. CHICAGO 13, DALLAS 12—at Soldier Field, attendance 59,201. Jeff Jaeger kicked a 29-yard field goal with 11 seconds left as the Bears defeated the Cowboys. Randall Godfrey recovered Edgar Bennett's fumble at the Bears' 14 to set up the first of 2 first-half field goals by Richie Cunningham. The Bears only got as close to the end zone as the Cowboys' 39 in the first half. Erik Kramer's 31-yard pass to Bobby Engram led to his 13-yard scoring pass to Chris Penn midway through the third quarter, marking the Bears' first points after having been outscored 61-0 in the third quarter in 1998. Dexter Coakley intercepted Kramer's tipped pass in the third quarter and returned it for a touchdown. However, an illegal block by Kavika Pittman spotted the ball at midfield and led to Jason Garrett's 1-yard touchdown pass to David LaFleur in the final minute of the third quarter. But Garrett's 2-point conversion pass attempt to Michael Irvin fell incomplete, giving the Cowboys just a 12-7 lead. The Bears drove 6:36 to set up Jaeger's first field goal, and, after forcing a punt, drove 4:50, with 2 key passes to Alonzo Mayes, to set up the winning boot with 11 seconds left. Kramer was 18 of 30 for 233 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Garrett was 14 of 26 for 136 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

SAN FRANCISCO 34, INDIANAPOLIS 31—at 3Com Park, attendance 68,486. Steve Young threw 2 touchdown passes and ran for 2 more, and Wade Richey kicked a game-winning 24-yard field goal with five seconds left as the 49ers scored 17 unanswered fourth-quarter points to defeat the Colts. After Richey missed a field goal to begin the game, Marshall Faulk raced 65 yards for a touchdown on the Colts' first play from scrimmage. Marvin Harrison then caught a 4-yard touchdown pass two plays after Jason Belser returned a punt 53 yards to the 49ers' 7, and added a 6-yard catch to complete an 84-yard drive and give the Colts a 21-0 lead. The 49ers scored on their last three possessions of the half, the last two scores coming after penalties wiped out Colts' interceptions in the end zone. Harrison scored from 61 yards in the third quarter, and the Colts increased their lead to 31-17 on Mike Vanderjagt's field goal. Belser recovered Terrell Owens's fumble to stall the 49ers' next drive, but the Colts had to punt. Young finished a 10-play, 91-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run with 9:58 remaining, but a bad snap on the extra point kept the 49ers behind by eight points. The Colts went three and out, and Young's 23-yard scramble cut the deficit to two points, and Young then found Rice for the game-tying 2-point conversion with 5:52 remaining. The Colts drove to the 49ers' 36, but Vanderjagt's 53-yard field-goal attempt was short with 1:13 to play. A 27-yard pass interference penalty on Tyrone Poole set up Richey's winning boot. Young was 33 of 51 for 331 yards, thus setting an NFL record with his sixth consecutive 300-yard game. J.J. Stokes had 9 receptions for 110 yards. Rice caught a 10-yard pass in the first quarter to tie Art Monk's NFL record of 183 consecutive games with a reception. Peyton Manning was 18 of 30 for 231 yards and 3 touchdowns. BUFFALO 17, JACKSONVILLE 16—at Rich Stadium, attendance 77,635. Doug Flutie bootlegged around left end on fourth-and-goal with 13 seconds left to give the Bills a victory over the undefeated Jaguars. It took the Jaguars 16 plays and 10:27 to march 69 yards on the game-opening drive, with Tavian Banks posting the points on the board. After an exchange of punts, Flutie threw a 12-yard scoring pass to Eric Moulds to tie the game. Mike Hollis's field goal as the half ended gave Jacksonville a 10-7 halftime lead. Tony Brackens recovered Antowain Smith's fumble on the opening drive of the second half, setting up Hollis's second field goal. An exchange of field goals gave the Jaguars a 16-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Bills got the ball at their own 30 following a punt with 1:50 left. Two catches and 2 rushes by Thurman Thomas got the Bills to the Jaguars' 39 with 39 seconds left. Flutie then threw deep down the left side to Moulds, who was ruled down at the Jaguars' 1. After three incompletions, Flutie was supposed to pitch the ball to Thomas, but Thomas failed to hear the audible so Flutie ran untouched into the end zone. Flutie, who was starting for injured Rob Johnson, completed 18 of 39 passes for 228 yards and 1 touchdown. Mark Brunell was 16 of 28 for 119 yards.

After both teams took in excess of seven minutes to score on their opening drives, Anderson streaked 31 yards for a go-ahead touchdown. After the Falcons' defense forced a punt, Chris Chandler threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin on the first play to take a 17-7 lead. The Saints cut the deficit to three on Billy Joe Tolliver's 64-yard touchdown pass to Keith Poole, and knocked Chandler out of the game just before halftime when sacked by Mark Fields. The Saints trimmed the lead to one when Wayne Martin sacked DeBerg in the end zone for a safety in the third quarter, but DeBerg's 26-yard pass to Terance Mathis on third-and-3 set up his 8-yard scoring toss to Bob Christian. It was DeBerg's first touchdown pass since 1993. Three plays later, Eugene Robinson returned an interception, the 50th of his career, for a touchdown for the first time in his career. After Tolliver and Poole hooked up again, this time for 82 yards with 3:19 left, the Falcons got two first downs to run out the clock. Chandler was 7 of 10 for 129 yards and 1 touchdown, while the 44-year-old DeBerg was 7 of 10 for 60 yards and 1 touchdown. Martin had 7 receptions for 116 yards. The Oilers put together 83- and 79-yard drives in the first half, sandwiched around a Jaeger field goal, to tie the game 10-10 at halftime. Ricky Bell recovered Mike Archie's fumble on the second half's opening kickoff, and Ty Hallock scored five plays later to give the Bears a 17-10 lead. Edgar Bennett's 17-yard run later in the quarter led to Jaeger's second field goal and a 20-10 lead. The Oilers responded with a long drive, but Marty Carter stopped Michael Roan at the Bears' 1 and forced Al Del Greco to kick a field goal. After Jaeger missed a 34-yard field-goal attempt, the Oilers swiftly marched 76 yards, capped by Rodney Thomas's game-tying 7-yard touchdown run with 3:44 remaining. Erik Kramer completed 2 key passes to Curtis Conway to set up Jaeger's go-ahead kick with 1:03 left. The Oilers drove to the Bears' 31 and faced fourth-and-3 with 21 seconds left. John Friesz, playing for injured Warren Moon, threw a 81-yard bomb to Galloway to open the scoring. After a John Carney field goal, Steve Broussard returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to set up Todd Peterson's 40-yard boot. The Seahawks' defense then forced a punt, and Galloway returned it 74 yards for a touchdown and a 17-3 lead. A 28-yard pass interference penalty on Fred Thomas gave the Chargers the ball at the Seahawks' 5, setting up Natrone Means's game-tying touchdown run midway through the third quarter. Jacquez Green's 55-yard punt return gave the Buccaneers the ball at the Saints' 25 for their first possession, but Patrick Hape fumbled at the Saints' 5 and Knight recovered. Knight's interception early in the second quarter set up Brien's 46-yard field goal for the first half's only points. Reidel Anthony's 32-yard kickoff return to start the second half led to Michael Husted's 52-yard game-tying field goal. The Saints responded as Billy Joe Tolliver completed a 26-yard pass to Keith Poole to put Brien in position for his second field goal and a 6-3 lead. Tolliver fumbled on the Saints' next possession, and Jeff Gooch recovered at the Saints' 20. But Husted missed a 32-yard field-goal attempt, and then missed a 48-yard field-goal attempt early in the fourth quarter. Brien made a 41-yard field goal to put the Saints ahead 9-3 with 7:15 remaining. PITTSBURGH 20, KANSAS CITY 13—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 79,431. Jerome Bettis rushed for 119 yards, his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing game on Monday Night Football, as the Steelers moved into a tie for first place in the AFC Central. Standing in his own end zone in the first quarter, Louie Aguiar had the first punt blocked of his 8-year career. Lance Brown blocked the punt, and Fred McAfee recovered it for a touchdown. Leading 7-6 just before halftime, the Steelers used 11-, 12-, and 13-yard runs by McAfee to set up Norm Johnson's 34-yard field goal as the half expired. Joe Horn ran the opening kickoff of the second half back for a touchdown, but a penalty negated the score. After allowing another Johnson field goal midway through the third quarter, the Chiefs responded with a 65-yard pass from Elvis Grbac to Derrick Alexander to set up Grbac's 2-yard touchdown pass to Andre Rison to tie the game. However, Pittsburgh answered with a 14-play, 60-yard drive capped by Kordell Stewart's 5-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson with 10:05 remaining. The Chiefs had three possessions the remainder of the game: One saw a 43-yard pass bounce off Andre Rison's facemask in the end zone; the second possession was thwarted by Carnell Lake's interception with 4:28 left; and, after getting the ball back with 1:04 left, Jason Gildon forced Grbac to fumble on the first play and Lee Flowers recovered. Stewart was 11 of 22 for 82 yards and 1 touchdown. Grbac was 15 of 36 for 224 yards and 1 touchdown, with 2 interceptions.

Zack Bronson's interception led to Garrison Hearst's 30-yard romp, but Ty Detmer dropped the snap for the extra point, keeping the game tied. Tim McDonald intercepted Favre two plays later, and Wade Richey gave the 49ers their first lead. Richey, however, hit the left upright with a 47-yard attempt late in the third quarter, and Ryan Longwell tied the game with 13:14 left. After forcing a punt, Favre and Freeman hooked up for a 68-yard touchdown to retake the lead. Keith McKenzie then sacked Steve Young, forcing him to fumble. Santana Dotson recovered at the 49ers' 11, and Travis Jervey scored on the next play with 9:30 left. Favre was 15 of 28 for 279 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 3 interceptions. Freeman had 7 catches for 193 yards. Young was 24 of 39 for 186 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception, and also broke Jack Kemp's record by recording the 41st rushing touchdown of his career. Steve McNair threw 3 touchdown passes, and Eddie George rushed for 153 yards and 1 touchdown as the Oilers scored on six of their first seven possessions to beat the Steelers in Pittsburgh for just the second time this decade. The Oilers consumed 6:51, 8:03, and 4:50 off the clock in their three first-half scoring drives to take a 17-7 halftime lead. The Steelers missed a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but the Pittsburgh defense forced a punt. However, Darryll Lewis's 33-yard interception return set up Al Del Greco's second field goal, and Denard Walker's 6-yard interception return moments later led to George's 37-yard touchdown run. The Oilers' defense then stopped the Steelers on their own 29 to regain possession, and McNair threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Willie Davis three plays later to give Tennessee a 34-7 lead 13 seconds into the fourth quarter. After Stewart threw a touchdown pass to Courtney Hawkins, the Steelers got the ball back only to watch Lonnie Marts intercept Stewart and return the pass 27 yards for a touchdown. Mike Tomczak entered the game and drove the Steelers to 2 touchdowns in the final nine minutes. McNair was 13 of 21 for 167 yards and 3 touchdowns. George recorded his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game. SUNDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 1

OAKLAND 31, SEATTLE 18—at Kingdome, attendance 66,246. Donald Hollas passed for 2 touchdowns, and the Raiders' defense forced 5 turnovers that led to 17 points as the Raiders won their fifth consecutive game. Desmond Howard's 35-yard kickoff return after Todd Peterson's field goal set up Hollas's 28-yard scoring pass to Tim Brown. However, Willie Williams intercepted Hollas at the Seahawks' 19 to halt a drive, and, after the Raiders were stopped on downs at the Seahawks' 29, Carlester Crumpler caught a touchdown pass from Warren Moon to give Seattle a 10-7 halftime lead. The Raiders scored twice in the first 4:45 of the second half, with Hollas's 47-yard third-and-11 pass to Jett setting up his touchdown pass to Rickey Dudley, and Albert Lewis streaking 74 yards with an interception return moments later, to take a 21-10 lead. Seattle cut the deficit to 21-18 on its next possession, but fumbled the next three times it had the ball, with Ronnie Harris's fumbled punt at the 5-yard line being recovered by Kenny Shedd to the Seahawks' 1. Jon Ritchie fumbled two plays later, but Darryl Ashmore picked up the ball and stepped into the end zone to complete the scoring. Hollas was 12 of 22 for 237 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Moon was 29 of 39 for 275 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

MONDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 2

DALLAS 34, PHILADELPHIA 0—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 67,002. In his first game since September 13, Troy Aikman threw 2 touchdown passes, and Deion Sanders returned a punt for a touchdown and added an interception as the Cowboys remained in first place in the NFC East. The Cowboys converted 2 third downs and 1 fourth down on their opening drive, but had to settle for Richie Cunningham's field goal. An injury to Rodney Peete forced the Eagles to put Bobby Hoying in late in the first quarter. On Hoying's first play, Hoying and Charlie Garner misconnected on the handoff and Kavika Pittman recovered the fumble at the Eagles' 9. Aikman, who had suffered a fractured left collarbone in week 2, threw a touchdown pass to Michael Irvin two plays later. The Eagles responded with their longest drive into Cowboy territory of the night, but Jason Dunn slipped running his route and Darren Woodson intercepted his pass at the Cowboys' 11. After punting away from Sanders for the entire half, Sanders took Tommy Hutton's punt and rocketed 69 yards for a touchdown. The Cowboys scored on their first three possessions of the second half, the last of which was set up by Sanders's 21-yard interception return. Aikman was 14 of 26 for 171 yards and 2 touchdowns. Smith had 23 carries for 101 yards and an electrifying, broken-field 15-yard touchdown run. Hoying was 13 of 39 for 124 yards, with 2 interceptions.

N.Y. JETS 34, BUFFALO 12—at Giants Stadium, attendance 75,403. In the first battle of Heisman Trophy quarterbacks since 1977, Vinny Testaverde threw 3 touchdown passes as the Jets snapped the Bills' five-game winning streak. The Bills ran plays inside the Jets' 40 in five of their six first-half possessions, yet settled for 3 Steve Christie field goals and punted twice. The Jets trailed 9-7 before John Hall made a 49-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the half. Otis Smith intercepted Doug Flutie two plays later, setting up Hall's 43-yard field goal as the half expired to give the Jets a 13-9 lead. After Testaverde's second touchdown pass gave the Jets a 20-9 advantage, Chrisite booted his fourth field goal to keep the game close. However, Testaverde capped an 11-play drive with a touchdown pass to Wayne Chrebet, and Ray Mickens's interception at the Bills' 46 three plays later set up Curtis Martin's 6-yard scoring run midway through the final quarter. Testaverde was 22 of 331 for 258 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Flutie was 12 of 30 for 154 yards, with 2 interceptions.

SAN FRANCISCO 25, CAROLINA 23—at 3Com Park, attendance 68,572. Wade Richey kicked a 46-yard field goal with 33 seconds left as the 49ers stormed back from a 16-0 deficit behind reserve Ty Detmer to remain tied for first in the NFC West despite committing 6 turnovers. The Panthers drove deep into 49ers territory on each of their first five possessions, scoring four times and having a field goal blocked, to take a 16-0 lead. After throwing interceptions on two of the 49ers first three drives, Detmer threw a 36-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens just before halftime to cut the lead to 16-7. The same pair connected on a 5-yard scoring play to open the second half, and after Kasay missed a 51-yard field-goal attempt, Detmer threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to J.J. Stokes late in the third quarter to give the 49ers a 22-16 lead. Eric Davis recovered Jerry Rice's fumble near midfield with 10:46 left, and William Floyd scored five minutes later to give the Panthers a 23-22 lead. The 49ers responded with a 12-play, 62-yard drive capped by Richey's kick. In an attempt to avoid kicking deep to Michael Bates, the 49ers decided to squib their kickoff. But Anthony Johnson grabbed the ball at midfield and returned it 3 yards to the 49ers' 47 with 30 seconds left, but Kasay's game-winning 57-yard field-goal attempt fell short as time expired. Detmer, who was playing for injured Steve Young, was 21 of 35 for 268 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 3 interceptions. Steve Beuerlein was 25 of 41 for 265 yards and 1 touchdown.

Mark Brunell's 55-yard pass to Alvis Whitted set up Taylor's touchdown less than five minutes into the game. Jacksonville scored on its next two possessions as well to take a 17-0 lead. The Bengals threatened to score midway through the second quarter, reaching the Jaguars' 4, but Joel Smeenge stripped Corey Dillon of the ball. Aaron Beasley recovered it and scampered 90 yards for a touchdown and a 24-0 lead. The Bengals reached the Jaguars' 3 on their next drive, but consecutive incompletions from Neil O'Donnell on third and fourth down ended the threat. Charlie Garner rushed for 129 yards and 1 touchdown and the Eagles' defense permitted just 9 first downs to give Philadelphia its second victory. Garner's 40-yard scamper set up his own 3-yard scoring run early in the second quarter, but the Lions answered on the ensuing drive with a 41-yard field goal by Jason Hanson. Hanson drilled a 48-yard field goal in the third quarter, and a 44-yard run by Barry Sanders set up Hanson's go-ahead 35-yard boot in the opening minute of the final quarter. The Eagles responded quickly as Allen Rossum's 36-yard kickoff return led to Chris Boniol's 39-yard field goal with 10:48 left. After an exchange of punts, the Lions reached the Eagles' 34 with 37 seconds left, but a false start penalty on third-and-2, and then an incompletion, forced Hanson to attempt a 58-yard field goal, which fell short. Bobby Hoying was 15 of 21 for 97 yards. Charlie Batch was 14 of 27 for 146 yards. Sanders rushed 20 times for 140 yards.

Minnesota had drives of 94 yards and 70 yards to take a 10-0 lead with 1:37 left in the half. Craver redeemed himself, however, by returning the following kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown. After Doug Brien's field goal cut the deficit to 17-10, Robert Smith raced 61 yards for a touchdown on the next play from scrimmage to give the Vikings a 24-10 lead. Billy Joe Tolliver's 49-yard pass to Craver set up a 9-yard touchdown by the tandem to cut the deficit to seven points. The Vikings were about to increase their lead early in the fourth quarter when Sammy Knight intercepted Brad Johnson's deflected pass and bolted 94 yards untouched to tie the game. The Vikings proceeded to march 81 yards in 11 plays on the ensuing drive to retake the lead on Hoard's second touchdown with 3:43 left. The Saints could not cross midfield on their final drive. The Vikings outgained the Saints 465-190 yards. Johnson, who replaced an injured Randall Cunningham, was 28 of 38 for 316 yards and 1 touchdown, with 2 interceptions. ARIZONA 29, WASHINGTON 27—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 45,950. Joe Nedney kicked a 47-yard field goal with two seconds remaining to give the Cardinals a 5-4 record for the first time since 1988. The Redskins scored touchdowns on their final two possessions of the half to take a 17-7 lead. Trailing 17-14, Jake Plummer completed all 4 of his pass attempts on an 11-play, 60-yard drive capped by Bates's second touchdown to give Arizona a 21-17 lead with 12:34 remaining. Pinned on the Redskins' 4-yard line moments later, punter Matt Turk missed the snap, which resulted in an Arizona safety. The Cardinals ran 7:39 off the clock following the free kick and took a 26-17 lead on Nedney's 26-yard field goal with 3:09 left. The Redskins needed just seven plays to drive 80 yards and cut the deficit to 26-24 on Trent Green's 35-yard touchdown pass to Leslie Shepherd. Stephen Davis recovered the ensuing onside kick for the Redskins, and Cary Blanchard drilled a 54-yard field goal with 35 seconds left to give Washington the lead. Plummer completed 4 of 5 passes, including an 18-yard pass to Frank Sanders, to set up Nedney's heroics. Plummer was 22 of 30 for 186 yards and 1 touchdown. Adrian Murrell rushed 23 times for 107 yards. Green was 17 of 33 for 183 yards and 1 touchdown.

TENNESSEE 31, TAMPA BAY 22—at Raymond James Stadium, attendance 65,054. Steve McNair's 71-yard touchdown run with 1:46 left gave the Oilers their fourth victory in five games and handed the Buccaneers their first loss at Raymond James Stadium. In the first half, the Buccaneers outgained the Oilers 289-110 and scored on four of their five possessions to take a 16-3 lead into the locker room. Eddie George's 14-yard touchdown run on the second half's opening drive cut the deficit to six points, and George's 30-yard run on the Oilers' next possession set up Mike Archie's touchdown and gave Tennessee a 17-16 edge. Early in the fourth quarter, Anthony Dorsett downed Craig Hentrich's 50-yard punt at the Buccaneers' 1, setting up Joe Bowden's 1-yard interception return for a touchdown on the next play to give Tennessee a 24-16 lead. The Buccaneers regrouped and marched 79 yards in 14 plays and scored on Trent Dilfer's 10-yard pass to Reidel Anthony with 3:32 to play. However, Dilfer's potential game-tying 2-point conversion pass to Bert Emanuel fell incomplete. The Oilers faced third-and-8 from their own 29 with 2:00 left when McNair avoided Tyoka Jackson in the backfield and scrambled 71 yards for the game-clinching touchdown. McNair was 9 of 16 for 123 yards. George rushed 27 times for 134 yards. Dilfer was 20 of 38 for 294 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Emanuel had 5 receptions for 106 yards.

MONDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 9

PITTSBURGH 27, GREEN BAY 20—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 60,507. Kordell Stewart passed for 1 touchdown and ran for another as the Steelers took a 27-point lead and held off a late rally to defeat the Packers. The Steelers scored on their first five possessions, taking advantage of Ryan Longwell's missed 51-yard field goal on the Packers' first drive and Dewayne Washington's interception at the Packers' 46 to open the second half, en route to a 27-0 lead. The Packers responded with a field goal, but were stopped on downs at their own 39 early in the fourth quarter and the Steelers drove to the Packers' 4. Faced with third-and-goal, the Steelers sent Mike Tomczak into the game and lined up Stewart as a wide receiver. The play backfired, however, as Reggie White sacked Tomczak and forced him to fumble. Keith McKenzie scooped up the ball and raced 88 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 27-9. The Steelers punted after three plays, and Raymont Harris capped a 74-yard drive with a touchdown to cut the deficit to 27-17. Jeff Thomason recovered the ensuing onside kick with 4:52 left. Longwell kicked a 37-yard field goal with 2:40 remaining, but Mark Bruener recovered the onside kick. Jerome Bettis gained 12 yards on a third-and-5 run with 2:00 left to clinch the victory. Stewart was 15 of 22 for 231 yards and 1 touchdown. Bettis rushed for 100 yards, marking the seventh consecutive time he reached the century mark on Monday Night Football. Brett Favre was 22 of 39 for 234 yards, with 1 interception.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15

SAN DIEGO 14, BALTIMORE 13—at Qualcomm Stadium, attendance 54,388. The Chargers defense recorded 6 sacks, intercepted 2 passes, and limited the Ravens to 8 first downs to improve to 3-2 at home. One of the Ravens' 2 first-half first downs set up Matt Stover's 42-yard field goal. The Ravens defense did not let the Chargers run a play inside their own 40-yard line in the first half, but Craig Whelihan's 47-yard touchdown pass to Charlie Jones gave San Diego a 7-3 halftime lead. Jim Harbaugh's 58-yard touchdown pass to Jermaine Lewis gave the Ravens a 10-7 lead, but the Chargers responded with a 16-play, 69-yard drive, capped by Terrell Fletcher's 3-yard scoring run. Greg Jackson's interception at the Chargers' 10 thwarted the ensuing drive, and Lewis's 35-yard punt return set up Stover's second field goal with 3:49 remaining. The Ravens failed to get a first down on their final possession. Whelihan was 15 of 42 for 172 yards and 1 touchdown. Harbaugh was 12 of 33 for 150 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

Randall Cunningham ran for 1 touchdown and threw for another as the Vikings maintained a 2-game lead over the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Central. The Vikings scored a touchdown on their only drive inside Bengals' territory in the first half, while the Bengals could only muster a Doug Pelfrey field goal out of three first half-possessions inside Vikings' territory. An Artrell Hawkins interception at the Bengals' 12 put a halt to the Vikings drive midway through the third quarter, but John Randle forced Neil O'Donnell to fumble moments later. Dwayne Rudd scooped up the loose ball and raced 63 yards for his first NFL touchdown. Gary Anderson booted a 32-yard field goal on the Vikings' next possession, and one play after Jimmy Hitchcock intercepted a pass to stop a drive, Cunningham threw a 61-yard touchdown bomb to Randy Moss to ice the game. Cunningham was 13 of 20 for 224 yards and 1 touchdown, with 2 interceptions. Neil O'Donnell was 10 of 17 for 77 yards.

DALLAS 35, ARIZONA 28—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 71,670. The Cowboys sprinted to a 28-0 lead but had to withstand a furious Cardinals' rally to take a two-game lead in the NFC East. The Cowboys scored touchdowns on four out of five possessions during a stretch of the first half, with the second and fourth tallies set up by Arizona turnovers, to take a 28-0 lead with 3:29 remaining in the half. The Cardinals scored just before halftime and marched 60 yards to begin the second half to cut the deficit to 28-14. The Cowboys, buoyed by Troy Aikman's 43-yard pass to Billy Davis, took a 35-14 lead on their next possession when Emmitt Smith scored his third touchdown. The Cardinals drove 73 yards on their next drive to slash the lead to 35-21, and reached the Cowboys' 16 on their following possession, but turned the ball over on downs with 6:51 remaining. Not deterred, the Cardinals' defense forced a punt, and Jake Plummer guided the offense on an 8-play, 70-yard drive to trim the lead to 35-28 with 3:09 left. After another punt, the Cardinals began their final drive from their own 22 with 52 seconds left. Plummer's 57-yard pass to Rob Moore to the Cowboys' 5 set up two plays in the final nine seconds, but both pass attempts into the end zone fell incomplete. Aikman was 14 of 18 for 208 yards and 1 touchdown. Smith had 26 carries for 118 yards. Plummer was 31 of 56 for 465 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Roell Preston's 66-yard kickoff return to begin the second half led to Longwell's third field goal, and a 73-yard drive on their next possession was capped by William Henderson's 7-yard run to give the Packers a 30-3 lead. The Panthers benefited from a 39-yard kickoff return by Michael Bates and, two possessions later, an 18-yard interception return by Kevin Greene to the Dolphins' 15, to set up 2 John Kasay field goals. The Dolphins led 10-6 when the Panthers were confronted with third-and-1 on the Dolphins' 17 with the opening possession of the second half, but William Floyd and Tim Biakabutuka were both stopped for no gain. Arizona led 31-0 with 4:05 left in the first half, driving 80, 58, and 70 yards for the last three touchdowns. Ten of the points were set up by Brian Mitchell's muffed punt return and Bernard Wilson's blocked field goal. The Redskins responded with a fury. Trailing 38-20 late in the third quarter following Trent Green's third touchdown pass to Michael Westbrook, Lemont Evans successfully recovered an onside kick, and Green threw his fourth touchdown pass five plays later. Evans intercepted Plummer to halt the Cardinals' next drive, and Skip Hicks scored nine plays later to cut the deficit to 38-35 with 9:18 left. Plummer's third touchdown run, on a fourth-and-goal quarterback sneak, increased the Cardinals lead to 45-35 with 3:49 remaining. Green countered with a 2-yard run of his own with 1:46 left, giving the Redskins a touchdown on each of their last six possessions. Pat Tillman recovered the ensuing onside kick, but Dan Wilkinson stuffed Michael Bates on fourth-and-1 at the Redskins' 31 with 1:16 left. However, Kwamie Lassiter denied the Redskins the biggest regular-season comeback in NFL history by intercepting Green's tipped pass at the Redskins' 47 with 1:02 left. Plummer was 17 of 28 for 251 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Green was 30 of 49 for 382 yards and 4 touchdowns, with 1 interception. PHILADELPHIA 17, ST. LOUIS 14—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 66,155. Koy Detmer passed for 2 touchdowns as the Eagles spoiled Dick Vermeil's return to the City of Brotherly Love. Vermeil had guided the Eagles to Super Bowl XV following the 1980 season. Michael Zordich's interception at the Rams' 23 set up Detmer's first touchdown pass. The Rams trailed 10-0 before 2 Jeff Wilkins field goals, the second coming with just 17 seconds remaining in the half, to cut the deficit to four points. Detmer's 61-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar staked the Eagles to a 17-6 lead, and Chris Boniol lined up for a 46-yard field-goal attempt early in the fourth quarter. However, Kevin Carter blocked the field-goal attempt, and June Henley scored seven plays later to cut the Eagles' lead to 17-14 with 11:04 remaining. Wilkins's game-tying 52-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide left with 4:15 left, but the Rams got the ball back and reached their own 48-yard line with 12 seconds left. On fourth-and-2, Tony Banks completed a pass to J.T. Thomas, who nearly split the secondary before being tackled by Tim McTyer in bounds at the Eagles' 35. The Rams were out of time outs, and the clock expired. Detmer was 17 of 33 for 169 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Banks was 22 of 37 for 255 yards, with 1 interception.

Only Doug Flutie's 25-yard touchdown pass to Thurman Thomas put the Bills on the board to tie the game 7-7. Each team's opening drive of the second half ended with a field goal, but Testaverde quickly broke the 10-10 tie with a 71-yard touchdown pass to Dedric Ward. Victor Green's diving interception at the Jets' 17 ended Buffalo's best fourth-quarter threat, and Testaverde connected for 7 yards on a third-and-6 pass with Keyshawn Johnson with 41 seconds left to ice the game. ARIZONA 19, NEW ORLEANS 17—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 51,617. Jake Plummer piloted another daring comeback, and Chris Jacke booted through the exclamation point as time expired to keep the Cardinals in the playoff chase while eliminating the Saints. Sammy Knight's 39-yard interception return for a touchdown staked the Saints to a 7-3 lead. The Cardinals drove deep into Saints' territory four times in the first half. But Jacke made only 2 of 3 field goals and the Cardinals turned the ball over when Alex Molden stripped Frank Sanders of the ball at the Saints' 1 and Chad Cota recovered to secure a 10-6 halftime lead. The Saints drove to the Cardinals' 23, but Patrick Sapp forced Kerry Collins to fumble. Jamir Miller recovered, and Adrian Murrell scooted 29 yards for a touchdown seven plays later to give Arizona a 13-10 lead. The Cardinals defense stiffened as Bernard Wilson blocked Doug Brien's 54-yard field-goal attempt and a slew of defenders stopped Aaron Craver on fourth-and-1 from the Cardinals' 9 with 10:50 to play. Jacke added a 46-yard field goal on the ensuing drive to give Arizona a 16-10 lead, but the Saints marched 75 yards in 14 plays to retake the lead on Collins's 13-yard scoring toss to Cameron Cleeland with 1:21 remaining. With elimination from playoff contention facing the loser, the Cardinals began on their own 8-yard line. Plummer promptly fired 25- and 28-yard strikes to Sanders to reach the Saints' 39, and his 21-yard scramble a few plays later set up Jacke's heroics. Arizona compiled 513 yards and 28 first downs. Plummer was 32 of 44 for 394 yards, with 1 interception. Sanders has 10 receptions for 138 yards. Collins was 25 of 43 for 265 yards and 1 touchdown.

GREEN BAY 30, TENNESSEE 22—at Lambeau Field, attendance 59,888. Brett Favre and Antonio Freeman hooked up for 3 touchdowns as the Packers hurt the Oilers' playoff hopes. Favre and Freeman wasted little time, connecting on the third play of the game for a 57-yard touchdown. The tandem scored two possessions later and, clinging to a 14-7 lead late in the half, hit paydirt from 32 yards out just before halftime to give the Packers a 21-7 halftime lead. The Packers drove into Oilers territory in five of their six second-half possessions, yet came away with just 3 field goals. Steve McNair's third touchdown pass, along with Eddie George's 2-point conversion, cut the deficit to 30-22 with 53 seconds left, but Mike Prior recovered the ensuing onside kick to secure the victory. Favre was 14 of 22 for 253 yards and 3 touchdowns. Freeman had 7 receptions for 186 yards. McNair was 29 of 49 for 263 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception.

MINNESOTA 50, JACKSONVILLE 10—at Metrodome, attendance 64,363. Randall Cunningham passed for 3 touchdowns and the Vikings scored 17 points during a 48-second outburst early in the fourth quarter to defeat the Jaguars. The Vikings led 6-0 when Orlando Thomas intercepted Jonathan Quinn's pass near midfield. Cunningham's 13-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Glover moments later gave Minnesota a 12-0 lead, which was cut to 12-3 by Mike Hollis's 25-yard field goal as the half expired. A flea-flicker on the second half's second play produced a 43-yard touchdown catch by Randy Moss to give the Vikings a 19-3 edge. Glover's second touchdown catch capped an 11-play drive a few possessions later, and Brad Johnson's 1-yard touchdown pass to Cris Carter was Carter's 100th career touchdown catch and gave Minnesota a 33-3 lead with 12:38 to play. After another Anderson field goal on the next drive, Jimmy Hitchcock's interception and 30-yard touchdown return on the next play gave the Vikings a 43-3 lead. Bobby Houston's fumble recovery and return to the Jaguars' 1 on the next play from scrimmage set up Charles Evans's touchdown on the following play. Quinn tossed a touchdown pass to Pete Mitchell with 2:56 remaining. Cunningham was 16 of 30 for 210 yards and 3 touchdowns. Robert Smith carried 19 times for 101 yards. MIAMI 31, DENVER 21—at Pro Player Stadium, attendance 74,363. In his first matchup with John Elway since 1985, Dan Marino passed for 355 yards and 4 touchdowns as the Dolphins clinched the AFC's final playoff berth. It seemed to be the Broncos night when, leading 3-0, Olindo Mare missed a 28-yard field-goal attempt and, moments later, a scrambling Elway fumbled into the end zone, only to have Rod Smith recover the ball for a touchdown and 10-0 lead. Marino threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Lamar Thomas with 54 seconds left in the half, but Jason Elam gave Denver a 13-7 halftime lead with a 44-yard boot as the half expired. Elam missed a 43-yard field-goal attempt to open the second half, and Marino struck quickly with a 56-yard scoring pass to Thomas. The same duo connected less than five minutes later to give Miami a 21-13 lead. Sam Madison's 35-yard interception return to the Broncos' 6 set up Marino's fourth touchdown pass with 8:15 remaining to give the Dolphins a 28-13 advantage. On the ensuing kickoff, Vaughn Hebron recorded the Broncos' first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1972, a span of 1,362 kickoffs. However, Jerry Wilson's interception at the Broncos' 44 with 3:17 to play set up Mare's 42-yard field goal to ice the game. Marino was 23 of 38 for 355 yards and 4 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Thomas had 6 receptions for 136 yards. Elway was 13 of 36 for 151 yards, with 2 interceptions.

KANSAS CITY 31, OAKLAND 24—at Network Associates Coliseum, attendance 52,679. Byron (Bam) Morris rushed for 96 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Chiefs overcame an early 14-0 deficit to deny the Raiders their first winning season since 1994. Wade Wilson's touchdown pass to Tim Brown gave Oakland a 7-0 lead, and Charles Woodson's interception moments later led to Randy Jordan's 10-yard scoring run. Morris's first touchdown culminated a 64-yard march on the ensuing drive. Morris and Elvis Grbac hooked up for a 29-yard pass play on the Chiefs' first possession of the second half, setting up Morris's tying touchdown run. Greg Davis kicked a field goal to cap the Raiders' next possession, but Wilson was forced to leave the game because of a groin injury during the drive. Grbac's 37-yard pass to Derrick Alexander set up Pete Stoyanovich's tying field goal, and Leslie O'Neal stripped reserve Donald Hollas of the ball less than three minutes later. Derrick Thomas scooped up the fumble and gave the Chiefs their first defensive touchdown of the season and their first lead of the game. Hollas also left because of an injury, and Jeff George guided the Raiders to a game-tying touchdown with 9:17 left. Grbac responded with a 20-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez with 5:56 remaining, and the Raiders got no closer than the Chiefs' 40 in their final two possessions. Grbac was 20 of 32 for 254 yards and 1 touchdown, with 2 interceptions. Wilson was 13 of 18 for 127 yards and 1 touchdown, Hollas was 4 of 6 for 60 yards, and George was 9 of 18 for 138 yards and 1 touchdown. Brown had 10 catches for 140 yards to record his sixth consecutive 1,000-receiving yard season.

Randall Cunningham passed for 2 touchdowns as the Vikings set the NFL record for most points in a season and became just the third club to have a 15-1 record. Tennessee led 6-5 midway into the second quarter when Steve McNair completed a 23-yard pass to Kevin Dyson and 26-yard pass to Jackie Harris to set up Eddie George's 2-yard scoring burst. Trailing 13-8 at halftime, the Vikings, who needed 12 points to break the 1983 Washington Redskins record, drove downfield to open the second half and broke the mark on Cunningham's 5-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss. Moss's one-handed 2-point conversion catch gave Minnesota a 16-13 lead. The Oilers responded with Al Del Greco's third field goal to tie the game, but Cunningham fired a 38-yard scoring pass to Cris Carter three minutes later to give the Vikings a 23-16 lead. The Oilers didn't drive beyond the Vikings' 49 in their final four possessions, and Gary Anderson's 30-yard field goal with 1:03 left iced the game. Anderson became the first kicker in NFL history to finish a season without a missed field goal (35-35) or extra point (59-59). Cunningham was 23 of 35 for 235 yards and 1 touchdown, with 2 interceptions. McNair was 16 of 33 for 261 yards. Rob Johnson threw 3 touchdown passes as the Bills jumped out to a 28-0 lead but had to endure a fierce comeback attempt before defeating the Saints. Bruce Smith's 18-yard fumble return to the Saints' 1 set up Antowain Smith's 1-yard touchdown run 35 seconds into the game. Johnson and Eric Moulds connected on a 66-yard scoring play less than three minutes into the game, and Kurt Schulz's interception at the Saints' 49 led to Johnson's 12-yard touchdown run and a 21-0 Bills lead 8:47 into the game. After punting on their fourth possession, Johnson capped an 81-yard drive with a scoring toss to Sam Gash to take a 28-0 lead. Billy Joe Tolliver replaced starter Kerry Collins, and the Saints scored on three consecutive possessions spanning the second and third quarters to cut the deficit to 31-21. However, the Saints attempted an onside kick, and Joe Cummings returned it 21 yards to the Saints' 33 to set up Rob Johnson's scoring pass to Lonnie Johnson on the first play of the final quarter. Emanuel Martin's 23-yard interception return led to Jonathan Linton's touchdown with 6:39 left to give Buffalo a 45-21 lead. After Aaron Craver's touchdown cut the lead to 45-27 with 1:57 remaining, Rob Kelly recovered the ensuing onside kick. The Colts used a 46-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Torrance Small to set up the first of Mike Vanderjagt's 3 first-half field goals. Monty Montgomery's fumble recovery at the Panthers' 15 led to the second, and after Manning's 44-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Pollard, Vanderjagt's 47-yard boot with one second left in the half gave the Colts a 16-6 lead. Bates changed the game's momentum by breaking three tackles en route to his 99-yard return to begin the second half. After a punt, Steve Beuerlein's 46-yard pass to Raghib Ismail set up Tim Biakabutuka's touchdown run to give the Panthers a 20-16 lead. Vanderjagt's fourth field goal cut the deficit to one point late in the third quarter, but Beuerlein and Ismail capped a 9-play, 80-yard drive with a 5-yard scoring play with 3:16 left. Eric Davis intercepted Manning at the Panthers' 46 with 1:58 remaining, but the Colts received another chance following Ken Walter's fumbled punt snap, giving Indianapolis the ball at the Panthers' 37 with 55 seconds left. ARIZONA 16, SAN DIEGO 13—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 71,670. Chris Jacke drilled a 52-yard field goal as time expired to vault the Cardinals into the postseason for the first time since 1982. The victory also gave the Cardinals their first winning season since 1984. The Cardinals took a 10-0 lead, with Jacke's 37-yard field goal being set up by the first of Kwamie Lassiter's NFL record-tying 4 interceptions. After intercepting a pass to end the half, Lassiter's third interception, midway through the third quarter, stopped the Chargers at the Cardinals' 12. Jacke missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt, but Simeon Rice's fumble recovery at the Chargers' 27 a few plays later led to Jacke's 36-yard field goal and gave Arizona a 13-3 lead. John Carney's 26-yard field goal cut the deficit to 13-6 with 9:46 left in the game. Lassiter's fourth interception, at the Cardinals' 7, was returned 29 yards with 4:21 remaining, but Jacke missed a 42-yard field goal with 1:55 left. The Chargers took advantage and tied the game on Craig Whelihan's 30-yard fourth-and-20 scoring strike to Ryan Thelwell with 16 seconds left. Eric Metcalf returned the ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44 with seven seconds left. Jake Plummer took four seconds to throw a 10-yard pass to Frank Sanders, thus setting up Jacke's heroics. Plummer was 20 of 41 for 274 yards. Sanders had 8 receptions for 106 yards. Whelihan was 16 of 40 for 214 yards and 1 touchdown, with 4 interceptions. Terrell Fletcher carried 23 times for 127 yards.

Terrell Davis rushed for 178 yards to become the fourth running back in NFL history to surpass the 2,000-rushing yard mark for a season as the Broncos defeated Seattle. The Seahawks drove 67 yards following Jason Elam's missed field goal to take a 7-0 lead on the strength of Ricky Watters's 4-yard run. The Broncos' defense stymied the Seahawks into six consecutive scoreless possessions, while the offense drove 85, 85, 74, and 88 yards for touchdowns, 2 on touchdown passes from John Elway to Shannon Sharpe, to take a 28-7 lead with 11:45 left. The Seahawks strung together two touchdowns in the final six minutes, the second coming on Watters's first-ever touchdown pass with 1:32 remaining. However, Derek Loville recovered the ensuing onside kick to seal the victory. Elway was 26 of 36 for 338 yards and 4 touchdowns. Davis finished the season with 2,008 yards, passing the 2,000-yard mark on a 15-yard run with 8:52 remaining in the game. Jon Kitna was 22 of 37 for 242 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

TAMPA BAY 35, CINCINNATI 0—at Cinergy Field, attendance 49,826. Mike Alstott rushed for 3 touchdowns as the Buccaneers accumulated their highest point total since week one of the 1990 season. The Buccaneers needed to win, have the Giants defeat the Eagles, and the Cardinals lose to the Chargers. The Giants won, but so did Arizona, thus denying the Buccaneers a postseason berth. After scoring on a 50-yard pass play from Trent Dilfer to Robb Thomas five plays into the game, the Buccaneers had possession inside the Bengals' 20 five more times during the first half, three of the possessions set up by special-teams gaffes: a bad punt snap at the Bengals' 8; a fumbled kickoff return by Eric Bieniemy at the Bengals' 31; and Don Davis's blocked punt at the Bengals' 4, to take a 28-0 halftime lead. The Bengals drove into Buccaneers' territory just once in the first half, but Doug Pelfrey missed a 40-yard field-goal attempt on the Bengals' first drive. The Bengals were thwarted twice in the second half, once being stopped on downs at the Buccaneers' 7 and the second time falling prey to Ronde Barber goal-line interception and 56-yard return to set up Alstott's final touchdown plunge. Dilfer was 10 of 16 for 111 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Paul Justin was 4 of 10 for 74 yards before being replaced by Eric Kresser, who was 7 of 17 for 102 yards, with 2 interceptions.

Emmitt Smith scored twice as he set an NFL record for career rushing touchdowns as the Cowboys became the first NFC East team to have an 8-0 record against its divisional opponents. Each team drove into the opposition's territory in five of their six first-half possessions, but the Redskins scored just once, turning the ball over twice, while the Cowboys scored four times en route to a 20-7 halftime edge. Smith passed Marcus Allen on the all-time list with a 1-yard run 2:20 into the second quarter for his 124th career rushing touchdown. The Cowboys' defense limited the Redskins to just 3 first downs in their five second-half possessions and did not permit them to cross the Cowboys' 42. Troy Aikman was 10 of 15 for 184 yards. Trent Green was 21 of 35 for 223 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception.

JACKSONVILLE 21, PITTSBURGH 3—at ALLTEL Stadium, attendance 74,143. The Jaguars prepared for the playoffs by handing the Steelers their fifth consecutive loss and their first non winning record since 1991. The Steelers drove into Jaguars' territory on each of their first 3 possessions, but fumbled and missed a field goal before settling for a 24-yard field goal. A 40-yard pass interference penalty set up rookie quarterback Jonathan Quinn's first career touchdown run, and Quinn's 64-yard pass to Keenan McCardell on the next possession led to Fred Taylor's 9-yard touchdown grab. Quinn's 42-yard pass to Jimmy Smith in the third quarter led to Taylor's 12-yard scamper and a 21-3 Jaguars lead. Kordell Stewart had three potential touchdown passes dropped in the end zone, including two on back-to-back plays in the fourth quarter to turn the ball over on downs. Quinn was 10 of 19 for 192 yards and 1 touchdown. Stewart was 17 of 37 for 174 yards, with 2 interceptions. AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

MIAMI 24, BUFFALO 17—at Pro Player Stadium, attendance 72,698. Trace Armstrong sacked Doug Flutie and forced him to fumble at the Dolphins' 3-yard line with nine seconds left to preserve Miami's first postseason victory in four seasons. Flutie completed a 65-yard pass to Eric Moulds on the game's first play, but Terrell Buckley stripped Moulds and Brock Marion recovered. Olindo Mare kicked field goals to finish each of the Dolphins' first 2 possessions. Following the second score, Mare attempted an onside kick, but Buffalo's Dan Brandenburg recovered the ball. Flutie's 37-yard pass to Moulds set up Thurman Thomas's touchdown run to give Buffalo a 7-6 lead. The Bills drove to the Dolphins' 6 late in the half, but Marion intercepted Flutie's pass in the end zone. Dan Marino's 52-yard Hail Mary pass was caught by Oronde Gadsden at the Bills' 9 with six seconds left, but Mare's 26-yard field-goal attempt hit the right upright as the half expired. Karim Abdul-Jabbar's 3-yard run, and Stanley Pritchett's 2-point conversion jaunt, gave the Dolphins a 14-7 lead with 2:32 left in the quarter. However, Flutie's 23-yard pass to Moulds set up the pair's 32-yard touchdown connection to tie the game in the quarter's final minute. Mare's 23-yard field goal gave the Dolphins a 17-14 lead with 9:45 left, and Jerry Wilson forced Andre Reed to fumble and Buckley recovered at the Dolphins' 44 with 8:02 left. The Dolphins burned 4:20 off the clock and scored on Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Lamar Thomas. On the following drive, Buffalo reached the Dolphins' 1, but a personal foul penalty on Reed pushed the Bills back and they settled for Steve Christie's field goal with 1:33 left to cut the deficit to 24-17. Sam Madison bobbled the ensuing onsides kick, and Buffalo's Curt Schulz recovered at the Bills' 31. The Bills drove to the Dolphins' 5 with 17 seconds left before Shane Burton recovered the fumble that Armstrong forced. Marino was 23 of 34 for 235 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Flutie was 21 of 36 for 360 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Moulds, who had 9 catches, set an NFL playoff record with 240 receiving yards.

ARIZONA 20, DALLAS 7—at Texas Stadium, attendance 62,969. Jake Plummer passed for 2 touchdowns and Aeneas Williams had 2 interceptions as the Cardinals won a postseason game for the first time since 1947. Richie Cunningham missed a 36-yard field goal in the latter part of the first quarter, and Plummer immediately seized the opportunity, firing a 59-yard pass to Frank Sanders. Three plays later, Plummer threw a shovel pass to Adrian Murrell, who scooted into the end zone to give Arizona a 7-0 lead. The Cowboys drove deep into Cardinals' territory, but Mark Maddox stopped Emmitt Smith on fourth-and-1 at the Cardinals' 7. Chris Jacke kicked a field goal 19 seconds before halftime, and Murrell raced 74 yards on the second play of the second half, setting up Plummer's 3-yard toss to Larry Centers to give the Cardinals a 17-0 lead 1:16 into the third quarter. Williams's second interception at the Cowboys' 37 set up Jacke's second field goal 2:05 into the final quarter. The Cardinals' defense twice stopped Dallas on fourth-down attempts before Troy Aikman's 6-yard pass to Billy Davis averted the shutout with 3:33 remaining. Larry Centers recovered the ensuing onsides kick, and Tommy Bennett intercepted an Aikman pass with 48 seconds remaining to secure the victory. JACKSONVILLE 25, NEW ENGLAND 10—at Foxboro Stadium, attendance 71,139. Fred Taylor rushed for 162 yards, the most in the postseason by a rookie since Timmy Smith in Super Bowl XXII, and scored a touchdown as the Jaguars reached the divisional playoffs for the second time in the franchise's four seasons. The Jaguars scored on two of their first three possessions, the second keyed by Taylor's 46-yard run, to take a 6-0 lead. Taylor reversed field on a 21-yard gain before sprinting 13 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter to give the Jaguars a 12-0 halftime lead. The Jaguars' defense forced 7 punts in the first half, as Jacksonville had more first downs (12-1) and total yards (199-54). The Patriots retaliated with a 17-play, 85-yard scoring drive that took 8:48 off the clock on their first possession of the second half, capped by Robert Edwards's 1-yard run. Adam Vinatieri's field goal on the next drive cut the deficit to 12-10, but Mark Brunell, who missed the previous three games with an ankle injury, needed just six plays to respond, lofting a 37-yard touchdown pass to a diving Jimmy Smith to give the Jaguars a 19-10 lead with 12:24 remaining in the game. Tony Brackens recovered a fumble and sacked Scott Zolak on fourth down to set up 2 late Mike Hollis field goals as the Patriots never crossed midfield the remainder of the game. Brunell was 14 of 34 for 161 yards and 1 touchdown. Zolak, who started in place of injured Drew Bledsoe, was 21 of 44 for 190 yards, with 1 interception. Darren Sharper forced Owens to fumble at the Packers' 47 on the game's third play. Pat Terrell recovered the ball, leading to Ryan Longwell's first field goal. Merton Hanks forced Dorsey Levens to fumble later in the quarter, and Chris Doleman recovered. Greg Clark caught a touchdown pass from Steve Young three plays later to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead. Brett Favre threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Freeman on the next drive, but R.W. McQuarter's 19-yard punt return set up Wade Richey's tying field goal midway through the second quarter. Recently signed free-agent Charles Haley pressured Favre into throwing an early second-half interception, returned 17 yards by Lee Woodall to the Packers' 33. From there, Young threw his second touchdown pass of the game to Clark to tie the score. Three field goals on successive possessions, 2 by Richey, gave the 49ers a 23-20 lead with 6:12 to play. Darnell Walker intercepted Favre at the Packers' 43, but the 49ers were forced to punt giving Green Bay the ball at their own 11 with 4:19 remaining. Eugene Robinson stopped a 49ers' drive late in the third quarter by intercepting a pass at the Falcons' 3 and returning it 77 yards, being denied a touchdown by Terry Kirby's tackle. Atlanta settled for Morten Andersen's 29-yard field goal, and Andersen tacked three more points on the board less than six minutes later following William White's interception. The 49ers responded with a 13-play, 87-yard drive, capped by Young's 8-yard run with 2:57 remaining. A high snap on the extra-point attempt prompted holder Ty Detmer to roll out and throw a 2-point conversion pass to Greg Clark to cut the deficit to 20-18. The 49ers' onside kick hopped out of bounds, and San Francisco did not gain possession until getting the ball on their own 4-yard line with 38 seconds left. N.Y. JETS 34, JACKSONVILLE 24—at Giants Stadium, attendance 78,817. Keyshawn Johnson caught a touchdown pass, rushed for a touchdown, and intercepted a pass to seal the Jets' first postseason victory since 1986. The Jets needed just seven plays on the game's opening drive to reach the end zone, courtesy of Vinny Testaverde's 21-yard pass to Johnson, to take a 7-0 lead. A 13-play drive set up John Hall's 52-yard field goal to give the Jets a 10-0 lead, and Otis Smith's interception on the Jaguars' first play after the field goal gave the Jets the ball at their own 40. Ten plays later, from the Jaguars' 22, Curtis Martin fumbled, and Chris Hudson recovered the ball. Hudson ran into Jets' territory and attempted a lateral, recovered by Johnson at the Jets' 35. The Jets then took 11 plays to march 65 yards, capped by Johnson's 10-yard reverse run to take a 17-0 lead with 33 seconds left in the half. The Jets had run 34 of the last 35 plays from scrimmage. The Jaguars got on the scoreboard, as Jimmy Smith caught Mark Brunell's 52-yard bomb as the half expired. Corwin Brown's interception in the opening minutes of the second half set up Martin's 1-yard touchdown run, but Reggie Barlow's 88-yard kickoff return led to Brunell's 3-yard touchdown pass to Keenan McCardell to cut the deficit to 24-10. Martin scored again on the next drive, but the Jaguars used Brunell's second touchdown pass to Smith to cut the lead to 31-21, and then used Wayne Chrebet's fumble to set up Mike Hollis's 37-yard field goal with 6:38 left. Donovin Darius halted the Jets' next drive with an interception in the end zone, but he stepped out and was tackled at the Jets' 1 with 2:24 left. The Jaguars failed to get a first down, and Hall iced the game with a 30-yard field goal with 24 seconds left. In the final seconds, Brunell's Hail Mary pass was picked off by Johnson, who finished with 9 receptions for 121 yards, with a touchdown, interception , and fumble recovery. Randall Cunningham threw 3 touchdown passes, and Leroy Hoard scored 3 times, as the Vikings reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 1987. After a Cardinals' punt, the Vikings were set to score again, but Aeneas Williams intercepted a pass in the end zone. However, Jake Plummer threw interceptions on consecutive plays, leading to a Vikings' touchdown and a field goal. The Vikings led 17-0 before the Cardinals recorded a first down. The clubs exchanged touchdowns, with Hoard's second coming with just 24 seconds left in the half, as Minnesota took a 24-7 lead into the locker room. The Cardinals used the first 7:35 of the third quarter to drive 80 yards, capped by Mario Bates's second touchdown run. However, David Palmer's 38-yard kickoff return set up Gary Anderson's 20-yard field goal and, after Antonio Banks recovered Plummer's fumble at the Cardinals' 10, Cunningham threw a 2-yard scoring pass to Randy Moss to give Minnesota a 34-14 lead late in the third quarter. Eric Metcalf's 36-yard punt return set up Bates's third touchdown, with 11:45 left, but the Vikings went on a 12-play, 73-yard drive that consumed more than seven minutes and culminated with Hoard's third touchdown with 4:23 left. NFC CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF GAME

ATLANTA 30, MINNESOTA 27 (OT)—at Metrodome, attendance 64,060. Chris Chandler passed for 3 touchdowns, and Morten Andersen made a 38-yard field goal 11:52 into overtime to catapult the Falcons into their first Super Bowl. The Falcons drove 12 plays to score on their opening possession, but Minnesota retalitated by scoring on their first four possessions. First, Randall Cunningham capped a 5-play drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss. Fumbles by Harold Green and O.J. Santiago led to Gary Anderson's 29-yard field goal and Cunningham's 1-yard sneak. Following a punt, Anderson, who did not miss a field-goal or extra-point attempt all season, made a 35-yard field goal to give the Vikings a 20-7 lead with 2:45 left in the half. The Vikings' defense forced another punt and started at their own 18 with 1:17 left in the half. After 2 incompletions, Chuck Smith stripped Cunningham of the ball, and Travis Hall recovered. Chandler fired a 14-yard scoring strike to Terance Mathis on the next play to cut the deficit to 20-14 at halftime. Andersen's field goal cut the Vikings' lead to three points midway through the third quarter, but the Vikings used a 15-play, 82-yard drive, culminated by Cunningham's 5-yard touchdown pass to Matthew Hatchette, to take a 27-17 lead with 13:41 left. Chandler's 70-yard pass to Tony Martin set up Andersen's second field goal with 11:02 left, and Cunningham's fumble, recovered by Shane Dronett at the Vikings' 30, kept the Falcons' hopes alive. However, trailing 27-20 and faced with fourth-and-4 from the Vikings' 24 with 6:13 left, Chandler threw an incomplete pass. The Vikings held onto the ball for the next four minutes, but Anderson's 38-yard field-goal attempt failed, his first miss in 122 attempts. Chandler promptly drove the Falcons downfield, with the big play being a 29-yard pass to Ronnie Harris, and on second-and-10 from the Vikings' 16 with 57 seconds left, Chandler found Mathis just beyond the goal-line for the game-tying touchdown. After a scramble and incomplete pass, Cunningham took a knee and the game went to overtime. Minnesota won the toss, but couldn't move beyond midfield with either one of its two possessions. Following the second overtime punt, the Falcons began at the their 9, and Chandler found Santiago for 15- and 26-yard gains to move into Vikings' territory. A scramble by Chandler and a 9-yard run by Jamal Anderson set up Andersen's winning kick. Chandler was 27 of 43 for 340 yards and 3 touchdowns. Martin had 5 catches for 129 yards. Cunningham was 29 of 48 for 266 yards and 2 touchdowns. This was the first championship game to go to overtime since the 1986 AFC Championship Game.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 23, N.Y. JETS 10—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 75,482. In John Elway's final game in Denver, Terrell Davis rushed for 167 yards, and the Broncos forced 6 Jets' turnovers en route to scoring the game's final 23 points to capture their second consecutive AFC title. The game was played in a strong wind, with the wind chill dipping to 18 degrees and causing special teams problems for both sides. John Hall missed a 42-yard field goal on the game's opening drive, but the Jets kept the game scoreless by forcing Elway to throw an incomplete pass on fourth-and-goal from the Jets' 1 late in the first quarter. Tom Rouen dropped the ball while attempting to punt early in the second quarter, resulting in a 9-yard loss and giving the Jets the ball at the Broncos' 43. However, Keith Byars fumbled on the ensuing possession. Hall ended the half with a 32-yard field goal to give the Jets a 3-0 lead going into the locker room. Blake Spence blocked Rouen's punt early in the second half, and Fred Baxter recovered the ball at the Broncos' 1. Curtis Martin crashed into the end zone on the next play to give the Jets a 10-0 lead with 11:56 left in the third quarter. Elway, who had passed for just 33 yards in the first half, threw a 47-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey on the first play of the next drive, and then found Howard Griffith two plays later for a touchdown. A strong wind knocked Jason Elam's next kickoff to the ground near the Jets' 25. James Farrior momentarily recovered the bouncing ball, but he fumbled and Keith Burns's recovery gave the Broncos the ball at the Jets' 31. Elam's field goal tied the game with 8:23 left, and, after forcing a punt, Elam gave the Broncos the lead with 2:58 left in the quarter. The Broncos' defense forced another punt, and Darrien Gordon returned it 36 yards, setting up Davis's 31-yard touchdown run to give the Broncos 20 points in a span of 11:38. Gordon intercepted Vinny Testaverde twice in the final five minutes, the first of which led to Elam's final field goal. Elway was 13 of 34 for 173 yards and 1 touchdown. Testaverde was 31 of 52 for 356 yards, with 2 interceptions. Wayne Chrebet had 8 receptions for 121 yards.

SUPER BOWL XXXIII

DENVER 34, ATLANTA 19—at Pro Player Stadium, attendance 74,803. John Elway, in his last game, passed for 336 yards and ran for a touchdown to earn most valuable player honors as the Broncos became the first AFC team to win consecutive Super Bowls since the Steelers won XIII and XIV. A 25-yard pass interference penalty on Ray Crockett assisted the Falcons' 10-play, 48-yard game-opening drive that was capped by Morten Andersen's 32-yard field goal. Elway's third-down 41-yard pass to Rod Smith kept alive Denver's ensuing drive and led to Howard Griffith's 1-yard touchdown run. Ronnie Bradford's interception and return to the Broncos' 35 late in the first quarter gave Atlanta excellent field position. However, Jamal Anderson was stopped for no gain on third-and-1 and thrown for a 2-yard loss on fourth down. Denver capitalized on its defensive effort by tacking three points on the board with Jason Elam's 26-yard field goal. The Falcons responded by driving to the Broncos' 8, but Andersen's 26-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide right and on the next play, Elway fired an 80-yard touchdown pass to Smith to turn a possible 10-6 game into a 17-3 Broncos lead. Andersen's 28-yard field goal and 2 Elam misses on the Broncos' first two second-half possessions gave Atlanta an opportunity to climb back into the game. However, Darrien Gordon dashed the Falcons' hopes with interceptions on consecutive possessions inside the Broncos' 20 to stop drives and set up Broncos touchdowns. Gordon returned the first interception, on a tipped pass, 58 yards to the Falcons' 24 to set up Griffith's second touchdown five plays later, and picked the second pass off at the Broncos' 2 and returned it 50 yards. Terrell Davis turned a short pass into a 39-yard gain, and Elway scored two plays later to give Denver a 31-6 lead. Tim Dwight returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown, and, after an Elam field goal, the Falcons offense scored with 2:04 remaining on Chandler's 3-yard pass to Tony Martin. Byron Chamberlain recovered the ensuing onside kick, but, Tyrone Braxton recovered Anderson's fumble at the Falcons' 33 with 1:30 remaining to ice the game. The Falcons drove inside the Broncos' 30 seven times, but tallied just 1 touchdown and 2 field goals during the opportunities, throwing 2 interceptions, missing 1 field goal, and turning the ball over on downs the other 4 possessions. Elway was 18 of 29 for 336 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Davis had 25 carries for 102 yards. Smith had 5 receptions for 152 yards. Chandler was 19 of 35 for 219 yards and 1 touchdown, with 3 interceptions.

1999 PRO BOWL GAME

AFC 23, NFC 10—at Aloha Stadium, attendance 50,075. John Elway, appearing in uniform on a football field for possibly the final time, drove the AFC to its initial touchdown and then watched a strong defensive effort as the AFC won the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Elway capped a game-opening 61-yard drive with a touchdown pass to Sam Gash. The AFC led 10-3 late in the first half when Deion Sanders intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass at the NFC's 10 and raced downfield, only to be caught by Ed McCaffrey at the AFC 3-yard line as the half expired. The NFC drove into AFC territory early in the second half, but Ty Law thwarted the NFC's spirits with a 67-yard interception return for a touchdown to give the AFC a 17-3 lead. The NFC reached the end zone three minutes later as Emmitt Smith scored, but the AFC responded with a field goal on its ensuing possession and Jason Elam's third field goal with 1:02 remaining finished the scoring. Elway played just one drive and was 4 of 5 for 55 yards and 1 touchdown. Keyshawn Johnson had 7 catches for 87 yards and shared the player-of-the-game honors with Law. Chandler completed 9 of 25 passes for 133 yards en route to leading the NFC to its only touchdown. Randy Moss had 7 catches for 108 yards.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Professional Football Hall of Fame is located in Canton, Ohio, site of the organizational meeting on September 17, 1920, from which the National Football League evolved. The NFL recognized Canton as the Hall of Fame site on April 27, 1961. Canton area individuals, foundations, and companies donated almost $400,000 in cash and services to provide funds for the construction of the original two-building complex, which was dedicated on September 7, 1963. Since that time, the Hall added three buildings with major expansion projects in 1971, 1978, and 1995. The Hall's largest-ever expansion, a $9.2 million project, was completed in early fall 1995. With the new fifth building, the Hall's size is now 82,307-square feet, more than four times its original size.

The expanded Hall represents the sport of pro football in many ways—through (1) GameDay Stadium, a dynamic two-part turntable theater featuring NFL action in Cinemascope for the first time, (2) a standard theater showing NFL films hourly, (3) six large exhibition areas where the history of pro football is detailed in memento, picture, and story form, (4) an extensive library and research center, and (5) a new and enlarged museum store.

In recent years, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has become an extremely popular tourist attraction. At the end of 1998, a total of 6,507,923 fans had visited the Hall of Fame.

New members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame are elected annually by a 36-member National Board of Selectors, made up of media representatives from every league city, five at-large representatives, and a representative of the Pro Football Writers of America. Between four and seven new members are elected each year. An affirmative vote of approximately 80 percent is needed for election.

Any fan may nominate any eligible player or contributor simply by writing to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Players must be retired five years to be eligible, while a coach need only to be retired with no time limit specified. Contributors (administrators, owners, et al.) may be elected while they are still active.

The charter class of 17 enshrinees was elected in 1963 and the honor roll now stands at 199 with the election of a five-man class in 1999. That class consists of Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack, Ozzie Newsome, Billy Shaw, and Lawrence Taylor.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1869
Rutgers and Princeton played a college soccer football game, the first ever, November 6. The game used modified London Football Association rules. During the next seven years, rugby gained favor with the major eastern schools over soccer, and modern football began to develop from rugby.

1876
At the Massasoit convention, the first rules for American football were written. Walter Camp, who would become known as the father of American football, first became involved with the game.

1892
In an era in which football was a major attraction of local athletic clubs, an intense competition between two Pittsburgh-area clubs, the Allegheny Athletic Association (AAA) and the Pittsburgh Athletic Club (PAC), led to the making of the first professional football player. Former Yale All-America guard William (Pudge) Heffelfinger was paid $500 by the AAA to play in a game against the PAC, becoming the first person to be paid to play football, November 12. The AAA won the game 4-0 when Heffelfinger picked up a PAC fumble and ran 25 yards for a touchdown.

1893
The Pittsburgh Athletic Club signed one of its players, probably halfback Grant Dibert, to the first known pro football contract, which covered all of the PAC's games for the year.

1895
John Brallier became the first football player to openly turn pro, accepting $10 and expenses to play for the Latrobe YMCA against the Jeannette Athletic Club.

1896
The Allegheny Athletic Association team fielded the first completely professional team for its abbreviated two-game season.

1897
The Latrobe Athletic Association football team went entirely professional, becoming the first team to play a full season with only professionals.

1898
A touchdown was changed from four points to five.

1899
Chris O'Brien formed a neighborhood team, which played under the name the Morgan Athletic Club, on the south side of Chicago. The team later became known as the Normals, then the Racine (for a street in Chicago) Cardinals, the Chicago Cardinals, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Phoenix Cardinals, and, in 1994, the Arizona Cardinals. The team remains the oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1900
William C. Temple took over the team payments for the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, becoming the first known individual club owner.

1902
Baseball's Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and the Philadelphia Phillies formed professional football teams, joining the Pittsburgh Stars in the first attempt at a pro football league, named the National Football League. The Athletics won the first night football game ever played, 39-0 over Kanaweola AC at Elmira, New York, November 21.

All three teams claimed the pro championship for the year, but the league president, Dave Berry, named the Stars the champions. Pitcher Rube Waddell was with the Athletics, and pitcher Christy Mathewson a fullback for Pittsburgh.

The first World Series of pro football, actually a five-team tournament, was played among a team made up of players from both the Athletics and the Phillies, but simply named New York; the New York Knickerbockers; the Syracuse AC; the Warlow AC; and the Orange (New Jersey) AC at New York's original Madison Square Garden. New York and Syracuse played the first indoor football game before 3,000, December 28. Syracuse, with Glen (Pop) Warner at guard, won 6-0 and went on to win the tournament.

The Franklin (Pa.) Athletic Club won the second and last World Series of pro football over the Oreos AC of Asbury Park, New Jersey; the Watertown Red and Blacks; and the Orange AC.

Pro football was popularized in Ohio when the Massillon Tigers, a strong amateur team, hired four Pittsburgh pros to play in the season-ending game against Akron. At the same time, pro football declined in the Pittsburgh area, and the emphasis on the pro game moved west from Pennsylvania to Ohio.

A field goal was changed from five points to four.

Ohio had at least seven pro teams, with Massillon winning the Ohio Independent Championship, that is, the pro title. Talk surfaced about forming a state-wide league to end spiraling salaries brought about by constant bidding for players and to write universal rules for the game. The feeble attempt to start the league failed.

Halfback Charles Follis signed a contract with the Shelby (Ohio) AC, making him the first known black pro football player.

1905
The Canton AC, later to become known as the Bulldogs, became a professional team. Massillon again won the Ohio League championship.

1906
The forward pass was legalized. The first authenticated pass completion in a pro game came on October 27, when George (Peggy) Parratt of Massillon threw a completion to Dan (Bullet) Riley in a victory over a combined Benwood-Moundsville team.

Arch-rivals Canton and Massillon, the two best pro teams in America, played twice, with Canton winning the first game but Massillon winning the second and the Ohio League championship. A betting scandal and the financial disaster wrought upon the two clubs by paying huge salaries caused a temporary decline in interest in pro football in the two cities and, somewhat, throughout Ohio.

1909
A field goal dropped from four points to three.

1912
A touchdown was increased from five points to six.

Jack Cusack revived a strong pro team in Canton.

1913
Jim Thorpe, a former football and track star at the Carlisle Indian School (Pa.) and a double gold medal winner at the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm, played for the Pine Village Pros in Indiana.

1915
Massillon again fielded a major team, reviving the old rivalry with Canton. Cusack signed Thorpe to play for Canton for $250 a game.

1916
With Thorpe and former Carlisle teammate Pete Calac starring, Canton went 9-0-1, won the Ohio League championship, and was acclaimed the pro football champion.

1917
Despite an upset by Massillon, Canton again won the Ohio League championship.

1919
Canton again won the Ohio League championship, despite the team having been turned over from Cusack to Ralph Hay. Thorpe and Calac were joined in the backfield by Joe Guyon.

Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun organized the Green Bay Packers. Lambeau's employer at the Indian Packing Company provided $500 for equipment and allowed the team to use the company field for practices. The Packers went 10-1.

Pro football was in a state of confusion due to three major problems: dramatically rising salaries; players continually jumping from one team to another following the highest offer; and the use of college players still enrolled in school. A league in which all the members would follow the same rules seemed the answer. An organizational meeting, at which the Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, and Dayton Triangles were represented, was held at the Jordan and Hupmobile auto showroom in Canton, Ohio, August 20. This meeting resulted in the formation of the American Professional Football Conference.

A second organizational meeting was held in Canton, September 17. The teams were from four states—Akron, Canton, Cleveland, and Dayton from Ohio; the Hammond Pros and Muncie Flyers from Indiana; the Rochester Jeffersons from New York; and the Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, and Racine Cardinals from Illinois. The name of the league was changed to the American Professional Football Association. Hoping to capitalize on his fame, the members elected Thorpe president; Stanley Cofall of Cleveland was elected vice president. A membership fee of $100 per team was charged to give an appearance of respectability, but no team ever paid it. Scheduling was left up to the teams, and there were wide variations, both in the overall number of games played and in the number played against APFA member teams.

Four other teams—the Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, and Detroit Heralds—joined the league sometime during the year. On September 26, the first game featuring an APFA team was played at Rock Island's Douglas Park. A crowd of 800 watched the Independents defeat the St. Paul Ideals 48-0. A week later, October 3, the first game matching two APFA teams was held. At Triangle Park, Dayton defeated Columbus 14-0, with Lou Partlow of Dayton scoring the first touchdown in a game between Association teams. The same day, Rock Island defeated Muncie 45-0.

By the beginning of December, most of the teams in the APFA had abandoned their hopes for a championship, and some of them, including the Chicago Tigers and the Detroit Heralds, had finished their seasons, disbanded, and had their franchises canceled by the Association. Four teams—Akron, Buffalo, Canton, and Decatur—still had championship aspirations, but a series of late-season games among them left Akron as the only undefeated team in the Association. At one of these games, Akron sold tackle Bob Nash to Buffalo for $300 and five percent of the gate receipts—the first APFA player deal.

At the league meeting in Akron, April 30, the championship of the 1920 season was awarded to the Akron Pros. The APFA was reorganized, with Joe Carr of the Columbus Panhandles named president and Carl Storck of Dayton secretary-treasurer. Carr moved the Association's headquarters to Columbus, drafted a league constitution and by-laws, gave teams territorial rights, restricted player movements, developed membership criteria for the franchises, and issued standings for the first time, so that the APFA would have a clear champion.

The Association's membership increased to 22 teams, including the Green Bay Packers, who were awarded to John Clair of the Acme Packing Company.

Thorpe moved from Canton to the Cleveland Indians, but he was hurt early in the season and played very little.

A.E. Staley turned the Decatur Staleys over to player-coach George Halas, who moved the team to Cubs Park in Chicago. Staley paid Halas

$5,000 to keep the name Staleys for one more year. Halas made halfback Ed (Dutch) Sternaman his partner.

Player-coach Fritz Pollard of the Akron Pros became the first black head coach.

The Staleys claimed the APFA championship with a 9-1-1 record, as did Buffalo at 9-1-2. Carr ruled in favor of the Staleys, giving Halas his first championship.

1922

After admitting the use of players who had college eligibility remaining during the 1921 season, Clair and the Green Bay management withdrew from the APFA, January 28. Curly Lambeau promised to obey league rules and then used $50 of his own money to buy back the franchise. Bad weather and low attendance plagued the Packers, and Lambeau went broke, but local merchants arranged a $2,500 loan for the club. A public nonprofit corporation was set up to operate the team, with Lambeau as head coach and manager.

The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National Football League, June 24. The Chicago Staleys became the Chicago Bears.

The NFL fielded 18 teams, including the new Oorang Indians of Marion, Ohio, an all-Indian team featuring Thorpe, Joe Guyon, and Pete Calac, and sponsored by the Oorang dog kennels.

Canton, led by player-coach Guy Chamberlin and tackles Link Lyman and Wilbur (Pete) Henry, emerged as the league's first true powerhouse, going 10-0-2.

1923

For the first time, all of the franchises considered to be part of the NFL fielded teams. Thorpe played first for Oorang, then for the Toledo Maroons. Against the Bears, Thorpe fumbled, and Halas picked up the ball and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown, a record that would last until 1972.

Canton had its second consecutive undefeated season, going 11-0-1 for the NFL title.

1924

The league had 18 franchises, including new ones in Kansas City, Kenosha, and Frankford, a section of Philadelphia. League champion Canton, successful on the field but not at the box office, was purchased by the owner of the Cleveland franchise, who kept the Canton franchise inactive, while using the best players for his Cleveland team, which he renamed the Bulldogs. Cleveland won the title with a 7-1-1 record.

Five new franchises were admitted to the NFL—the New York Giants, who were awarded to Tim Mara and Billy Gibson for $500; the Detroit Panthers, featuring Jimmy Conzelman as owner, coach, and tailback; the Providence Steam Roller; a new Canton Bulldogs team; and the Pottsville Maroons, who had been perhaps the most successful independent pro team. The NFL established its first player limit, at 16 players.

Late in the season, the NFL made its greatest coup in gaining national recognition. Shortly after the University of Illinois season ended in November, All-America halfback Harold (Red) Grange signed a contract to play with the Chicago Bears. On Thanksgiving Day, a crowd of 36,000—the largest in pro football history—watched Grange and the Bears play the Chicago Cardinals to a scoreless tie at Wrigley Field. At the beginning of December, the Bears left on a barnstorming tour that saw them play eight games in 12 days, in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York City, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Chicago. A crowd of 73,000 watched the game against the Giants at the Polo Grounds, helping assure the future of the troubled NFL franchise in New York. The Bears then played nine more games in the South and West, including a game in Los Angeles, in which 75,000 fans watched them defeat the Los Angeles Tigers in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Pottsville and the Chicago Cardinals were the top contenders for the league title, with Pottsville winning a late-season meeting 21-7. Pottsville scheduled a game against a team of former Notre Dame players for Shibe Park in Philadelphia. Frankford lodged a protest not only because the game was in Frankford's protected territory, but because it was being played the same day as a Yellow Jackets home game. Carr gave three different notices forbidding Pottsville to play the game, but Pottsville played anyway, December 12. That day, Carr fined the club, suspended it from all rights and privileges (including the right to play for the NFL championship), and returned its franchise to the league. The Cardinals, who ended the season with the best record in the league, were named the 1925 champions.

Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, told the Bears that Grange wouldn't play for them unless he was paid a five-figure salary and given one-third ownership of the team. The Bears refused. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, then petitioned for an NFL franchise. After he was refused, he started the first American Football League. It lasted one season and included Grange's New York Yankees and eight other teams. The AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played a December game against the New York Giants, seventh in the NFL, and the Giants won 31-0. At the end of the season, the AFL folded.

Halas pushed through a rule that prohibited any team from signing a player whose college class had not graduated.

The NFL grew to 22 teams, including the Duluth Eskimos, who signed All-America fullback Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving the league a gate attraction to rival Grange. The 15-member Eskimos, dubbed the Iron Men of the North, played 29 exhibition and league games, 28 on the road, and Nevers played in all but 29 minutes of them.

Frankford edged the Bears for the championship, despite Halas having obtained John (Paddy) Driscoll from the Cardinals. On December 4, the Yellow Jackets scored in the final two minutes to defeat the Bears 7-6 and move ahead of them in the standings.

1927

At a special meeting in Cleveland, April 23, Carr decided to secure the NFL's future by eliminating the financially weaker teams and consolidating the quality players onto a limited number of more successful teams. The new-look NFL dropped to 12 teams, and the center of gravity of the league left the Midwest, where the NFL had started, and began to emerge in the large cities of the East. One of the new teams was Grange's New York Yankees, but Grange suffered a knee injury and the Yankees finished in the middle of the pack. The NFL championship was won by the cross-town rival New York Giants, who posted 10 shutouts in 13 games.

1928

Grange and Nevers both retired from pro football, and Duluth disbanded, as the NFL was reduced to only 10 teams. The Providence Steam Roller of Jimmy Conzelman and Pearce Johnson won the championship, playing in the Cycledrome, a 10,000-seat oval that had been built for bicycle races.

1929

Chris O'Brien sold the Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27.

The NFL added a fourth official, the field judge, July 28.

Grange and Nevers returned to the NFL. Nevers scored six rushing touchdowns and four extra points as the Cardinals beat Grange's Bears 40-6, November 28. The 40 points set a record that remains the NFL's oldest.

Providence became the first NFL team to host a game at night under floodlights, against the Cardinals, November 3.

The Packers added back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, and guard Mike Michalske, and won their first NFL championship, edging the Giants, who featured quarterback Benny Friedman.

Dayton, the last of the NFL's original franchises, was purchased by William B. Dwyer and John C. Depler, moved to Brooklyn, and renamed the Dodgers. The Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans entered the league.

The Packers edged the Giants for the title, but the most improved team was the Bears. Halas retired as a player and replaced himself as coach of the Bears with Ralph Jones, who refined the T-formation by introducing wide ends and a halfback in motion. Jones also introduced rookie All-America fullback-tackle Bronko Nagurski.

The Giants defeated a team of former Notre Dame players coached by Knute Rockne 22-0 before 55,000 at the Polo Grounds, December 14. The proceeds went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering because of the Great Depression, and the easy victory helped give the NFL credibility with the press and the public.

1931

The NFL decreased to 10 teams, and halfway through the season the Frankford franchise folded. Carr fined the Bears, Packers, and Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated.

The Packers won an unprecedented third consecutive title, beating out the Spartans, who were led by rookie backs Earl (Dutch) Clark and Glenn Presnell.

George Preston Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, and M. Dorland Doyle were awarded a franchise for Boston, July 9. Despite the presence of two rookies—halfback Cliff Battles and tackle Glen (Turk) Edwards—the new team, named the Braves, lost money and Marshall was left as the sole owner at the end of the year.

NFL membership dropped to eight teams, the lowest in history. Official statistics were kept for the first time. The Bears and the Spartans finished the season in the first-ever tie for first place. After the season finale, the league office arranged for an additional regular-season game to determine the league champion. The game was moved indoors to Chicago Stad-ium because of bitter cold and heavy snow. The arena allowed only an 80-yard field that came right to the walls. The goal posts were moved from the end lines to the goal lines and, for safety, inbounds lines or hashmarks where the ball would be put in play were drawn 10 yards from the walls that butted against the sidelines. The Bears won 9-0, December 18, scoring the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass from Nagurski to Grange. The Spartans claimed Nagurski's pass was thrown from less than five yards behind the line of scrimmage, violating the existing passing rule, but the play stood.

The NFL, which long had followed the rules of college football, made a number of significant changes from the college game for the first time and began to develop rules serving its needs and the style of play it preferred. The innovations from the 1932 championship game—inbounds line or hashmarks and goal posts on the goal lines—were adopted. Also the forward pass was legalized from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, February 25.

Marshall and Halas pushed through a proposal that divided the NFL into two divisions, with the winners to meet in an annual championship game, July 8.

Three new franchises joined the league—the Pittsburgh Pirates of Art Rooney, the Philadelphia Eagles of Bert Bell and Lud Wray, and the Cincinnati Reds. The Staten Island Stapletons suspended operations for a year, but never returned to the league.

Halas bought out Sternaman, became sole owner of the Bears, and reinstated himself as head coach. Marshall changed the name of the Boston Braves to the Redskins. David Jones sold the Chicago Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill.

In the first NFL Championship Game scheduled before the season, the Western Division champion Bears defeated the Eastern Division champion Giants 23-21 at Wrigley Field, December 17.

1934

G.A. (Dick) Richards purchased the Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, and renamed them the Lions.

Professional football gained new prestige when the Bears were matched against the best college football players in the first Chicago College All-Star Game, August 31. The game ended in a scoreless tie before 79,432 at Soldier Field.

The Cincinnati Reds lost their first eight games, then were suspended from the league for defaulting on payments. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks.

Rookie Beattie Feathers of the Bears became the NFL's first 1,000-yard rusher, gaining 1,004 on 101 carries. The Thanksgiving Day game between the Bears and the Lions became the first NFL game broadcast nationally, with Graham McNamee the announcer for NBC radio.

In the championship game, on an extremely cold and icy day at the Polo Grounds, the Giants trailed the Bears 13-3 in the third quarter before changing to basketball shoes for better footing. The Giants won 30-13 in what has come to be known as the Sneakers Game, December 9.

The player waiver rule was adopted, December 10.

1935

The NFL adopted Bert Bell's proposal to hold an annual draft of college players, to begin in 1936, with teams selecting in an inverse order of finish, May 19. The inbounds line or hashmarks were moved nearer the center of the field, 15 yards from the sidelines.

All-America end Don Hutson of Alabama joined Green Bay. The Lions defeated the Giants 26-7 in the NFL Championship Game, December 15.

1936

There were no franchise transactions for the first year since the formation of the NFL. It also was the first year in which all member teams played the same number of games.

The Eagles made University of Chicago halfback and Heisman Trophy winner Jay Berwanger the first player ever selected in the NFL draft, February 8. The Eagles traded his rights to the Bears, but Berwanger never played pro football. The first player selected to actually sign was the number-two pick, Riley Smith of Alabama, who was selected by Boston.

A rival league was formed, and it became the second to call itself the American Football League. The Boston Shamrocks were its champions.

Because of poor attendance, Marshall, the owner of the host team, moved the Championship Game from Boston to the Polo Grounds in New York. Green Bay defeated the Redskins 21-6, December 13.

1937

The Los Angeles Bulldogs had an 8-0 record to win the AFL title, but then the 2-year-old league folded.

Halas's Bears, with additional coaching by Clark Shaughnessy of Stanford, defeated the Redskins 73-0 in the NFL Championship Game, December 8. The game, which was the most decisive victory in NFL history, popularized the Bears' T-formation with a man-in-motion. It was the first championship carried on network radio, broadcast by Red Barber to 120 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which paid $2,500 for the rights.

Art Rooney sold the Pittsburgh franchise to Alexis Thompson, December 9, then bought part interest in the Philadelphia Eagles.

SUPER BOWL XXXIII

Pro Player Stadium, Miami, Florida
January 31, 1999, Attendance: 74,803

DENVER 34, ATLANTA 19—John Elway, in his last game, passed for 336 yards and ran for a touchdown to earn most valuable player honors as the Broncos became the first AFC team to win consecutive Super Bowls since the Steelers won XIII and XIV. A 25-yard pass interference penalty on Ray Crockett assisted the Falcons' nine-play, 48-yard game-opening drive that was capped by Morten Andersen's 32-yard field goal. Elway's 41-yard pass to Rod Smith kept alive Denver's ensuing drive and led to Howard Griffith's 1-yard touchdown run. Ronnie Bradford's interception and return to the Broncos' 35 late in the first quarter gave Atlanta excellent field position. However, Jamal Anderson was stopped for no gain on third-and-1 and thrown for a 2-yard loss on fourth down. Denver capitalized on its defensive effort with Jason Elam's 26-yard field goal. The Falcons responded by driving to the Broncos' 8, but Andersen's 26-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide right and on the next play, Elway fired an 80-yard touchdown pass to Smith to turn a possible 10-6 game into a 17-3 Broncos lead. Andersen's 28-yard field goal and 2 misses by Elam on the Broncos' first two second-half possessions gave Atlanta an opportunity to climb back into the game. However, Darrien Gordon dashed the Falcons' hopes with interceptions on consecutive possessions inside the Broncos' 20 to stop drives and set up Broncos touchdowns. Gordon returned the first interception, on a tipped pass, 58 yards to the Falcons' 24 to set up Griffith's second touchdown five plays later, and picked the second pass off at the Broncos' 2 and returned it 50 yards. Terrell Davis turned a short pass into a 39-yard gain, and Elway scored two plays later to give Denver a 31-6 lead. Tim Dwight returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown, and, after a field goal by Elam, the Falcons' offense scored with 2:04 remaining on Chandler's 3-yard pass to Tony Martin. Byron Chamberlain recovered the ensuing onside kick, but Tyrone Braxton recovered Anderson's fumble at the Falcons' 33 with 1:30 remaining to ice the game. The Falcons drove inside the Broncos' 30 seven times, but tallied just 1 touchdown and 2 field goals, throwing 2 interceptions, missing 1 field goal, and turning the ball over 1 time on downs during the other possessions. Elway was 18 of 29 for 336 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Davis had 25 carries for 102 yards. Smith had 5 receptions for 152 yards. Chandler was 19 of 35 for 219 yards and 1 touchdown, with 3 interceptions.

SUPER BOWL XXXII

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, California
January 25, 1998, Attendance: 68,912

DENVER 31, GREEN BAY 24—Terrell Davis rushed for 157 yards and a Super Bowl-record 3 touchdowns to lead the Broncos to their first NFL championship and break the NFC's streak of Super Bowl victories at 13. The defending Super Bowl champion Packers took the opening kickoff and marched 76 yards in just over four minutes, scoring the first points on Brett Favre's 22-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Freeman. The Broncos responded with a 10-play, 58-yard drive capped by Davis's 1-yard run to tie the game. Tyrone Braxton intercepted Favre two plays later, and John Elway scored on a third-and-goal play to begin the second quarter. Steve Atwater forced Favre to fumble three plays later, and Neil Smith recovered at the Packers' 33. Jason Elam converted a 51-yard field goal, the second longest in Super Bowl history, to give the Broncos a 17-7 lead with 12:21 left in the half. After an exchange of punts, the Packers produced a 17-play, 95-yard drive that consumed 7:26 and finished with Favre's 6-yard touchdown pass to Mark Chmura on third-and-5 with 12 seconds left in the half. Tyrone Williams forced and recovered Davis's fumble at the Broncos' 26 on the first play from scrimmage in the second half. However, the Broncos' defense kept the Packers out of the end zone as Ryan Longwell's 27-yard field goal tied the game with 11:59 left in the third quarter. After another exchange of punts, Elway's 36-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey keyed a 13-play, 92-yard drive capped by Davis's 1-yard touchdown run with 34 seconds left in the third quarter. Tim McKyer recovered Freeman's fumble at the Packers' 22 on the ensuing kickoff return, giving the Broncos a golden opportunity, but Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway's pass in the end zone on the next play. Sparked by Robinson's play, the Packers took just four plays, three on passes to Freeman, to score the tying touchdown with 13:32 remaining. Each defense stiffened, forcing two punts, but the Broncos got great field position following Craig Hentrich's 39-yard punt to the Packers' 49 with 3:27 left and the score tied 24-24. Davis rushed for 2 yards on the first play, but Darrius Holland's 15-yard facemask penalty moved the ball to the Packers' 32. Elway threw a 23-yard pass to Howard Griffith two plays later, and after a holding penalty, Davis rushed 17 yards to the Packers' 1 with 1:47 left. After a timeout, Davis waltzed into the end zone to give Denver a 31-24 lead with 1:45 remaining. Freeman returned the kickoff 22 yards to the Broncos' 30, and Favre completed 22- and 13-yard screen passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 35 with 1:04 left. But after a 4-yard pass to Levens and incompletions to Freeman and Brooks, John Mobley knocked away Favre's pass to Chmura with 32 seconds left to give the Broncos the Vince Lombardi Trophy. Elway was 12 of 22 for 123 yards, with 1 interception. Favre was 25 of 42 for 256 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Freeman had 9 receptions for 126 yards. Davis was named the game's most valuable player.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, Louisiana
January 26, 1997, Attendance: 72,301

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21— Desmond Howard returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown and Brett Favre passed for 2 touchdowns and ran for a score as the Packers won their first Super Bowl in twenty-nine years. Howard, en route to garnering the MVP trophy, equaled a Super Bowl record with 244 total return yards. It was Favre's arm that struck first, as he hit Andre Rison for a 54-yard touchdown pass on the Packers' second play from scrimmage to take a 7-0 lead. Two plays later Doug Evans made a diving interception of Drew Bledsoe's pass at the 28-yard line, setting up Chris Jacke's field goal and giving the Packers a 10-0 lead just 6:18 into the Super Bowl. The Patriots answered with touchdowns on their next two possessions. Craig Newsome's pass interference penalty set up the first touchdown and a 44-yard completion from Bledsoe to Terry Glenn preceeding Ben Coates's touchdown gave New England its first and only lead. The 24 combined first quarter points were the most in Super Bowl history. Green Bay struck again 56 seconds into the second quarter as Favre hit Antonio Freeman with a Super Bowl-record 81-yard touchdown bomb. Jacke booted his second field goal on Green Bay's next possession. After a Mike Prior interception, Favre orchestrated a 74-yard, nearly 6-minute drive that concluded with a diving Favre touching the ball against the pylon to give Green Bay a 27-14 halftime lead. Curtis Martin brought the Patriots to within a score by running in from 18 yards out with 3:27 left in the third quarter. But Howard broke the Patriots' spirit by returning the ensuing kickoff a Super Bowl-record 99 yards. Favre found Mark Chmura for the 2-point conversion to finish the scoring. Bledsoe was intercepted twice in the fourth quarter as the Patriots never crossed midfield in 4 fourth-quarter possessions. Reggie White set a Super Bowl record with 3 sacks. Favre completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards, with no interceptions. Bledsoe completed 11 more passes than Favre, but for just 7 more yards, and threw 4 interceptions.

DALLAS 27, PITTSBURGH 17—Cornerback Larry Brown's 2 interceptions led to 14 second-half points and helped lift the Cowboys to their third Super Bowl victory in the last four seasons and their record-tying fifth title overall. Brown's interceptions foiled the comeback efforts of the Steelers, and earned him the Pete Rozelle Trophy as the game's most valuable player. Dallas scored on each of its first three possessions, taking a 13-0 lead on Troy Aikman's 3-yard touchdown pass to Jay Novacek and a pair of field goals by Chris Boniol. Neil O'Donnell's 6-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen 13 seconds before halftime pulled Pittsburgh within 6 points, and the Steelers had the ball near midfield midway through the third quarter. But O'Donnell's third-down pass was intercepted by Brown at the Cowboys' 38-yard line, and his 44-yard return carried to Pittsburgh's 18. After Aikman's 17-yard completion to Michael Irvin, Emmitt Smith ran 1 yard for the touchdown that put Dallas ahead again by 13 points. The Steelers rallied, though, behind Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, a successful surprise onside kick, and Byron (Bam) Morris's 1-yard touchdown run with 6:36 to play in the game. And when they forced a punt and took possession at their own 32-yard line trailing only 20-17 with 4:15 remaining, it appeared they might have a chance to break the NFC's recent domination in the Super Bowl. But on second down, Brown struck again, intercepting O'Donnell's pass at the 39 and returning it 33 yards to the 6. Two plays later, Smith barreled over from 4 yards out for the clinching touchdown with 3:43 to go. Pittsburgh limited the Cowboys' powerful running game to only 56 yards and enjoyed a whopping 201-61 advantage in total yards in the second half, but could not overcome the 3 interceptions (another came on the game's final play) thrown by O'Donnell, the NFL's career leader for fewest interceptions per pass attempt. In all, O'Donnell completed 28 of 49 passes for 239 yards. Morris rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 19 carries. For Dallas, Aikman completed 15 of 23 pass attempts for 209 yards. The Cowboys' victory was the twelfth in a row for NFC teams over AFC teams in the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XXIX

SAN FRANCISCO 49, SAN DIEGO 26—Steve Young passed for a record 6 touchdowns, and the 49ers became the first team to win five Super Bowls when they routed the Chargers. Young, the game's most valuable player, directed an explosive offense that generated 7 touchdowns, 28 first downs, and 455 total yards. He completed 24 of 36 passes for 325 yards, and broke the record of 5 touchdown passes set by fromer 49ers quarterback Joe Montana in Super Bowl XXiV. San Francisco wasted little time scoring, taking the lead for good on Young's 44-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Rice only three plays and 1:24 into the game. The next time they had the ball, the 49ers marched 79 yards in four plays, taking a 14-0 lead when Young teamed with running back Ricky Watters on a 51-yard touchdown pass with 10:05 still to play in the opening period. San Diego then put together its most impressive possession of the game, a 13-play, 78-yard drive that consumed more than 7 minutes and was capped by Natrone Means's 1-yard touchdown run, to cut its deficit to 14-7 late in the quarter. But San Francisco countered with a 70-yard drive of its own, and Young's 5-yard touchdown pass to fullback William Floyd made it 21-7. Young's fourth touchdown pass of the half, 8 yards to Watters 4:44 before halftime, increased the advantage to 28-7, and the Chargers could get no closer than 18 points after that. Watters, who ran 9 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, equaled the Super Bowl record with 3 touchdowns. Rice also scored 3 touchdowns (the second time in his career he'd done that in a Super Bowl) while catching 10 passes for 149 yards. He established career records for receptions, yards, and touchdowns in a Super Bowl. Young, who scrambled 21 yards and 15 yards to set up touchdowns in the first half, was the game's leading rusher with 49 yards on 5 carries. San Diego's Means, who rushed for 1,350 yards during the regular season, was limited to 33 yards on 13 attempts. Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries completed 24 of 49 passes for 275 yards. Rookie Andre Coleman became only the third player in Super Bowl history to return a kickoff for a touchdown, going 98 yards in the third quarter. The 75 points scored by the two teams established another record, breaking the previous mark of 69 set in Dallas's 52-17 victory over Buffalo in XXVII. The 49ers' victory was the eleventh straight for NFC teams over AFC teams in the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XXVIII

Georgia Dome, Atlanta, Georgia
January 30, 1994, Attendance: 72,817

DALLAS 30, BUFFALO 13—Emmitt Smith rushed for 132 yards and 2 second-half touchdowns to power the Cowboys to their second consecutive NFL title. By winning, Dallas joined San Francisco and Pittsburgh as the only franchises with four Super Bowl victories. The Bills, meanwhile, extended a dubious string by losing in the Super Bowl for the fourth consecutive year. To win, the Cowboys had to rally from a 13-6 halftime deficit. Buffalo had forged its lead on Thurman Thomas's 4-yard touchdown run and a pair of field goals by Steve Christie, including a 54-yard kick, the longest in Super Bowl history. But just 55 seconds into the second half, Thomas was stripped of the ball by Dallas defensive tackle Leon Lett. Safety James Washington recovered and weaved his way 46 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 13-13. After forcing the Bills to punt, the Cowboys began their next possession on their 36-yard line and Smith, the game's most valuable player, took over. He carried 7 times for 61 yards on the ensuing 8-play, 64-yard drive, capping the march with a 15-yard touchdown run to give Dallas the lead for good with 8:42 remaining in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, Washington intercepted Jim Kelly's pass and returned it 12 yards to Buffalo's 34. A penalty moved the ball back to the 39, but Smith carried twice for 10 yards and caught a screen pass for 9, and quarterback Troy Aikman completed a 16-yard pass to Alvin Harper to give the Cowboys a first-and-goal at the 6. Smith took it from there, cracking the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the 1 to put Dallas ahead 27-13 with 9:50 remaining. Eddie Murray's third field goal, from 20 yards with 2:50 left, ended any doubt about the game's outcome. Smith had 30 carries in all, with 19 of his attempts and 92 yards coming after intermission. Washington, normally a reserve who played most of the game because the Cowboys used five defensive backs to combat the Bills' No-Huddle offense, had 11 tackles and forced another fumble by Thomas in the first quarter. Aikman completed 19 of 27 passes for 207 yards. Buffalo's Kelly completed a Super Bowl-record 31 passes in 50 attempts for 260 yards. Dallas, the first team in NFL history to begin the regular season 0-2 and go on to win the Super Bowl, also became the fifth to win back-to-back titles, following Green Bay, Miami, Pittsburgh (the Steelers did it twice), and San Francisco. Buffalo became the third team, along with Minnesota and Denver, to lose four Super Bowls. The Cowboys' victory was the tenth in succession for the NFC over the AFC.

DALLAS 52, BUFFALO 17—Troy Aikman passed for 4 touchdowns, Emmitt Smith rushed for 108 yards, and the Cowboys converted 9 turnovers into 35 points while coasting to the victory. Dallas's win was its third in its record sixth Super Bowl appearance; the Bills became the first team to drop three in succession. Buffalo led 7-0 until the first 2 of its record number of turnovers helped the Cowboys take the lead for good late in the opening quarter. First, Dallas safety James Washington intercepted Jim Kelly's pass and returned it 13 yards to the Bills' 47, setting up Aikman's 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jay Novacek with 1:36 remaining in the period. On the next play from scrimmage, Kelly was sacked by Charles Haley and fumbled at the Bills' 2-yard line where the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones picked up the loose ball and ran 2 yards for a touchdown. Dallas, which recovered 5 fumbles and intercepted 4 passes, struck just as quickly late in the first half, when Aikman tossed 19- and 18-yard touchdown passes to Michael Irvin 18 seconds apart to give the Cowboys a 28-10 lead at intermission. The second score was set up when Bills running back Thurman Thomas lost a fumble at his 19-yard line. Buffalo scored for the last time when backup quarterback Frank Reich, playing because Kelly was injured while attempting to pass midway through the second quarter, threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Don Beebe on the final play of the third period to trim the deficit to 31-17. But Dallas put the game out of reach by scoring three times in a span of 2:33 of the fourth quarter. Aikman, the game's most valuable player, completed 22 of 30 passes for 273 yards. The victory was the ninth in succession for the NFC over the AFC.

NEW YORK GIANTS 20, BUFFALO 19—The NFC champion New York Giants won their second Super Bowl in five years with a 20-19 victory over AFC titlist Buffalo. New York, employing its ball-control offense, had possession for 40 minutes, 33 seconds, a Super Bowl record. The Bills, who scored 95 points in their previous two playoff games leading to Super Bowl XXV, had the ball for less than eight minutes in the second half and just 19:27 for the game. Fourteen of New York's 73 plays came on its initial drive of the third quarter, which covered 75 yards and consumed a Super Bowl-record 9:29 before running back Ottis Anderson ran 1 yard for a touchdown. Giants quarterback Jeff Hostetler kept the long drive going by converting three third-down plays—an 11-yard pass to running back David Meggett on third-and-eight, a 14-yard toss to wide receiver Mark Ingram on third-and-13, and a 9-yard pass to Howard Cross on third-and-four—to give New York a 17-12 lead in the third quarter. Buffalo jumped to a 12-3 lead midway through the second quarter before Hostetler completed a 14-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Stephen Baker to close the score to 12-10 at halftime. Buffalo's Thurman Thomas ran 31 yards for a touchdown on the opening play of the fourth quarter to help Buffalo recapture the lead 19-17. Matt Bahr's 21-yard field goal gave the Giants a 20-19 lead, but Buffalo's Scott Norwood had a chance to win the game with seconds remaining before his 47-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide right. Hostetler completed 20 of 32 passes for 222 yards and 1 touchdown. Anderson rushed 21 times for 102 yards and 1 touchdown to capture most-valuable-player honors. Thomas totaled 190 scrimmage yards, rushing 15 times for 135 yards and catching 5 passes for 55 yards.

WASHINGTON 42, DENVER 10—NFC champion Washington won Super Bowl XXII and its second NFL championship of the 1980s with a 42-10 decision over AFC champion Denver. The Redskins, who also won Super Bowl XVII, enjoyed a record-setting second quarter en route to the victory. The Broncos broke in front 10-0 when quarterback John Elway threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Ricky Nattiel on the Broncos' first play from scrimmage. Following a Washington punt, Denver's Rich Karlis kicked a 24-yard field goal to cap a seven-play, 61-yard scoring drive. The Redskins then erupted for 35 points on five straight possessions in the second period and coasted thereafter. The 35 points established an NFL postseason mark for most points in a period. Redskins quarterback Doug Williams led the second-period explosion by passing for a Super Bowl record-tying 4 touchdowns, including 80- and 50-yard passes to wide receiver Ricky Sanders, a 27-yard toss to wide receiver Gary Clark, and an 8-yard pass to tight end Clint Didier. Washington scored 5 touchdowns in 18 plays with total time of possession of only 5:47. Overall, Williams completed 18 of 29 passes for 340 yards and was named the game's most valuable player. His pass-yardage total eclipsed the Super Bowl record of 331 yards by Joe Montana of San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX. Sanders ended with 193 yards on 8 catches, breaking the previous Super Bowl yardage record of 161 yards by Lynn Swann of Pittsburgh in Game X. Rookie running back Timmy Smith was the game's leading rusher with 22 carries for a Super Bowl-record 204 yards, breaking the previous mark of 191 yards by Marcus Allen of the Raiders in Game XVIII. Smith also scored twice on runs of 58 and 4 yards. Washington's 6 touchdowns and 602 total yards gained also set Super Bowl records. Redskins cornerback Barry Wilburn had 2 of the team's 3 interceptions, and strong safety Alvin Walton had 2 of Washington's 5 sacks.

NEW YORK GIANTS 39, DENVER 20—The NFC champion New York Giants captured their first NFL title since 1956 when they downed the AFC champion Denver Broncos 39-20 in Super Bowl XXI. The victory marked the NFC's fifth NFL title in the past six seasons. The Broncos, behind the passing of quarterback John Elway, who was 13 of 20 for 187 yards in the first half, held a 10-9 lead at intermission, the narrowest halftime margin in Super Bowl history. Denver's Rich Karlis opened the scoring with a Super Bowl record-tying 48-yard field goal. New York drove 78 yards in nine plays on the next series to take a 7-3 lead on quarterback Phil Simms's 6-yard touchdown pass to tight end Zeke Mowatt. The Broncos came right back with a 58-yard scoring drive on six plays capped by Elway's 4-yard touchdown run. The only scoring in the second period was the sack of Elway in the end zone by defensive end George Martin for a New York safety. The Giants produced a key defensive stand early in the second quarter when the Broncos had a first down at the New York 1-yard line, but failed to score on three running plays and Karlis's 23-yard missed field-goal attempt. The Giants took command of the game in the third period en route to a 30-point second half, the most ever scored in one half of Super Bowl play. New York took the lead for good on tight end Mark Bavaro's 13-yard touchdown catch 4:52 into the third period. The nine-play, 63-yard scoring drive included the successful conversion of a fourth-and-1 play on the New York 46-yard line. Denver was limited to only 2 net yards on 10 offensive plays in the third period. Simms set Super Bowl records for most consecutive completions (10) and highest completion percentage (88 percent on 22 completions in 25 attempts). He also passed for 268 yards and 3 touchdowns and was named the game's most valuable player. New York running back Joe Morris was the game's leading rusher with 20 carries for 67 yards. Denver wide receiver Vance Johnson led all receivers with 5 catches for 121 yards.

CHICAGO 46, NEW ENGLAND 10—The NFC champion Chicago Bears, seeking their first NFL title since 1963, scored a Super Bowl-record 46 points in downing AFC champion New England 46-10 in Super Bowl XX. The previous record for most points in a Super Bowl was 38, shared by San Francisco in XIX and the Los Angeles Raiders in XVIII. The Bears' league-leading defense tied the Super Bowl record for sacks (7) and limited the Patriots to a record-low 7 rushing yards. New England took the quickest lead in Super Bowl history when Tony Franklin kicked a 36-yard field goal with 1:19 elapsed in the first period. The score came about because of Larry McGrew's fumble recovery at the Chicago 19-yard line. However, the Bears rebounded for a 23-3 first-half lead, while building a yardage advantage of 236 total yards to New England's minus 19. Running back Matt Suhey rushed 8 times for 37 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown run, and caught 1 pass for 24 yards in the first half. After the Patriot's first drive of the second half ended with a punt to the Bears' 4-yard line, Chicago marched 96 yards in nine plays with quarterback Jim McMahon's 1-yard scoring run capping the drive. McMahon became the first quarterback in Super Bowl history to rush for a pair of touchdowns. The Bears completed their scoring via a 28-yard interception return by reserve cornerback Reggie Phillips, a 1-yard run by defensive tackle/fullback William Perry, and a safety when defensive end Henry Waechter tackled Patriots quarterback Steve Grogan in the end zone. Bears defensive end Richard Dent became the fourth defender to be named the game's most valuable player after contributing 1½ sacks. The Bears' victory margin of 36 points was the largest in Super Bowl history, bettering the previous mark of 29 by the Los Angeles Raiders when they topped Washington 38-9 in Game XVIII. McMahon completed 12 of 20 passes for 256 yards before leaving the game in the fourth period with a wrist injury. The NFL's all-time leading rusher, Bears running back Walter Payton, carried 22 times for 61 yards. Wide receiver Willie Gault caught 4 passes for 129 yards, the fourth-most receiving yards in a Super Bowl. Chicago coach Mike Ditka became the second man (Tom Flores of Raiders was the other) to win a Super Bowl ring as a player and as a coach.

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16—The San Francisco 49ers captured their second Super Bowl title with a dominating offense and a defense that tamed Miami's explosive passing attack. The Dolphins held a 10-7 lead at the end of the first period, which represented the most points scored by two teams in an opening quarter of a Super Bowl. However, the 49ers used excellent field position in the second period to build a 28-16 halftime lead. Running back Roger Craig set a Super Bowl record by scoring 3 touchdowns on pass receptions of 8 and 16 yards and a run of 2 yards. San Francisco's Joe Montana was voted the game's most valuable player. He joined Green Bay's Bart Starr and Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw as the only two-time Super Bowl most valuable players. LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 38, WASHINGTON 9—The Los Angeles Raiders dominated the Washington Redskins from the beginning in Super Bowl XVIII and achieved the most lopsided victory in Super Bowl history, surpassing Green Bay's 35-10 win over Kansas City in Super Bowl I. The Raiders took a 7-0 lead 4:52 into the game when Derrick Jensen blocked Jeff Hayes's punt and recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. With 9:14 remaining in the first half, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Cliff Branch to complete a three-play, 65-yard drive. Washington cut the Raiders' lead to 14-3 on a 24-yard field goal by Mark Moseley. With seven seconds left in the first half, Raiders linebacker Jack Squirek intercepted Joe Theismann's pass at the Redskins' 5-yard line and ran it in for a touchdown to give Los Angeles a 21-3 halftime lead. In the third period, running back Marcus Allen, who rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on 20 carries, increased the Raiders' lead to 35-9 on touchdown runs of 5 and 74 yards, the latter erasing the Super Bowl record of 58 yards set by Baltimore's Tom Matte in Game III. Allen was named the game's most valuable player. The victory over Washington raised Raiders coach Tom Flores' playoff record to 8-1, including a 27-10 win against Philadelphia in Super Bowl XV. The 38 points scored by the Raiders were the highest total by a Super Bowl team. The previous high was 35 points by Green Bay in Game I.

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17—Fullback John Riggins ran for a Super Bowl-record 166 yards on 38 carries to spark Washington to a 27-17 victory over AFC champion Miami. It was Riggins's fourth straight 100-yard rushing game during the playoffs, also a record. The win marked Washington's first NFL title since 1942, and was only the second time in Super Bowl history NFL/NFC teams scored consecutive victories (Green Bay did it in Super Bowls I and II and San Francisco won Super Bowl XVI). The Redskins, under second-year head coach Joe Gibbs, used a balanced offense that accounted for 400 total yards (a Super Bowl-record 276 yards rushing and 124 passing), second in Super Bowl history to 429 yards by Oakland in Super Bowl XI. The Dolphins built a 17-10 halftime lead on a 76-yard touchdown pass from quarterback David Woodley to wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo 6:49 into the first period, a 20-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann with 6:00 left in the half, and a Super Bowl-record 98-yard kickoff return by Fulton Walker with 1:38 remaining. Washington had tied the score at 10-10 with 1:51 left on a 4-yard touchdown pass from Joe Theismann to wide receiver Alvin Garrett. Mark Moseley started the Redskins' scoring with a 31-yard field goal late in the first period, and added a 20-yard kick midway through the third period to cut the Dolphins' lead to 17-13. Riggins, who was voted the game's most valuable player, gave Washington its first lead of the game with 10:01 left when he ran 43 yards off left tackle for a touchdown in a fourth-and-1 situation. Wide receiver Charlie Brown caught a 6-yard scoring pass from Theismann with 1:55 left to complete the scoring. The Dolphins managed only 176 yards (142 in first half). Theismann completed 15 of 23 passes for 143 yards, with 2 touchdowns and 2 interceptions. For Miami, Woodley was 4 of 14 for 97 yards, with 1 touchdown, and 1 interception. SAN FRANCISCO 26, CINCINNATI 21—Ray Wersching's Super Bowl record-tying 4 field goals and Joe Montana's controlled passing helped lift the San Francisco 49ers to their first NFL championship with a 26-21 victory over Cincinnati. The 49ers built a game-record 20-0 halftime lead via Montana's 1-yard touchdown run, which capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive; fullback Earl Cooper's 11-yard scoring pass from Montana, which climaxed a Super Bowl record 92-yard drive on 12 plays; and Wersching's 22- and 26-yard field goals. The Bengals rebounded in the second half, closing the gap to 20-14 on quarterback Ken Anderson's 5-yard run and Dan Ross's 4-yard reception from Anderson, who established Super Bowl passing records for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5 percent on 25 of 34). Wersching added early fourth-period field goals of 40 and 23 yards to increase the 49ers' lead to 26-14. The Bengals managed to score on an Anderson-to-Ross 3-yard pass with only 16 seconds remaining. Ross set a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions for 104 yards. Montana, the game's most valuable player, completed 14 of 22 passes for 157 yards. Cincinnati compiled 356 yards to San Francisco's 275, which marked the first time in Super Bowl history that the team that gained the most yards from scrimmage lost the game.

SUPER BOWL XV

OAKLAND 27, PHILADELPHIA 10—Jim Plunkett passed for 3 touchdowns, including an 80-yard strike to Kenny King, as the Raiders became the first wild-card team to win the Super Bowl. Plunkett's touchdown bomb to King—the longest play in Super Bowl history—gave Oakland a decisive 14-0 lead with nine seconds left in the first period. Linebacker Rod Martin had set up Oakland's first touchdown, a 2-yard reception by Cliff Branch, with a 17-yard interception return to the Eagles' 30-yard line. The Eagles never recovered from that early deficit, managing only Tony Franklin's field goal (30 yards) and an 8-yard touchdown pass from Ron Jaworski to Keith Krepfle. Plunkett, who became a starter in the sixth game of the season, completed 13 of 21 for 261 yards and was named the game's most valuable player. Oakland won 9 of 11 games with Plunkett starting, but that was good enough only for second place in the AFC West, although they tied division winner San Diego with an 11-5 record. The Raiders, who had previously won Super Bowl XI over Minnesota, had to win three playoff games to get to the championship game. Oakland defeated Houston 27-7 at home followed by road victories over Cleveland (14-12) and San Diego (34-27). Oakland's Mark van Eeghen was the game's leading rusher with 75 yards on 18 carries. Philadelphia's Wilbert Montgomery led all receivers with 6 receptions for 91 yards. Branch had 5 for 67 and Harold Carmichael of Philadelphia 5 for 83. Martin finished the game with 3 interceptions, a Super Bowl record.

PITTSBURGH 31, LOS ANGELES 19—Terry Bradshaw completed 14 of 21 passes for 309 yards and set two passing records as the Steelers became the first team to win four Super Bowls. Despite 3 interceptions by the Rams, Bradshaw kept his poise and brought the Steelers from behind twice in the second half. Trailing 13-10 at halftime, Pittsburgh went ahead 17-13 when Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with a 47-yard touchdown pass after 2:48 of the third quarter. On the Rams' next possession Vince Ferragamo, who completed 15 of 25 passes for 212 yards, responded with a 50-yard pass to Billy Waddy that moved Los Angeles from its 26 to the Steelers' 24. On the following play, Lawrence McCutcheon connected with Ron Smith on a halfback option pass that gave the Rams a 19-17 lead. On Pittsburgh's initial possession of the final period, Bradshaw lofted a 73-yard scoring pass to John Stallworth to put the Steelers in front to stay 24-19. Franco Harris scored on a 1-yard run later in the quarter to seal the verdict. A 45-yard pass from Bradshaw to Stallworth was the key play in the drive to Harris's score. Bradshaw, the game's most valuable player for the second straight year, set career Super Bowl records for most touchdown passes (9) and most passing yards (932). Larry Anderson gave the Steelers excellent field position throughout the game with 5 kickoff returns for a record 162 yards.

PITTSBURGH 35, DALLAS 31—Terry Bradshaw passed for a record 4 touchdowns to lead the Steelers to victory. The Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls, mostly because of Bradshaw's accurate arm. Bradshaw, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 17 of 30 passes for 318 yards, a personal high. Four of those passes went for touchdowns—2 to John Stallworth and the third, with 26 seconds remaining in the second period, to Rocky Bleier for a 21-14 halftime lead. The Cowboys scored twice before intermission on Roger Staubach's 39-yard pass to Tony Hill and a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Mike Hegman, who stole the ball from Bradshaw. The Steelers broke open the contest with 2 touchdowns in a span of 19 seconds midway through the final period. Franco Harris rambled 22 yards up the middle to give the Steelers a 28-17 lead with 7:10 left. Pittsburgh got the ball right back when Randy White fumbled the kickoff and Dennis Winston recovered for the Steelers. On first down, Bradshaw fired his fourth touchdown pass, an 18-yard pass to Lynn Swann to boost the Steelers' lead to 35-17 with 6:51 to play. The Cowboys refused to let the Steelers run away with the contest. Staubach connected with Billy Joe DuPree on a 7-yard scoring pass with 2:23 left. Then the Cowboys recovered an onside kick and Staubach took them in for another score, passing 4 yards to Butch Johnson with 22 seconds remaining. Bleier recovered another onside kick with 17 seconds left to seal the victory for the Steelers.

The Raiders increased their lead to 19-0 on a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter, but Minnesota responded with a 12-play, 58-yard drive late in the period, with Fran Tarkenton passing 8 yards to wide receiver Sammy White to cut the deficit to 19-7. PITTSBURGH 16, MINNESOTA 6—AFC champion Pittsburgh, in its initial Super Bowl appearance, and NFC champion Minnesota, making a third bid for its first Super Bowl title, struggled through a first half in which the only score was produced by the Steelers' defense when Dwight White downed Vikings' quarterback Fran Tarkenton in the end zone for a safety 7:49 into the second period. The Steelers forced another break and took advantage on the second-half kickoff when Minnesota's Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh on the Vikings' 30. After Rocky Bleier failed to gain on first down, Franco Harris carried 3 consecutive times for 24 yards, a loss of 3, and a 9-yard touchdown and a 9-0 lead. Though its offense was completely stymied by Pittsburgh's defense, Minnesota managed to move into a threatening position after 4:27 of the final period when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt and Terry Brown recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Fred Cox's kick failed and the Steelers led 9-6. Pittsburgh wasted no time putting the victory away. The Steelers took the ensuing kickoff and marched 66 yards in 11 plays, climaxed by Terry Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring pass to Larry Brown with 3:31 left. Pittsburgh's defense permitted Minnesota only 119 yards total offense, including a Super Bowl low of 17 rushing yards. The Steelers, meanwhile, gained 333 yards, including Harris's record 158 yards on 34 carries.

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7—The defending NFL champion Dolphins, representing the AFC for the third straight year, scored the first two times they had possession on marches of 62 and 56 yards while the Miami defense limited the Vikings to only seven plays in the first period. Larry Csonka climaxed the initial 10-play drive with a 5-yard touchdown bolt through right guard after 5:27 had elapsed. Four plays later, Miami began another 10-play scoring drive, which ended with Jim Kiick bursting 1 yard through the middle for another touchdown after 13:38 of the period. Garo Yepremian added a 28-yard field goal midway in the second period for a 17-0 Miami lead. Minnesota then drove from its 20 to a second-and-2 situation on the Miami 7 yard line with 1:18 left in the half. But on two plays, Miami limited Oscar Reed to 1 yard. On fourth-and-1 from the 6, Reed went over right tackle, but Dolphins middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti jarred the ball loose and Jake Scott recovered for Miami to halt the Minnesota threat. The Vikings were unable to muster enough offense in the second half to threaten the Dolphins. Csonka rushed 33 times for a Super Bowl-record 145 yards. MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7—The Dolphins played virtually perfect football in the first half as their defense permitted the Redskins to cross midfield only once and their offense turned good field position into 2 touchdowns. On its third possession, Miami opened its first scoring drive from the Dolphins' 37 yard line. An 18-yard pass from Bob Griese to Paul Warfield preceded by three plays Griese's 28-yard touchdown pass to Howard Twilley. After Washington moved from its 17 to the Miami 48 with two minutes remaining in the first half, Dolphins linebacker Nick Buoniconti intercepted Billy Kilmer's pass at the Miami 41 and returned it to the Washington 27. Jim Kiick ran for 3 yards, Larry Csonka for 3, Griese passed to Jim Mandich for 19, and Kiick gained 1 to the 1-yard line. With 18 seconds left until intermission, Kiick scored from the 1. Earl Morrall relieved an injured Johnny Unitas late in the first half, although Unitas completed the Colts' only scoring pass. It caromed off receiver Eddie Hinton's fingertips, off Dallas defensive back Mel Renfro, and finally settled into the grasp of John Mackey, who went 45 yards to score on a 75-yard play.

1998 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Mile High Stadium, Denver, Colorado
January 17, 1999, Attendance: 75,482

DENVER 23, N.Y. JETS 10—In John Elway's final game in Denver, Terrell Davis rushed for 167 yards, and the Broncos forced 6 Jets' turnovers en route to scoring the game's final 23 points to capture their second consecutive AFC title. The game was played in a strong wind, with the wind chill dipping to 18 degrees and causing special teams problems for both sides. John Hall missed a 42-yard field goal on the game's opening drive, but the Jets kept the game scoreless by forcing Elway to throw an incomplete pass on fourth-and-goal from the Jets' 1 late in the first quarter. Tom Rouen dropped the ball while attempting to punt early in the second quarter, resulting in a 9-yard loss and giving the Jets the ball at the Broncos' 43. However, Keith Byars fumbled on the ensuing possession. Hall ended the half with a 32-yard field goal to give the Jets a 3-0 lead going into the locker room. Blake Spence blocked Rouen's punt early in the second half, and Fred Baxter recovered the ball at the Broncos' 1. Curtis Martin crashed into the end zone on the next play to give the Jets a 10-0 lead with 11:56 left in the third quarter. Elway, who had passed for just 33 yards in the first half, completed a 47-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey on the first play of the next drive, and then found Howard Griffith two plays later for a touchdown. A strong wind knocked Jason Elam's next kickoff to the ground near the Jets' 25. James Farrior momentarily recovered the bouncing ball, but he fumbled and Keith Burns's recovery gave the Broncos the ball at the Jets' 31. Elam's field goal tied the game with 8:23 left, and, after forcing a punt, Elam gave the Broncos the lead with 2:58 left in the quarter. The Broncos' defense forced another punt, and Darrien Gordon returned it 36 yards, setting up Davis's 31-yard touchdown run to give the Broncos 20 points in a span of 11:38. Gordon intercepted Vinny Testaverde twice in the final five minutes, the first of which led to Elam's final field goal. Elway was 13 of 34 for 173 yards and 1 touchdown. Testaverde was 31 of 52 for 356 yards, with 2 interceptions. Wayne Chrebet had 8 receptions for 121 yards.

ATLANTA 30, MINNESOTA 27 (OT)—Chris Chandler passed for 3 touchdowns, and Morten Andersen made a 38-yard field goal 11:52 into overtime to catapult the Falcons into their first Super Bowl. The Falcons drove 12 plays to score on their opening possession, but Minnesota retaliated by scoring on their first four possessions. First, Randall Cunningham capped a 5-play drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss. Fumbles by Harold Green and O.J. Santiago led to Gary Anderson's 29-yard field goal and Cunningham's 1-yard sneak. Following a punt, Anderson, who did not miss a field-goal or extra-point attempt all season, made a 35-yard field goal to give the Vikings a 20-7 lead with 2:45 left in the half. The Vikings' defense forced another punt and started at their 18 with 1:17 left in the half. After 2 incompletions, Chuck Smith stripped Cunningham of the ball, and Travis Hall recovered. Chandler fired a 14-yard scoring strike to Terance Mathis on the next play to cut the deficit to 20-14 at halftime. Andersen's field goal cut the Vikings' lead to three points midway through the third quarter, but the Vikings used a 15-play, 82-yard drive, culminated by Cunningham's 5-yard touchdown pass to Matthew Hatchette, to take a 27-17 lead with 13:41 left. Chandler's 70-yard pass to Tony Martin set up Andersen's second field goal with 11:02 left, and Cunningham's fumble, recovered by Shane Dronett at the Vikings' 30, kept the Falcons' hopes alive. However, trailing 27-20 and faced with fourth-and-4 from the Vikings' 24 with 6:13 left, Chandler threw an incomplete pass. The Vikings held onto the ball for the next four minutes, but Anderson's 38-yard field-goal attempt failed, his first miss in 122 attempts. Chandler promptly drove the Falcons downfield, with the big play being a 29-yard pass to Ronnie Harris, and on second-and-10 from the Vikings' 16 with 57 seconds left, Chandler found Mathis just beyond the goal line for the game-tying touchdown. After a scramble and incomplete pass, Cunningham took a knee and the game went to overtime. Minnesota won the toss, but could not move beyond midfield with either of its two possessions. Following the second overtime punt, the Falcons began at the their 9, and Chandler found Santiago for 15- and 26-yard gains to move into Vikings' territory. A scramble by Chandler and a 9-yard run by Jamal Anderson set up Andersen's winning kick. Chandler was 27 of 43 for 340 yards and 3 touchdowns. Martin had 5 catches for 129 yards. Cunningham was 29 of 48 for 266 yards and 2 touchdowns. This was the first championship game to go to overtime since the 1986 AFC Championship Game.

N.Y. JETS 34, JACKSONVILLE 24—Keyshawn Johnson caught a touchdown pass, rushed for a touchdown, and intercepted a pass to seal the Jets' first postseason victory since 1986. The Jets needed just seven plays on the game's opening drive to reach the end zone, courtesy of Vinny Testaverde's 21-yard pass to Johnson, to take a 7-0 lead. A 13-play drive set up John Hall's 52-yard field goal to give the Jets a 10-0 lead, and Otis Smith's interception on the Jaguars' first play after the field goal gave the Jets the ball at their 40. Ten plays later, from the Jaguars' 22, Curtis Martin fumbled, and Chris Hudson recovered the ball. Hudson ran into Jets' territory and attempted a lateral, recovered by Johnson at the Jets' 35. The Jets then took 11 plays to march 65 yards, capped by Johnson's 10-yard reverse run to take a 17-0 lead with 33 seconds left in the half. The Jets had run 34 of the last 35 plays from scrimmage. The Jaguars got on the scoreboard, as Jimmy Smith caught Mark Brunell's 52-yard bomb as the half expired. Corwin Brown's interception in the opening minutes of the second half set up Martin's 1-yard touchdown run, but Reggie Barlow's 88-yard kickoff return led to Brunell's 3-yard touchdown pass to Keenan McCardell to cut the deficit to 24-10. Martin scored again on the next drive, but the Jaguars used Brunell's second touchdown pass to Smith to cut the lead to 31-21, and then used Wayne Chrebet's fumble to set up Mike Hollis's 37-yard field goal with 6:38 left. Donovin Darius halted the Jets' next drive with an interception in the end zone, but he stepped out and was tackled at the Jets' 1 with 2:24 left. The Jaguars failed to get a first down, and Hall iced the game with a 30-yard field goal with 24 seconds left. In the final seconds, Brunell's Hail Mary pass was picked off by Johnson, who finished with 9 receptions for 121 yards, with a touchdown, interception, and fumble recovery. Testaverde was 24 of 36 for 284 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Martin rushed 36 times for 124 yards, while Johnson had 9 receptions for 121 yards. Brunell was 12 of 31 for 156 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 3 interceptions. Smith had 5 catches for 104 yards.

DENVER 38, MIAMI 3—Terrell Davis rushed for 199 yards and 2 touchdowns and the Broncos' defense limited Miami to just 14 rushing yards as Denver began its postseason bid to repeat as Super Bowl champions. The Broncos scored on their first three possessions, driving 92 and 66 yards in the first quarter and, following an Olindo Mare field goal, marching 87 yards to a third touchdown in the second quarter to take a 21-3 lead at halftime. Davis rushed for more yards (129) than the Dolphins had gained (119) at intermission. Davis scampered 62 yards on the first play of the second half to set up Jason Elam's field goal to give Denver a 24-3 lead. The Dolphins drove into Broncos' territory three times in the second half, but Bill Romanowski and Darrius Johnson each recorded interceptions and Neil Smith recovered Oronde Gadsden's fumble and rumbled 79 yards for the game's final points. MINNESOTA 41, ARIZONA 21—Randall Cunningham passed for 3 touchdowns, and Leroy Hoard scored 3 times, as the Vikings reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 1987. The Vikings consumed nearly half of the first quarter during a 13-play, 80-yard game-opening drive capped by Hoard's 1-yard plunge. After a Cardinals' punt, the Vikings were set to score again, but Aeneas Williams intercepted a pass in the end zone. However, Jake Plummer threw interceptions on consecutive plays, leading to a Vikings' touchdown and a field goal. The Vikings led 17-0 before the Cardinals recorded a first down. The clubs exchanged touchdowns, with Hoard's second coming with just 24 seconds left in the half, as Minnesota took a 24-7 lead into the locker room. The Cardinals used the first 7:35 of the third quarter to drive 80 yards, capped by Mario Bates's second touchdown run. However, David Palmer's 38-yard kickoff return set up Gary Anderson's 20-yard field goal and, after Antonio Banks recovered Plummer's fumble at the Cardinals' 10, Cunningham completed a 2-yard scoring pass to Randy Moss to give Minnesota a 34-14 lead late in the third quarter. Eric Metcalf's 36-yard punt return set up Bates's third touchdown, with 11:45 left, but the Vikings went on a 12-play, 73-yard drive that consumed more than seven minutes and culminated with Hoard's third touchdown with 4:23 left. Cunningham was 17 of 27 for 236 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Robert Smith had 19 carries for 124 yards. Plummer was 23 of 41 for 242 yards, with 2 interceptions.

ATLANTA 20, SAN FRANCISCO 18—Jamal Anderson rushed for 113 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Falcons won just their third playoff game in club history. Tim Dwight's 36-yard punt return midway through the first quarter set up Anderson's first touchdown run, and Anderson carried 4 times for 52 yards on a 7-play, 82-yard second-quarter drive, capped by a 34-yard scamper, to give Atlanta a 14-0 lead. The 49ers scored twice in the final 1:10 of the half, with Steve Young's 34-yard pass to Chuck Levy on third-and-23 setting up Jerry Rice's 17-yard touchdown catch, and Junior Bryant's interception leading to Wade Richey's 36-yard field goal as the half expired. Eugene Robinson stopped a 49ers' drive late in the third quarter by intercepting a pass at the Falcons' 3 and returning it 77 yards, being denied a touchdown by Terry Kirby's tackle. Atlanta settled for Morten Andersen's 29-yard field goal, and Andersen tacked three more points on the board less than six minutes later following William White's interception. The 49ers responded with a 13-play, 87-yard drive, capped by Young's 8-yard run with 2:57 remaining. A high snap on the extra-point attempt prompted holder Ty Detmer to roll out and throw a 2-point conversion pass to Greg Clark to cut the deficit to 20-18. The 49ers' onside kick hopped out of bounds, and San Francisco did not gain possession until getting the ball on their own 4-yard line with 38 seconds left. The 49ers' hopes ended when White intercepted Young at the 49ers' 35 as time expired. Chris Chandler was 13 of 19 for 169 yards, with 1 interception. Young was 23 of 37 for 289 yards and 1 touchdown, with 3 interceptions.

JACKSONVILLE 25, NEW ENGLAND 10—Fred Taylor rushed for 162 yards, the most in the postseason by a rookie since Timmy Smith in Super Bowl XXII, and scored a touchdown as the Jaguars reached the divisional playoffs for the second time in the franchise's four seasons. The Jaguars scored on two of their first three possessions, the second keyed by Taylor's 46-yard run, to take a 6-0 lead. Taylor reversed field on a 21-yard gain before sprinting 13 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter to give the Jaguars a 12-0 halftime lead. The Jaguars' defense forced 7 punts in the first half, as Jacksonville had more first downs (12-1) and total yards (199-54). The Patriots retaliated with a 17-play, 85-yard scoring drive that took 8:48 off the clock on their first possession of the second half, capped by Robert Edwards's 1-yard run. Adam Vinatieri's field goal on the next drive cut the deficit to 12-10, but Mark Brunell, who missed the previous three games with an ankle injury, needed just six plays to respond, lofting a 37-yard touchdown pass to a diving Jimmy Smith to give the Jaguars a 19-10 lead with 12:24 remaining in the game. Tony Brackens recovered a fumble and sacked Scott Zolak on fourth down to set up 2 late Mike Hollis field goals as the Patriots never crossed midfield the remainder of the game. Brunell was 14 of 34 for 161 yards and 1 touchdown. Zolak, who started in place of injured Drew Bledsoe, was 21 of 44 for 190 yards, with 1 interception. The Jaguars' defense limited the Patriots to 35 rushing yards on 19 carries.

MIAMI 24, BUFFALO 17—Trace Armstrong sacked Doug Flutie and forced him to fumble at the Dolphins' 3-yard line with nine seconds left to preserve Miami's first postseason victory in four seasons. Flutie completed a 65-yard pass to Eric Moulds on the game's first play, but Terrell Buckley stripped Moulds and Brock Marion recovered. Olindo Mare kicked field goals to finish each of the Dolphins' first 2 possessions. Following the second score, Mare attempted an onside kick, but Buffalo's Dan Brandenburg recovered the ball. Flutie's 37-yard pass to Moulds set up Thurman Thomas's touchdown run to give Buffalo a 7-6 lead. The Bills drove to the Dolphins' 6 late in the half, but Marion intercepted Flutie's pass in the end zone. Dan Marino's 52-yard Hail Mary pass was caught by Oronde Gadsden at the Bills' 9 with six seconds left, but Mare's 26-yard field-goal attempt hit the right upright as the half expired. Karim Abdul-Jabbar's 3-yard run, and Stanley Pritchett's 2-point conversion jaunt, gave the Dolphins a 14-7 lead with 2:32 left in the quarter. However, Flutie's 23-yard pass to Moulds set up the pair's 32-yard touchdown connection to tie the game in the quarter's final minute. Mare's 23-yard field goal gave the Dolphins a 17-14 lead with 9:45 left, and Jerry Wilson forced Andre Reed to fumble and Buckley recovered at the Dolphins' 44 with 8:02 left. The Dolphins burned 4:20 off the clock and scored on Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Lamar Thomas. On the following drive, Buffalo reached the Dolphins' 1, but a personal foul penalty on Reed pushed the Bills back and they settled for Steve Christie's field goal with 1:33 left to cut the deficit to 24-17. Sam Madison bobbled the ensuing onside kick, and Buffalo's Curt Schulz recovered at the Bills' 31. The Bills drove to the Dolphins' 5 with 17 seconds left before Shane Burton recovered the fumble that Armstrong forced. Marino was 23 of 34 for 235 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Flutie was 21 of 36 for 360 yards and 1 touchdown, with 1 interception. Moulds, who had 9 catches, set an NFL playoff record with 240 receiving yards.

SAN FRANCISCO 30, GREEN BAY 27—With eight seconds left and no timeouts remaining, Steve Young fired a 25-yard strike to Terrell Owens to give the 49ers a victory against the Packers in stunning fashion. Darren Sharper forced Owens to fumble at the Packers' 47 on the game's third play. Pat Terrell recovered the ball, leading to Ryan Longwell's first field goal. Merton Hanks forced Dorsey Levens to fumble later in the quarter, and Chris Doleman recovered. Greg Clark caught a touchdown pass from Steve Young three plays later to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead. Brett Favre threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Freeman on the next drive, but R.W. McQuarter's 19-yard punt return set up Wade Richey's tying field goal midway through the second quarter. Randy Kirk recovered Roell Preston's muffed punt at the 49ers' 18, but George Koonce intercepted Young's pass two plays later and the Packers proceeded to drive 83 yards to take a 17-10 lead on Levens's touchdown run. Recently signed free-agent Charles Haley pressured Favre into throwing an early second-half interception, which Lee Woodall returned 17 yards to the Packers' 33. From there, Young tossed his second touchdown pass of the game to Clark to tie the score. Three field goals on successive possessions, 2 by Richey and 1 by Longwell, gave the 49ers a 23-20 lead with 6:12 to play. Darnell Walker intercepted Favre at the Packers' 43, but the 49ers were forced to punt giving Green Bay the ball at their own 11 with 4:19 remaining. Favre completed a 47-yard pass to Corey Bradford, and a few plays later lofted a 15-yard scoring pass to Freeman to give the Packers a 27-23 lead with 1:56 to play. The 49ers drove to the Packers' 25 with eight seconds left and no timeouts, when Young fired a 25-yard strike to Owens, who was belted by Terrell and Sharper but held on for the winning points. Young, who completed 7 of 9 passes on the game-winning 76-yard drive, was 18 of 32 for 182 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Garrison Hearst had 22 carries for 128 yards. Favre was 20 of 35 for 292 yards and 2 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Levens had 27 carries for 116 yards.

ARIZONA 20, DALLAS 7—Jake Plummer passed for 2 touchdowns and Aeneas Williams had 2 interceptions as the Cardinals won a postseason game for the first time since 1947. Richie Cunningham missed a 36-yard field goal in the latter part of the first quarter, and Plummer immediately seized the opportunity, firing a 59-yard pass to Frank Sanders. Three plays later, Plummer flipped a shovel pass to Adrian Murrell, who scooted into the end zone to give Arizona a 7-0 lead. The Cowboys drove deep into Cardinals' territory, but Mark Maddox stopped Emmitt Smith on fourth-and-1 at the Cardinals' 7. Chris Jacke kicked a field goal 19 seconds before halftime, and Murrell raced 74 yards on the second play of the second half, setting up Plummer's 3-yard toss to Larry Centers to give the Cardinals a 17-0 lead 1:16 into the third quarter. Williams's second interception at the Cowboys' 37 set up Jacke's second field goal 2:05 into the final quarter. The Cardinals' defense twice stopped Dallas on fourth-down attempts before Troy Aikman's 6-yard pass to Billy Davis averted the shutout with 3:33 remaining. Larry Centers recovered the ensuing onsides kick, and Tommy Bennett intercepted a pass from Aikman with 48 seconds remaining to secure the victory. Plummer was 19 of 36 for 213 yards, 2 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Aikman was 22 of 49 for 191 yards, 1 touchdown, with 3 interceptions.

1999 AFC-NFC PRO BOWL

Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii
February 7, 1999, Attendance: 50,075

AFC 23, NFC 10—John Elway, appearing in uniform on a football field for the final time, drove the AFC to its initial touchdown and then watched a strong defensive effort as the AFC won the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Elway capped a game-opening 61-yard drive with a touchdown pass to Sam Gash. The AFC led 10-3 late in the first half when Deion Sanders intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass at the NFC's 10 and raced downfield, only to be caught by Ed McCaffrey at the AFC 3-yard line as the half expired. The NFC drove into AFC territory early in the second half, but Ty Law thwarted the NFC's spirits with a 67-yard interception return for a touchdown to give the AFC a 17-3 lead with 9:42 left in the third quarter. The NFC reached the end zone three minutes later as Emmitt Smith scored, but the AFC responded with a field goal on its ensuing possession. Jason Elam's third field goal with 1:02 remaining finished the scoring. Elway played just one drive and was 4 of 5 for 55 yards and 1 touchdown. Keyshawn Johnson had 7 catches for 87 yards and shared player-of-the-game honors with Law. Chandler completed 9 of 25 passes for 133 yards en route to leading the NFC to its only touchdown. Randy Moss had 7 catches for 108 yards.

1998 AFC-NFC PRO BOWL

Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii
February 1, 1998, Attendance: 49,995

AFC 29, NFC 24—Warren Moon guided the AFC to points on all three of his drives, including the winning touchdown from 1 yard with 1:49 left as the AFC scored the game's final 15 points to beat the NFC. Steve Young threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Herman Moore to cap the game's opening drive and give the NFC a 7-0 lead. Late in the first quarter, Mark Brunell threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Andre Rison to tie the game. Both touchdown passes came on third-and-8 plays. The NFC responded with a 7-play, 71-yard drive capped by Young's 36-yard touchdown pass to Rob Moore. Trent Dilfer guided the NFC to its third touchdown, keyed by a 21-yard pass to Irving Fryar and 23-yard pass to Mike Alstott, and capped by Dorsey Levens's 12-yard touchdown run with 1:36 left in the half to give the NFC a 21-7 lead. The NFC had a chance to pad its lead on its first possession of the second half, but Jason Hanson missed a 44-yard field goal. The AFC bounced back with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with Drew Bledsoe's 14-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Smith late in the third quarter. After Hanson's 35-yard field goal gave the NFC a 24-14 lead with 13:42 left, Moon entered the game and drove the AFC into field-goal range, where Mike Hollis drilled a 48-yard attempt with 8:51 left. Attempting to grind out the clock, Warrick Dunn fumbled, and Darryl Williams recovered at the AFC's 49 with 3:03 remaining. After a holding penalty moved the AFC back 10 yards, Moon fired a 57-yard pass to Tim Brown to set up Eddie George's 4-yard run with 2:31 left. The AFC went for the lead instead of a tie, but Moon's pass to Rison fell incomplete. However, the AFC got the ball back when Chris Chandler fumbled the snap on the NFC's first play, and Michael Sinclair recovered at the NFC's 16 with 2:19 left. Three runs by George set up Moon's winning sneak with 1:49 remaining. Moon's 2-point conversion pass to Brown was incomplete, keeping the AFC's lead at 29-24. The NFC was unable to move beyond its own 31-yard line in the final moments, and the AFC prevailed. Tim Brown had 5 receptions for 129 yards. Moon, who was 4 of 8 for 89 yards, earned player of the game honors.

1997 AFC-NFC PRO BOWL

Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii
February 2, 1997, Attendance: 50,031

AFC 26, NFC 23 (OT)—Cary Blanchard's 37-yard field goal 8:16 into overtime gave the AFC a 26-23 victory. The field goal was an ironic ending to a game that saw Blanchard and NFC kicker John Kasay, who each broke the previous single-season record of 35 field goals, combine to miss 5 of 8 field-goal attempts. The NFC scored on its first two possessions, with Vikings guard Randall McDaniel, who lined up as a fullback, scoring his first professional touchdown to give the NFC a 9-0 lead. However, the follies of the kicking unit began as holder Matt Turk muffed the snap on the extra point attempt. Blanchard booted a 28-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the half to cut the NFC's lead to 9-3. In the third quarter, Barry Sanders scored from 6 yards out, but Kerry Collins was sacked on the 2-point attempt. A 41-yard pass from Drew Bledsoe to Tony Martin led to Curtis Martin's 3-yard run, and after Ashley Ambrose ran an interception back 54 yards for a touchdown 11 seconds into the fourth quarter, the AFC found itself with a 16-15 lead. The NFC drove for more than six minutes, only to have Kasay miss a 40-yard field goal attempt. After an AFC punt, Cris Carter caught a 47-yard touchdown bomb from Gus Frerotte to put the NFC ahead 23-16. After each team punted, the AFC got the ball on its own 20-yard line with 55 seconds left. Mark Brunell hit Tim Brown with an 80-yard bomb down the right sideline to tie the game with 44 seconds left. Wesley Walls caught a 33-yard pass to give the NFC a chance to win in regulation, but Kasay missed a 39-yard attempt and the game went to overtime. The AFC won the overtime toss, but Blanchard missed a 41-yard field goal attempt. The NFC had to punt after three plays, and Brunell hit Ben Coates with a 43-yard pass on the AFC's first play. After three running plays failed to gain a first down, Blanchard trotted onto the field and made the game-winning kick. The teams combined for a Pro Bowl record 962 total yards. Brunell, who completed 12 of 22 pass attempts for 236 yards, was selected as the player of the game.

1996 AFC-NFC PRO BOWL

Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii
February 4, 1996, Attendance: 50,034

NFC 20, AFC 13—Jerry Rice had 6 receptions for 82 yards and 1 touchdown to earn player of the game honors in the NFC's victory. The 49ers' wide receiver, who was named to the Pro Bowl for the tenth consecutive year, caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from Packers quarterback Brett Favre 1:41 into the second quarter to cap an 80-yard drive and give the NFC the lead for good at 10-7. The AFC had taken a 7-0 lead 2:26 into the game when Bengals quarterback Jeff Blake connected with Steelers wide receiver Yancey Thigpen on a Pro Bowl-record 93-yard touchdown pass. The NFC increased its advantage to 20-7 at halftime on Redskins linebacker Ken Harvey's 36-yard interception return for a touchdown and Falcons kicker Morten Andersen's 24-yard field goal. The AFC trimmed its deficit to 20-13 when Colts quarterback Jim Harbaugh teamed with Patriots running back Curtis Martin on a 17-yard touchdown pass in the final minute of the third quarter, but its bid to win or tie was rebuffed twice in the final minutes of the fourth quarter. First, 49ers safety Tim McDonald intercepted Harbaugh's pass in the end zone with 1:50 remaining. Then, after the AFC forced a punt and got the ball back near midfield, Harbaugh drove his team to the NFC's 9-yard line in the closing seconds. But he spiked the ball once to stop the clock and threw 3 consecutive incompletions as time ran out. The AFC outgained the NFC 390 total yards to 287, but its quarterbacks suffered 4 interceptions, including 3 off Harbaugh, the NFL's leading passer during the regular season. The NFC raised its edge to 15-11 in Pro Bowl games since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970.

AFC 41, NFC 13—Colts rookie Marshall Faulk rushed for a Pro Bowl-record 180 yards to key the AFC's rout of the NFC. Faulk, who earned the Dan McGuire Trophy as the player of the game, averaged nearly 14 yards on his 13 carries and shattered the previous rushing mark of 112 yards set by O.J. Simpson in the 1973 game. Faulk's 49-yard touchdown run from punt formation in the fourth quarter was the longest in Pro Bowl history. The Seahawks' Chris Warren added 127 yards on 14 carries as the AFC amassed records for rushing yards (400) and total yards (552). Steelers tight end Eric Green caught 2 touchdown passes for the victors. The NFC managed only 196 total yards, a large chunk coming when 49ers quarterback Steve Young and Vikings wide receiver Cris Carter teamed on a 51-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. That gave the NFC a 10-0 advantage, but the AFC rallied in the second quarter and took the lead for good when the Browns' Leroy Hoard scored on a 4-yard touchdown run 2:07 before halftime.

NFC 17, AFC 3—The NFC converted a blocked punt and a fumble recovery into touchdowns just 2:20 apart in the second half of its victory over the AFC. With the score tied 3-3 late in the third quarter, Saints linebacker Renaldo Turnbull deflected a punt by the Oilers' Greg Montgomery, and the NFC took possession at the AFC's 48-yard line. A 32-yard pass from Bobby Hebert to Falcons teammate Andre Rison positioned Rams running back Jerome Bettis for a 4-yard touchdown run with 1:27 left in the third quarter. Moments later, Rams defensive tackle Sean

Gilbert recovered a fumble by Oilers quarterback Warren Moon at the AFC's 19. Hebert then teamed with the Vikings' Cris Carter on a 15-yard touchdown pass 53 seconds into the fourth period. The NFC kept the AFC out of the end zone by maintaining possession for more than 38 minutes and forcing 6 turnovers. Rison earned the Dan McGuire Trophy as the player of the game by catching 6 passes for 86 yards. The victory was the fourth in the last six years for the NFC, which leads the series 14-10.

AFC 23, NFC 20—Nick Lowery's 33-yard field goal 4:09 into overtime gave the American Conference all-stars an unlikely 23-20 victory over the National Conference. Despite being overwhelmed by the NFC in first downs (30-9), and total yards (471-114), the AFC won because it forced 6 turnovers, blocked a pair of field goals (1 of which was returned for a touchdown), and returned an interception for a score. Special-teams star Steve Tasker of the Bills earned the Dan McGuire Trophy as the player of the game for making 4 tackles, forcing a fumble, and blocking a field goal. The block came with eight minutes left in regulation and the game tied at 13-13. The Raiders' Terry McDaniel picked up the loose ball and ran 28 yards for a touchdown and a 20-13 AFC lead. The NFC rallied behind 49ers quarterback Steve Young, whose fourth-down, 23-yard touchdown pass to Giants running back Rodney Hampton tied the game at 20-20 with 10 seconds left in regulation. Young completed 18 of 32 passes for 196 yards but was intercepted 3 times and lost a fumble when sacked in overtime. Raiders defensive end Howie Long fell on that fumble at the NFC 28-yard line, and five plays later, Lowery converted the winning field goal.

1992 AFC-NFC PRO BOWL

Aloha Stadium, Honolulu, Hawaii
February 2, 1992, Attendance: 50,209

NFC 21, AFC 15—Atlanta's Chris Miller threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to San Francisco's Jerry Rice with 4:04 remaining in the game to lift the NFC over the AFC. It was the NFC's thirteenth win in the 22-game series. The AFC had taken a 15-14 lead when the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger kicked a 27-yard field goal 1:49 into the fourth quarter. But the NFC, aided by a key roughing-the-passer penalty on a third-down incompletion from the AFC 24-yard line, drove 85 yards to the winning score. The Cowboys' Michael Irvin, playing in his first Pro Bowl, caught 8 passes for 125 yards, including a 13-yard touchdown in the first quarter, and was named the player of the game. Rice had 7 catches for 77 yards. Mark Rypien of Washington, the Super Bowl most valuable player one week earlier, completed 11 of 18 passes for 165 yards and 2 touchdowns for the NFC, including a 35-yard pass to Redskins teammate Gary Clark just 26 seconds before halftime. Miller completed 7 of his 10 attempts for 85 yards.

Note: From 1947 through 1958, the first selection in the draft was a Bonus pick, awarded to the winner of a random draw. That club, in turn, forfeited its last-round draft choice. The winner of the Bonus choice was eliminated from future draws. The system was abolished after 1958, by which time all clubs had received a Bonus choice.

FIRST-ROUND SELECTIONS

If club had no first-round selection, first player drafted is listed with round in parentheses.

ALL-TIME RECORDS

Compiled by Elias Sports Bureau

The following records reflect all available official information on the National Football League from its formation in 1920 to date. Also included are all applicable records from the American Football League, 1960-69.

Individuals eligible for Rookie records are players who were in their first season of professional football and had not been on the roster of another professional football team, including teams in other leagues, for any regular-season or postseason games in a previous season. Eligible players, therefore, include those who were under contract to a National Football League club for a previous season but were terminated prior to their club's first regular-season game and not re-signed, or who were placed on Reserve/Injured (or another category of the Reserve List) prior to their club's first regular-season game and were not activated during the rest of the regular season or postseason.

NFL DIGEST OF RULES

This Digest of Rules of the National Football League has been prepared to aid players, fans, and members of the press, radio, and television media in their understanding of the game.

It is not meant to be a substitute for the official rule book. In any case of conflict between these explanations and the official rules, the rules always have precedence.

In order to make it easier to coordinate the information in this digest, the topics discussed generally follow the order of the rule book.

OFFICIALS' JURISDICTIONS, POSITIONS, AND DUTIES

Referee—General oversight and control of game. Gives signals for all fouls and is final authority for rule interpretations. Takes a position in backfield 10 to 12 yards behind line of scrimmage, favors right side (if quarterback is right-handed passer). Determines legality of snap, observes deep back(s) for legal motion. On running play, observes quarterback during and after handoff, remains with him until action has cleared away, then proceeds downfield, checking on runner and contact behind him. When runner is downed, Referee determines forward progress from wing official and, if necessary, adjusts final position of ball.

On pass plays, drops back as quarterback begins to fade back, picks up legality of blocks by near linemen. Changes to complete concentration on quarterback as defenders approach. Primarily responsible to rule on possible roughing action on passer and if ball becomes loose, rules whether ball is free on a fumble or dead on an incomplete pass.

During kicking situations, Referee has primary responsibility to rule on kicker's actions and whether or not any subsequent contact by a defender is legal. The Referee will announce on the microphone when each period is ended.

Umpire—Primary responsibility to rule on players' equipment, as well as their conduct and actions on scrimmage line. Lines up approximately four to five yards downfield, varying position from in front of weakside tackle to strongside guard. Looks for possible false start by offensive linemen. Observes legality of contact by both offensive linemen while blocking and by defensive players while they attempt to ward off blockers. Is prepared to call rule infractions if they occur on offense or defense. Moves forward to line of scrimmage when pass play develops in order to insure that interior linemen do not move illegally downfield. If offensive linemen indicate screen pass is to be attempted, Umpire shifts his attention toward screen side, picks up potential receiver in order to insure that he will legally be permitted to run his pattern and continues to rule on action of blockers. Umpire is to assist in ruling on incomplete or trapped passes when ball is thrown overhead or short. On punt plays, Umpire positions himself opposite Referee in offensive backfield—5 yards from kicker and parallel.

Head Linesman—Primarily responsible for ruling on offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Keys on closest setback on his side of the field. On pass plays, Linesman is responsible to clear his receiver approximately seven yards downfield as he moves to a point five yards beyond the line. Linesman's secondary responsibility is to rule on any illegal action taken by defenders on any delay receiver moving downfield. Has full responsibility for ruling on sideline plays on his side, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds. Together with Referee, Linesman is responsible for keeping track of number of downs and is in charge of mechanics of his chain crew in connection with its duties.

Linesman must be prepared to assist in determining forward progress by a runner on play directed toward middle or into his side zone. He, in turn, is to signal Referee or Umpire what forward point ball has reached. Linesman is also responsible to rule on legality of action involving any receiver who approaches his side zone. He is to call pass interference when the infraction occurs and is to rule on legality of blockers and defenders on plays involving ball carriers, whether it is entirely a running play, a combination pass and run, or a play involving a kick.

Line Judge—Straddles line of scrimmage on side of field opposite Linesman. Keeps time of game as a backup for clock operator. Along with Linesman is responsible for offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Line Judge keys on closest setback on his side of field. Line Judge is to observe his receiver until he moves at least seven yards downfield. He then moves toward backfield side, being especially alert to rule on any back in motion and on flight of ball when pass is made (he must rule whether forward or backward). Line Judge has primary responsibility to rule whether or not passer is behind or beyond line of scrimmage when pass is made. He also assists in observing actions by blockers and defenders who are on his side of field. After pass is thrown, Line Judge directs attention toward activities that occur in back of Umpire. During punting situations, Line Judge remains at line of scrimmage to be sure that only the end men move downfield until kick has been made. He also rules whether or not the kick crossed line and then observes action by members of the kicking team who are moving downfield to cover the kick. The Line Judge will advise the Referee when time has expired at the end of each period.

Field Judge—Operates on same side of field as Line Judge, 20 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Field Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; calls clipping on punt returns; and, together with Back Judge, rules whether or not field goal attempts are successful.

Side Judge—Operates on same side of field as Linesman, 20 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Side Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; and calls clipping on punt returns. On field goals and point after touchdown attempts, he becomes a double umpire.

Back Judge—Takes a position 25 yards downfield. In general, favors the tight end's side of field. Keys on tight end, concentrates on his path and observes legality of tight end's potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him.

Back Judge times interval between plays on 40/25-second clock plus intermission between two periods of each half; makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; is responsible to rule on plays involving end line; calls pass interference, fair catch infractions, and clipping on kick returns; and, together with Field Judge, rules whether or not field goals and conversions are successful.

FIELD

1. Sidelines and end lines are out of bounds. The goal line is actually in the end zone. A player with the ball in his possession scores when the ball is on, above, or over the goal line.
2. The field is rimmed by a white border, six feet wide, along the sidelines. All of this is out of bounds.
3. The hashmarks (inbound lines) are 70 feet, 9 inches from each sideline.
4. Goal posts must be single-standard type, offset from the end line and painted bright gold. The goal posts must be 18 feet, 6 inches wide and the top face of the crossbar must be 10 feet above the ground. Vertical posts extend at least 30 feet above the crossbar. A ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches long is to be attached to the top of each post. The actual goal is the plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the outer edges of the posts.
5. The field is 360 feet long and 160 feet wide. The end zones are 30 feet deep. The line used in try-for-point plays is two yards out from the goal line.
6. Chain crew members and ball boys must be uniformly identifiable.
7. All clubs must use standardized sideline markers. Pylons must be used for goal line and end line markings.
8. End zone markings and club identification at 50 yard line must be approved by the Commissioner to avoid any confusion as to delineation of goal lines, sidelines, and end lines.

BALL

1. The home club shall have 24 balls available for testing with a pressure gauge by the referee two hours prior to the starting time of the game to meet with League requirements. Twelve (12) new footballs, sealed in a special box and shipped by the manufacturer, will be opened in the officials' locker room two hours prior to the starting time of the game. These balls are to be specially marked by the referee and used exclusively for the kicking game.

COIN TOSS

1. The toss of coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain before the coin is flipped. The winner may choose one of two privileges and the loser gets the other:
   (a) Receive or kick
   (b) Goal his team will defend
2. Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice.

TIMING

1. The stadium game clock is official. In case it stops or is operating incorrectly, the Line Judge takes over the official timing on the field.
2. Each period is 15 minutes. The intermission between the periods is two minutes. Halftime is 12 minutes, unless otherwise specified.

3. On charged team time outs, the Field Judge starts watch and blows whistle after 1 minute 50 seconds, unless television does not utilize the time for commercial. In this case the length of the time out is reduced to 40 seconds.
4. The Referee will allow necessary time to attend to an injured player, or repair a legal player's equipment.
5. Each team is allowed three time outs each half.
6. Time between plays will be 40 seconds from the end of a given play until the snap of the ball for the next play, or a 25-second interval after certain administrative stoppages and game delays.
7. Clock will start running when ball is snapped following all changes of team possession.
8. With the exception of the last two minutes of the first half and the last five minutes of the second half, the game clock will be restarted following a kickoff return, a player going out of bounds on a play from scrimmage, or after declined penalties when appropriate on the referee's signal.
9. Consecutive team time outs can be taken by opposing teams but the length of the second time out will be reduced to 40 seconds.
10. When, in the judgment of the Referee, the level of crowd noise prevents the offense from hearing its signals, he can institute a series of procedures which can result in a loss of team time outs or a five-yard penalty against the defensive team.

SUDDEN DEATH

1. The sudden death system of determining the winner shall prevail when score is tied at the end of the regulation playing time of all NFL games. The team scoring first during overtime play shall be the winner and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act.
2. At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
3. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods or until there is a score. There is a two-minute intermission between subsequent periods. The teams change goals at the start of each period. Each team has three time outs per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
   Exception: In preseason and regular season games there shall be a maximum of 15 minutes of sudden death with two time outs instead of three. General provisions that apply for the fourth quarter will prevail. Try not attempted if touchdown scored.

TIMING IN FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF

1. On kickoff, clock does not start until the ball has been legally touched by player of either team in the field of play. (In all other cases, clock starts with kickoff.)
2. A team cannot buy an excess time out for a penalty. However, a fourth time out is allowed without penalty for an injured player, who must be removed immediately. A fifth time out or more is allowed for an injury and a five-yard penalty is assessed if the clock was running. Additionally, if the clock was running and the score is tied or the team in possession is losing, the ball cannot be put in play for at least 10 seconds on the fourth or more time out. The half or game can end while those 10 seconds are run off on the clock.
3. If the defensive team is behind in the score and commits a foul when it has no time outs left in the final 30 seconds of either half, the offensive team can decline the penalty for the foul and have the time on the clock expire.
4. Fouls that occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.

TRY

1. After a touchdown, the scoring team is allowed a try during one scrimmage down. The ball may be spotted anywhere between the inbounds lines, two or more yards from the goal line. The successful conversion counts one point by kick; two points for a successful conversion by touchdown; or one point for a safety.
2. The defensive team never can score on a try. As soon as defense gets possession or the kick is blocked or a touchdown is not scored, the try is over.
3. Any distance penalty for fouls committed by the defense that prevent the try from being attempted can be enforced on the succeeding try or succeeding kickoff. Any foul committed on a successful try will result in a distance penalty being assessed on the ensuing kickoff.
4. Only the fumbling player can recover and advance a fumble during a try.

PLAYERS-SUBSTITUTIONS

1. Each team is permitted 11 men on the field at the snap.
2. Unlimited substitution is permitted. However, players may enter the field only when the ball is dead. Players who have been substituted for are not permitted to linger on the field. Such lingering will be interpreted as unsportsmanlike conduct.
3. Players leaving the game must be out of bounds on their own side, clearing the field between the end lines, before a snap or free kick. If player crosses end line leaving field, it is delay of game (five-yard penalty).
4. Offensive substitutes who remain in the game must move onto the field as far as the inside of the field numerals before moving to a wide position.
5. With the exception of the last two minutes of either half, the offensive team, while in the process of substitution or simulated substitution, is prohibited from rushing quickly to the line and snapping the ball with the obvious attempt to cause a defensive foul; i.e., too many men on the field.

KICKOFF

1. The kickoff shall be from the kicking team's 30-yard line at the start of each half and after a field goal and try. A kickoff is one type of free kick.
2. A one-inch tee may be used (no tee permitted for field goal or try attempt) on a kickoff. The ball is put in play by a placekick.
3. A kickoff may not score a field goal.
4. A kickoff is illegal unless it travels 10 yards OR is touched by the receiving team. Once the ball is touched by the receiving team or has gone 10 yards, it is a free ball. Receivers may recover and advance. Kicking team may recover but NOT advance UNLESS receiver had possession and lost the ball.
5. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines without being touched by the receiving team, the ball belongs to the receivers 30 yards from the spot of the kick or at the out-of-bounds spot unless the ball went out-of-bounds the first time an onside kick was attempted. In this case, the kicking team is penalized five yards and the ball must be kicked again.
6. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines and is touched last by receiving team, it is receiver's ball at out-of-bounds spot.
7. If the kicking team either illegally kicks off out of bounds or is guilty of a short free kick on two or more consecutive onside kicks, receivers may take possession of the ball at the dead ball spot, out-of-bounds spot, or spot of illegal touch.

SAFETY

1. In addition to a kickoff, the other free kick is a kick after a safety (safety kick). A punt may be used (a punt may not be used on a kickoff).
2. On a safety kick, the team scored upon puts ball in play by a punt, dropkick, or placekick without tee. No score can be made on a free kick following a safety, even if a series of penalties places team in position. (A field goal can be scored only on a play from scrimmage or a free kick after a fair catch.)

FAIR CATCH KICK

1. After a fair catch, the receiving team has the option to put the ball in play by a snap or a fair catch kick (field goal attempt), with fair catch kick lines established ten yards apart. All general rules apply as for a field goal attempt from scrimmage. The clock starts when the ball is kicked. (No tee permitted.)

FIELD GOAL

1. All field goals attempted (kicker) and missed from beyond the 20-yard line will result in the defensive team taking possession of the ball at the spot of the kick. On any field goal attempted and missed where the spot of the kick is on or inside the 20-yard line, ball will revert to defensive team at the 20-yard line.

SAFETY

1. The important factor in a safety is impetus. Two points are scored for the opposing team when the ball is dead on or behind a team's own goal line if the impetus came from a player on that team.

Examples of Safety:

(a) Blocked punt goes out of kicking team's end zone. Impetus was provided by punting team. The block only changes direction of ball, not impetus.
(b) Ball carrier retreats from field of play into his own end zone and is downed. Ball carrier provides impetus.
(c) Offensive team commits a foul and spot of enforcement is behind its own goal line.
(d) Player on receiving team muffs punt and, trying to get ball, forces or illegally kicks (creating new impetus) it into end zone where it goes out of the end zone or is recovered by a member of the receiving team in the end zone.

Examples of Non-Safety:

(a) Player intercepts a pass with both feet inbounds in the field of play and his momentum carries him into his own end zone. Ball is put in play at spot of interception.
(b) Player intercepts a pass in his own end zone and is downed in the end zone, even after recovering in the end zone. Impetus came from passing team, not from defense. (Touchback)
(c) Player passes from behind his own goal line. Opponent bats down ball in end zone. (Incomplete pass)

MEASURING

1. The forward point of the ball is used when measuring.

POSITION OF PLAYERS AT SNAP

1. Offensive team must have at least seven players on line.
2. Offensive players, not on line, must be at least one yard back at snap.
   (Exception: player who takes snap.)
3. No interior lineman may move abruptly after taking or simulating a three-point stance.

4. No player of either team may enter neutral zone before snap.
5. No player of offensive team may charge or move abruptly, after assuming set position, in such manner as to lead defense to believe snap has started. No player of the defensive team within one yard of the line of scrimmage may make an abrupt movement in an attempt to cause the offense to false start.
6. If a player changes his eligibility, the Referee must alert the defensive captain after player has reported to him.
7. All players of offensive team must be stationary at snap, except one back who may be in motion parallel to scrimmage line or backward (not forward).
8. After a shift or huddle all players on offensive team must come to an absolute stop for at least one second with no movement of hands, feet, head, or swaying of body.
9. Quarterbacks can be called for a false start penalty (five yards) if their actions are judged to be an obvious attempt to draw an opponent offside.
10. Offensive linemen are permitted to interlock legs.

USE OF HANDS, ARMS, AND BODY

1. No player on offense may assist a runner except by blocking for him. There shall be no interlocking interference.
2. A runner may ward off opponents with his hands and arms but no other player on offense may use hands or arms to obstruct an opponent by grasping with hands, pushing, or encircling any part of his body during a block. Hands (open or closed) can be thrust forward to initially contact an opponent on or outside the opponent's frame, but the blocker immediately must work to bring his hands on or inside the frame.
   Note: Pass blocking: Hand(s) thrust forward that slip outside the body of the defender will be legal if blocker immediately worked to bring them back inside. Hand(s) or arm(s) that encircle a defender—i.e., hook an opponent—are to be considered illegal and officials are to call a foul for holding.
   Blocker cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an opponent in a manner that restricts his movement as the play develops.
3. Hands cannot be thrust forward above the frame to contact an opponent on the neck, face or head.
   Note: The frame is defined as the part of the opponent's body below the neck that is presented to the blocker.
4. A defensive player may not tackle or hold an opponent other than a runner. Otherwise, he may use his hands, arms, or body only:
   (a) To defend or protect himself against an obstructing opponent.
   Exception: An eligible receiver is considered to be an obstructing opponent ONLY to a point five yards beyond the line of scrimmage unless the player who receives the snap clearly demonstrates no further intention to pass the ball. Within this five-yard zone, a defensive player may check an eligible player in front of him. A defensive player is allowed to maintain continuous and unbroken contact within the five-yard zone until a point when the receiver is even with the defender. The defensive player cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an eligible receiver in a manner that restricts movement as the play develops. Beyond this five-yard limitation, a defender may use his hands or arms ONLY to defend or protect himself against impending contact caused by a receiver. In such reaction, the defender may not contact a receiver who attempts to take a path to evade him.
   (b) To push or pull opponent out of the way on line of scrimmage.
   (c) In actual attempt to get at or tackle runner.
   (d) To push or pull opponent out of the way in a legal attempt to recover a loose ball.
   (e) During a legal block on an opponent who is not an eligible pass receiver.
   (f) When legally blocking an eligible pass receiver above the waist.
   Exception: Eligible receivers lined up within two yards of the tackle, whether on or immediately behind the line, may be blocked below the waist at or behind the line of scrimmage. NO eligible receiver may be blocked below the waist after he goes beyond the line. (Illegal cut)
   Note: Once the quarterback hands off or pitches the ball to a back, or if the quarterback leaves the pocket area, the restrictions (illegal chuck, illegal cut) on the defensive team relative to the offensive receivers will end, provided the ball is not in the air.
5. A defensive player may not contact an opponent above the shoulders with the palm of his hand except to ward him off on the line. This exception is permitted only if it is not a repeated act against the same opponent during any one contact. In all other cases the palms may be used on head, neck, or face only to ward off or push an opponent in legal attempt to get at the ball.
6. Any offensive player who pretends to possess the ball or to whom a teammate pretends to give the ball may be tackled provided he is crossing his scrimmage line between the ends of a normal tight offensive line.
7. An offensive player who lines up more than two yards outside his own tackle or a player who, at the snap, is in a backfield position and subsequently takes a position more than two yards outside a tackle may not clip an opponent anywhere nor may he contact an opponent below the waist if the blocker is moving toward the ball and if contact is made within an area five yards on either side of the line. (crackback)
8. A player of either team may block at any time provided it is not pass interference, fair catch interference, or unnecessary roughness.
9. A player may not bat or punch:
   (a) A loose ball (in field of play) toward his opponent's goal line or in any direction in either end zone.
   (b) A ball in player possession.
   Note: If there is any question as to whether a defender is stripping or batting a ball in player possession, the official(s) will rule the action as a legal act (stripping the ball).
   Exception: A forward or backward pass may be batted, tipped, or deflected in any direction at any time by either the offense or the defense.
   Note: A pass in flight that is controlled or caught may only be thrown backward, if it is thrown forward it is considered an illegal bat.
10. No player may deliberately kick any ball except as a punt, dropkick, or placekick.

FORWARD PASS

1. A forward pass may be touched or caught by any eligible receiver. All members of the defensive team are eligible. Eligible receivers on the offensive team are players on either end of line (other than center, guard, or tackle) or players at least one yard behind the line at the snap. A T-formation quarterback is not eligible to receive a forward pass during a play from scrimmage.
   Exception: T-formation quarterback becomes eligible if pass is previously touched by an eligible receiver.
2. An offensive team may make only one forward pass during each play from scrimmage (Loss of 5 yards).
3. The passer must be behind his line of scrimmage (Loss of down and five yards, enforced from the spot of pass).
4. Any eligible offensive player may catch a forward pass. If a pass is touched by one eligible offensive player and touched or caught by a second offensive player, pass completion is legal. Further, all offensive players become eligible once a pass is touched by an eligible receiver or any defensive player.
5. The rules concerning a forward pass and ineligible receivers:
   (a) If ball is touched accidentally by an ineligible receiver on or behind his line: loss of five yards.
   (b) If ineligible receiver is illegally downfield: loss of five yards.
   (c) If touched or caught (intentionally or accidentally) by ineligible receiver beyond the line: loss of 5 yards.
6. The player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.
7. Any forward pass becomes incomplete and ball is dead if:
   (a) Pass hits the ground or goes out of bounds.
   (b) Pass hits the goal post or the crossbar of either team.
   (c) Pass is caught by offensive player after touching ineligible receiver.
   (d) An illegal pass is caught by an offensive player.
8. A forward pass is complete when a receiver clearly possesses the pass and touches the ground with both feet inbounds while in possession of the ball. If a receiver would have landed inbounds with both feet but is carried or pushed out of bounds while maintaining possession of the ball, pass is complete at the out-of-bounds spot.
9. If an eligible receiver goes out of bounds accidentally or is legally forced out by a defender and returns to first touch and catch a pass, the play is regarded as an incomplete pass. Loss of 5 yards.
10. On a fourth down pass—when the offensive team is inside the opposition's 20-yard line—an incomplete pass results in a loss of down at the line of scrimmage.
11. If a personal foul is committed by the defense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the spot where ball becomes dead.
12. If a personal foul is committed by the offense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the previous line of scrimmage.

INTENTIONAL GROUNDING OF FORWARD PASS

1. Intentional grounding of a forward pass is a foul: loss of down and 10 yards from previous spot if passer is in the field of play or loss of down at the spot of the foul if it occurs more than 10 yards behind the line or safety if passer is in his own end zone when ball is released.
2. Intentional grounding will be called when a passer, facing an imminent loss of yardage due to pressure from the defense, throws a forward pass without a realistic chance of completion.
3. Intentional grounding will not be called when a passer, while out of the pocket and facing an imminent loss of yardage, throws a pass that lands at or beyond the line of scrimmage, even if no offensive player(s) have a realistic chance to catch the ball (including if the ball lands out of bounds over the sideline or end line).
4. Intentional gounding will not be called when a screen pass is developing and the quarterback throws the ball in the vicinity of the screen receiver.

PROTECTION OF PASSER

1. By interpretation, a pass begins when the passer—with possession of ball—starts to bring his hand forward. If ball strikes ground after this action has begun, play is ruled an incomplete pass. If passer loses control of ball prior to his bringing his hand forward, play is ruled a fumble.

2. No defensive player may run into a passer of a legal forward pass after the ball has left his hand (15 yards). The Referee must determine whether opponent had a reasonable chance to stop his momentum during an attempt to block the pass or tackle the passer while he still had the ball.
3. No defensive player who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback may hit him flagrantly in the area of the knee(s) or below when approaching in any direction.
4. Officials are to blow the play dead as soon as the quarterback is clearly in the grasp and control of any tackler, and his safety is in jeopardy.

PASS INTERFERENCE

1. There shall be no interference with a forward pass thrown from behind the line. The restriction for the passing team starts with the snap. The restriction on the defensive team starts when the ball leaves the passer's hand. Both restrictions end when the ball is touched by anyone.
2. The penalty for defensive pass interference is an automatic first down at the spot of the foul. If interference is in the end zone, it is first down for the offense on the defense's 1-yard line. If previous spot was inside the defense's 1-yard line, penalty is half the distance to the goal line.
3. The penalty for offensive pass interference is 10 yards from the previous spot.
4. It is pass interference by either team when any player movement beyond the line of scrimmage significantly hinders the progress of an eligible player of such player's opportunity to catch the ball. Offensive pass interference rules apply from the time the ball is snapped until the ball is touched. Defensive pass interference rules apply from the time the ball is thrown until the ball is touched.
   Actions that constitute defensive pass interference include but are not limited to:
   (a) Contact by a defender who is not playing the ball and such contact restricts the receiver's opportunity to make the catch.
   (b) Playing through the back of a receiver in an attempt to make a play on the ball.
   (c) Grabbing a receiver's arm(s) in such a manner that restricts his opportunity to catch a pass.
   (d) Extending an arm across the body of a receiver thus restricting his ability to catch a pass, regardless of whether the defender is playing the ball.
   (e) Cutting off the path of a receiver by making contact with him without playing the ball.
   (f) Hooking a receiver in an attempt to get to the ball in such a manner that it causes the receiver's body to turn prior to the ball arriving.
   Actions that do not constitute pass interference include but are not limited to:
   (a) Incidental contact by a defender's hands, arms, or body when both players are competing for the ball, or neither player is looking for the ball. If there is any question whether contact is incidental, the ruling shall be no interference.
   (b) Inadvertent tangling of feet when both players are playing the ball or neither player is playing the ball.
   (c) Contact that would normally be considered pass interference, but the pass is clearly uncatchable by the involved players.
   (d) Laying a hand on a receiver that does not restrict the receiver in an attempt to make a play on the ball.
   (e) Contact by a defender who has gained position on a receiver in an attempt to catch the ball.
   Actions that constitute offensive pass interference include but are not limited to:
   (a) Blocking downfield by an offensive player prior to the ball being touched.
   (b) Initiating contact with a defender by shoving or pushing off thus creating a separation in an attempt to catch a pass.
   (c) Driving through a defender who has established a position on the field.
   Actions that do not constitute offensive pass interference include but are not limited to:
   (a) Incidental contact by a receiver's hands, arms, or body when both players are competing for the ball or neither player is looking for the ball.
   (b) Inadvertent touching of feet when both players are playing the ball or neither player is playing the ball.
   (c) Contact that would normally be considered pass interference, but the ball is clearly uncatchable by involved players.

Note 1: If there is any question whether player contact is incidental, the ruling should be no interference.

Note 2: Defensive players have as much right to the path of the ball as eligible offensive players.

Note 3: Pass interference for both teams ends when the pass is touched.

Note 4: There can be no pass interference at or behind the line of scrimmage, but defensive actions such as tackling a receiver can still result in a 5-yard penalty for defensive holding, if accepted.

Note 5: Whenever a team presents an apparent punting formation, defensive pass interference is not to be called for action on the end man on the line of scrimmage, or an eligible receiver behind the line of scrimmage who is aligned or in motion more than one yard outside the end man on the line. Defensive holding, such as tackling a receiver, still can be called and result in a 5-yard penalty from the previous spot, if accepted. Offensive pass interference rules still apply.

BACKWARD PASS

1. Any pass not forward is regarded as a backward pass. A pass parallel to the line is a backward pass. A runner may pass backward at any time.
2. A backward pass that strikes the ground can be recovered and advanced by either team.
3. A backward pass caught in the air can be advanced by either team.
4. A backward pass in flight may not be batted forward by an offensive player.

FUMBLE

1. The distinction between a fumble and a muff should be kept in mind in considering rules about fumbles. A fumble is the loss of player possession of the ball. A muff is the touching of a loose ball by a player in an unsuccessful attempt to obtain possession.
2. A fumble may be advanced by any player on either team regardless of whether recovered before or after ball hits the ground.
3. A fumble that goes forward and out of bounds will return to the fumbling team at the spot of the fumble unless the ball goes out of bounds in the opponent's end zone. In this case, it is a touchback.
4. On a play from scrimmage, if an offensive player fumbles anywhere on the field during fourth down, only the fumbling player is permitted to recover and/or advance the ball. If any player fumbles after the two-minute warning in a half, only the fumbling player is permitted to recover and/or advance the ball. If recovered by any other offensive player, the ball is dead at the spot of the fumble unless it is recovered behind the spot of the fumble. In that case, the ball is dead at the spot of recovery. Any defensive player may recover and/or advance any fumble at any time.
5. A muffed hand-to-hand snap from center is treated as a fumble.

KICKS FROM SCRIMMAGE

1. Any kick from scrimmage must be made from behind the line to be legal.
2. Any punt or missed field goal that touches a goal post is dead.
3. During a kick from scrimmage, only the end men, as eligible receivers on the line of scrimmage at the time of the snap, are permitted to go beyond the line before the ball is kicked.
   Exception: An eligible receiver who, at the snap, is aligned or in motion behind the line and more than one yard outside the end man on his side of the line, clearly making him the outside receiver, replaces that end man as the player eligible to go downfield after the snap. All other members of the kicking team must remain at the line of scrimmage until the ball has been kicked.
4. Any punt that is blocked and does not cross the line of scrimmage can be recovered and advanced by either team. However, if offensive team recovers it must make the yardage necessary for its first down to retain possession if punt was on fourth down.
5. The kicking team may never advance its own kick even though legal recovery is made beyond the line of scrimmage. Possession only.
6. A member of the receiving team may not run into or rough a kicker who kicks from behind his line unless contact is:
   (a) Incidental to and after he had touched ball in flight.
   (b) Caused by kicker's own motions.
   (c) Occurs during a quick kick, or a kick made after a run behind the line, or after kicker recovers a loose ball on the ground. Ball is loose when kicker muffs snap or snap hits ground.
   (d) Defender is blocked into kicker.
   The penalty for running into the kicker is 5 yards. For roughing the kicker: 15 yards, an automatic first down and disqualification if flagrant.
7. If a member of the kicking team attempting to down the ball on or inside opponent's 5-yard line carries the ball into the end zone, it is a touchback.
8. Fouls during a punt are enforced from the previous spot (line of scrimmage).
   Exception: Illegal touching, fair-catch interference, invalid fair-catch signal, or personal foul (blocking after a fair-catch signal).
9. While the ball is in the air or rolling on the ground following a punt or field goal attempt and receiving team commits a foul before gaining possession, receiving team will retain possession and will be penalized for its foul.
10. It will be illegal for a defensive player to jump or stand on any player, or be picked up by a teammate or to use a hand or hands on a teammate to gain additional height in an attempt to block a kick (Penalty: 15 yards, unsportsmanlike conduct).
11. A punted ball remains a kicked ball until it is declared dead or in possession of either team.
12. Any member of the punting team may down the ball anywhere in the field of play. However, it is illegal touching (Official's time out and receiver's ball at spot of illegal touching). This foul does not offset any foul by receivers during the down.
13. Defensive team may advance all kicks from scrimmage (including unsuccessful field goal) whether or not ball crosses defensive team's goal line. Rules pertaining to kicks from scrimmage apply until defensive team gains possession.
14. When a team presents a punt formation, defensive pass interference is not to be called for actions on the widest player eligible to go beyond line. Defensive holding may be called.

FAIR CATCH

1. The member of the receiving team must raise one arm a full length above his head and wave it from side to side while kick is in flight. (Failure to give proper sign: receivers' ball five yards behind spot of signal.) Note: It is legal for the receiver to shield his eyes from the sun by raising one hand no higher than the helmet.
2. No opponent may interfere with the fair catcher, the ball, or his path to the ball. Penalty: 15 yards from spot of foul and fair catch is awarded.
3. A player who signals for a fair catch is not required to catch the ball. However, if a player signals for a fair catch, he may not block or initiate contact with any player on the kicking team until the ball touches a player. Penalty: snap 15 yards behind spot of foul.
4. If ball hits ground or is touched by member of kicking team in flight, fair catch signal is off and all rules for a kicked ball apply.
5. Any undue advance by a fair catch receiver is delay of game. No specific distance is specified for undue advance as ball is dead at spot of catch. If player comes to a reasonable stop, no penalty. For violation, five yards.
6. If time expires while ball is in play and a fair catch is awarded, receiving team may choose to extend the period with one fair catch kick down. However, placekicker may not use tee.

FOUL ON LAST PLAY OF HALF OR GAME

1. On a foul by defense on last play of half or game, the down is replayed if penalty is accepted.
2. On a foul by the offense on last play of half or game, the down is not replayed and the play in which the foul is committed is nullified.
   Exception: Fair catch interference, foul following change of possession, illegal touching. No score by offense counts.

SPOT OF ENFORCEMENT OF FOUL

1. There are four basic spots at which a penalty for a foul is enforced:
   (a) Spot of foul: The spot where the foul is committed.
   (b) Previous spot: The spot where the ball was put in play.
   (c) Spot of snap, backward pass or fumble: The spot where the foul occurred or the spot where the penalty is to be enforced.
   (d) Succeeding spot: The spot where the ball next would be put in play if no distance penalty were to be enforced.
   Exception: If foul occurs after a touchdown and before the whistle for a try, succeeding spot is spot of next kickoff.
2. All fouls committed by offensive team behind the line of scrimmage (except in the end zone) shall be penalized from the previous spot. If the foul is in the end zone, it is a safety.
3. When spot of enforcement for fouls involving defensive holding or illegal use of hands by the defense is behind the line of scrimmage, any penalty yardage to be assessed on that play shall be measured from the line if the foul occurred beyond the line.

DOUBLE FOUL

1. If there is a double foul during a down in which there is a change of possession, the team last gaining possession may keep the ball unless its foul was committed prior to the change of possession.
2. If double foul occurs after a change of possession, the defensive team retains the ball at the spot of its foul or dead ball spot.
3. If one of the fouls of a double foul involves disqualification, that player must be removed, but no penalty yardage is to be assessed.
4. If the kickers foul during a kick before possession changes and the receivers foul after possession changes, the receivers will retain the ball after enforcement of its foul.

PENALTY ENFORCED ON FOLLOWING KICKOFF

1. When a team scores by touchdown, field goal, extra point, or safety and either team commits a personal foul, unsportsmanlike conduct, or obvious unfair act during the down, the penalty will be assessed on the following kickoff.

EMERGENCIES AND UNFAIR ACTS

Emergencies—Policy

The National Football League requires all League personnel, including game officials, League office employees, players, coaches, and other club employees to use best effort to see that each game—preseason, regular season, and postseason—is played to its conclusion. The League recognizes, however, that emergencies may arise that make a game's completion impossible or inadvisable. Such circumstances may include, but are not limited to, severely inclement weather, natural or manmade disaster, power failure, and spectator interference. Games should be suspended, cancelled, postponed, or terminated when circumstances exist such that comencement or continuation of play would pose a threat to the safety of participants or spectators.

Authority of Commissioner's Office

1. Authority to cancel, postpone, or terminate games is vested only in the Commissioner and the League President (other League office representatives and referees may suspend play temporarily; see point No. 3 under this section and point No. 1 under "Authority of Referee" below). The following definitions apply:
   - Cancel. To cancel a game is to nullify it either before or after it begins and to make no provision for rescheduling it or for including its score or other performance statistics in League records.
   - Postpone. To postpone a game is (a) to defer its starting time to a later date, or (b) to suspend it after play has begun and to make provision to resume at a later date with all scores and other performance statistics up to the point of postponement added to those achieved in the resumed portion of the game.
   - Terminate. To terminate a game is to end it short of a full 60 minutes of play, to record it officially as a completed game, and to make no provision to resume it at a later date. The Commissioner or League President may terminate a game in an emergency if, in his opinion, it is reasonable to project that its resumption (a) would not change its ultimate result or (b) would not adversely affect any other interteam competitive issue.
   - Forfeit. The Commissioner, (except in cases of disciplinary action; see last section on "Removing Team from Field"), League President, and their representatives, including referees, are not authorized unilaterally to declare forfeits. A forfeit occurs only when a game is not played because of the failure or refusal of one team to participate. In that event, the other team, if ready and willing to play, is the winner by a score of 2-0.
2. If an emergency arises that may require cancellation, postponement, or termination (see above), the highest ranking representative from the Commissioner's office working the game in a "control" capacity will consult with the Commissioner, League President, or game-day duty officer designated by the League (by telephone, if that person is not in attendance) concerning such decision. If circumstances warrant, the League representative should also attempt to consult with the weather bureau and with appropriate security personnel of the League, club, stadium, and local authorities. If no representative from the Commissioner's office is working the game in a "control" capacity, the referee will be in charge (see "Authority of Referee" below).
3. In circumstances where safety is of immediate concern, the Commissioner's-office representative may, after consulting with the referee, authorize a temporary suspension in play and, if warranted, removal of the participants from the playing field. The representative should be mindful of the safety of spectators, players, game officials, nonplayer personnel in the bench areas, and other field-level personnel such as photographers and cheerleaders.
4. If possible, the League-office representative should consult with authorized representatives of the two participating clubs before any decision involving cancellation, postponement, or termination is made by the Commissioner or League President.
5. If the Commissioner or League President decides to cancel, postpone, or terminate a game, his representative at the game or the game-day duty officer will then determine the method(s) for announcing such decision, e.g., by public-address announcement over referee's wireless microphone, by public-address announcement by home club, or by communication to radio, television, and other news media.

Authority of Referee

1. If a referee determines that an emergency warrants immediate removal of participants from the playing field for safety reasons, he may do so on his own authority. If, however, circumstances allow him the time, he must reach the highest ranking full-time League office representative working at the game in a "control" capacity or the game-day duty officer designated by the League (by telephone, if that person is not in attendance) and discuss the actual or potential emergency with such representative or duty officer. That representative or duty officer then will make the final decision on removal of participants from the field or obtain a decision from the Commissioner or League President.
2. If a referee removes participants from the playing field under No. 1 above, he may order them to their respective bench areas or to their locker rooms, whichever is appropriate in the circumstances.
3. After appropriate consultation under No. 1 above, the referee must advise the two participating head coaches of the nature of the emergency and the action contemplated (if the decision has not yet been reached) or of the final decision.
4. The referee must not, before a decision is reached, make an announcement on his microphone concerning the possibility of a cancellation, postponement, or termination unless instructed to do so by an appropriate representative of the Commissioner's office.
5. The referee must not discuss a forfeit with head coaches or club personnel and must not use that term over the referee's microphone (see definition of forfeit under No. 1 of "Authority of Commissioner's Office" above).
6. The referee must not assess an unsportsmanlike-conduct penalty on the home team for actions of fans that cause or contribute to an emergency.
7. The referee should be mindful of the safety of not only players and officials, but also of the spectators and other nonparticipants.
8. If an emergency involves spectator interference (for example, nonparticipants on the field or thrown objects), the referee immediately should contact the appropriate club or League representative for additional security assistance, including, if applicable, involvement of the League's security representative(s) assigned to the game.
9. The referee may order the resumption of play when he deems conditions safe for all concerned and, if circumstances warrant, after consultation with appropriate representatives of the Commissioner's office.
10. Under no circumstances is the referee authorized to cancel, postpone, terminate, or declare forfeiture of a game unilaterally.

Procedures for Starting and Resuming Games

Subject to the points of authority listed above, League personnel and referees will be guided by the following procedures for starting and resuming games that are affected by emergencies.

1. If, because of an emergency, a regular-season or postseason game is not started at its scheduled time and cannot be played at any later time that same day, the game nevertheless must be played on a subsequent date to be determined by the Commissioner.
2. If an emergency threatens to occur during the playing of a game (for example, an incoming tropical storm), the starting time of the game will not be moved to an earlier time unless there is clearly sufficient time to make an orderly change.
3. All games that are suspended temporarily and resumed on the same day, and all suspended games that are postponed to a later date, will be resumed at the point of suspension. On suspension, the referee will call timeout and make a record of the following: team possessing the ball, direction in which its offense was headed, position of the ball on the field, down, distance, period, time remaining in the period, and any other pertinent information required for an orderly and equitable resumption of play.
4. For regular-season postponements, the Commissioner will make every effort to set the game for no later than two days after its originally scheduled date and at the same site. If unable to schedule at the same site, he will select an appropriate alternative site. If it is impossible to schedule the game within two days after its original date, the Commissioner will attempt to schedule it on the Tuesday of the next calendar week. The Commissioner will keep in mind the potential for competitive inequities if one or both of the involved clubs has already been scheduled for a game close to the Tuesday of that week (for example, a Thursday game).
5. For postseason postponements, the Commissioner will make every effort to set the game as soon as possible after its originally scheduled date and at the same site. If unable to schedule at the same site, he will select an appropriate alternative site.
6. Whenever postponement is attributable to negligence by a club, the negligent club is responsible for all home club costs and expenses, including, subject to approval by the Commissioner, gate receipts and television-contract income. [See Section 19.11 (C) of the NFL Constitution and Bylaws.]
7. Each home club is strictly responsible for having the playing surface of its stadium well maintained and suitable for NFL play.

UNFAIR ACTS

Commissioner's Authority

The Commissioner has sole authority to investigate and to take appropriate disciplinary or corrective measures if any club action, nonparticipant interference, or emergency occurs in an NFL game which he deems so unfair or outside the accepted tactics encountered in professional football that such action has a major effect on the result of a game.

No Club Protests

The authority and measures provided for in this section (UNFAIR ACTS) do not constitute a protest machinery for NFL clubs to dispute the result of a game. The Commissioner will conduct an investigation under this section only to review an act or occurrence that he deems so unfair that the result of the game in question may be inequitable to one of the participating teams. The Commissioner will not apply his authority under this section when a club registers a complaint concerning judgmental errors or routine errors of omission by game officials. Games involving such complaints will continue to stand as completed.

Penalties for Unfair Acts

The Commissioner's powers under this section (UNFAIR ACTS) include the imposition of monetary fines and draft choice forfeitures, suspension of persons involved, and, if appropriate, the reversal of a game's result or the rescheduling of a game, either from the beginning or from the point at which the extraordinary act occurred. In the event of rescheduling a game, the Commissioner will be guided by the procedures specified above ("Procedures for Starting and Resuming Games" under EMERGENCIES). In all cases, the Commissioner will conduct a full investigation, including the opportunity for hearings, use of game videotape, and any other procedures he deems appropriate.

REMOVING TEAM FROM FIELD

No player, coach, or other person affiliated with a club may remove that club's team from the field during the playing of any game, including preseason, except at the direction of the referee. Any club violating this rule will be subject to disciplinary action by the Commissioner, including possible game forfeiture and sole liability for financial losses suffered by the opposing club and any other affected member clubs of the League. [See Section 9.1 (E) of the NFL Constitution and Bylaws.]
